Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(c) On March 7, 2011, DeVry Inc. announced the appointment of Robert Paul as the president of Carrington Colleges Group, which comprises Carrington College and Carrington College California. He succeeds George Montgomery, who will retire as president. Mr. Paul is expected to move into his new role over the summer with Mr. Montgomery remaining through the end of calendar 2011 to ensure a seamless transition of duties at Carrington.

Currently DeVry University's vice president of metro operations, Mr. Paul began his career at DeVry University in 2007 as vice president of campus operations. His responsibilities were later expanded to include oversight of the university's network of nearly 100 North American locations. He has been instrumental in the success of several major projects at DeVry University including the creation of Student Central, a program that focuses on world-class support services to help more students succeed in school and graduate.

Mr. Paul is an 18-year veteran of private-sector higher education, having worked for University of Phoenix for 14 years. He has served in a variety of leadership roles across numerous locations during his higher education career including director of enrollment, campus director, and regional vice president. Mr. Paul holds a bachelor's degree in English from McDaniel College and a master's degree in Organizational Management from University of Phoenix.
