EXPLANATORY NOTE

Arconic Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Arconic Delaware" or, following the Reincorporation (as defined below), the "Company") is filing this Form 8-A/A pursuant to Rule 12g-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") to amend the Company's registration statement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission to reflect the Reincorporation of the Company from Pennsylvania to Delaware, which was effective as of December 31, 2017.

On December 31, 2017, Arconic Delaware's predecessor, Arconic Inc., a Pennsylvania company ("Arconic Pennsylvania" or, prior to the Reincorporation, the "Company") merged with and into Arconic Delaware (the "Reincorporation Merger") in order to effect the change of the Company's jurisdiction of incorporation from Pennsylvania to Delaware (the "Reincorporation"). At the effective time of the Reincorporation Merger, each outstanding share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Arconic Pennsylvania was automatically converted into one share of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Arconic Delaware ("Common Stock").

Prior to the Reincorporation, the rights of the Company's shareholders were governed by Pennsylvania law and the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of Arconic Pennsylvania. As of the effective date of the Reincorporation, the rights of the Company's stockholders began to be governed by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware (the "DGCL") and the Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of Arconic Delaware.

In connection with the Reincorporation and in accordance with Rule 12g-3 under the Exchange Act, the shares of Common Stock of Arconic Delaware were deemed to be registered under Section 12(b) of the Exchange Act as the successor to Arconic Pennsylvania. Arconic Delaware, as successor issuer to Arconic Pennsylvania, hereby expressly adopts this Form 8-A/A as its own for all purposes of the Exchange Act. The shares of the Common Stock continue to be listed for trading on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "ARNC."

Other Matters

Limitation of Liability

Delaware law permits a corporation to adopt a provision in its certificate of incorporation eliminating or limiting, with exceptions, the monetary liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for breach of the director's fiduciary duties. The Company's Certificate of Incorporation includes provisions that eliminate the liability of directors to the Company or its stockholders for monetary damages for a breach of fiduciary duties as directors to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law. Under Delaware law, such a provision may not eliminate or limit a director's monetary liability for: (i) breaches of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders; (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct or knowing violation of law; (iii) the payment of unlawful dividends or stock repurchases or redemptions; or (iv) transactions in which the director received an improper personal benefit.

Anti-Takeover Effects

Certain provisions of Delaware law and the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws may have certain anti-takeover effects and may delay, defer or prevent a change in control of the Company.

Under Section 203 of the DGCL, a Delaware corporation is generally prohibited from engaging in a "business combination" with an "interested stockholder" for three years following the time that such person or entity becomes an interested stockholder, unless (i) prior to the time that such stockholder became an interested stockholder, the board of directors approved either the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the stockholding becoming an interested stockholder, (ii) upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the outstanding voting stock, excluding for purposes of determining the voting stock outstanding (but not the outstanding voting stock owned by the interested stockholder) those shares (A) owned by persons who are directors and also officers and (B) in employee stock plans in which employee participants do not have the right to determine confidentially whether shares subject to the plan will be tendered in a tender or exchange offer, or (iii) at or following the time that such stockholder become an interested stockholder, the board of directors and two-thirds of the shares (other than owned by the interested stockholder) approve the transaction. A corporation may "opt out" of Section 203 of the DGCL in its certificate of incorporation. The Company has not "opted out" of, and is subject to, Section 203 of the DGCL.

In addition, the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws contain provisions which:

provide that the Board may authorize the issuance from time to time of shares of preferred stock and in general may fix the designations, powers, rights, preferences, qualifications, limitations and restrictions thereof;

establish advance notice requirements for stockholders to nominate candidates for election as directors or present other business for consideration at meetings of stockholders; and pursuant to Section 115 of the DGCL, provide that the sole and exclusive forum for certain "internal corporate claims" will be a state court located within the State of Delaware (or, if no state court located within the State of Delaware has jurisdiction, the federal court for the District of Delaware).

The above provisions of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws may have certain anti-takeover effects.

The transfer agent, registrar and dividend disbursing agent for the Common Stock is Computershare Trust Company, N.A.
