Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On June 6, 2007, in Jonathan Johnson v. SUPERVALU INC. and Richfoods, Inc., a jury in the Circuit Court for the City of Richmond (Civil Case No.: L5784-4) found for Mr. Johnson, a former owner of a 5-store retail chain in Richmond, Virginia that closed in 2004. In the action against SUPERVALU INC. (the "Company"), Mr. Johnson claimed that the Company did not support his supermarket stores. The jury awarded $500,000 for intentional infliction of emotional distress and $15.5 million for negligent misrepresentation. Previously, the Company prevailed in an arbitration action against Mr. Johnson's company, Market Place Holdings ("MPH"), and obtained a $3.7 million judgment against MPH for unpaid notes and accounts receivable.

The Company believes that Mr. Johnson's claims lack merit from both a factual and a legal standpoint. The Company intends to file post-trial motions for a new trial. If these motions are denied, the Company will seek an appeal with the Supreme Court of Virginia. The Company does not believe that the outcome of this litigation will be material to its results of operations or financial condition.

The Company's press statement discussing the verdict is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

The information in this Current Report on Form 8-K, including Exhibit 99.1, shall not be deemed "filed" for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that Section, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933 or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, regardless of any general incorporation language in such filing.
