Item 5.02(c), (d) Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

Edgar Filing: J C PENNEY CO INC - Form 8-K

On October 27, 2004, the Board of Directors of J. C. Penney Company, Inc. ("Company") elected Myron E. Ullman III to serve as the Company's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, effective on December 1, 2004.

Mr. Ullman, age 57, served from 1992 to 1995 as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of R. H. Macy & Co., Inc. and from 1988 to 1992 as Executive Vice President. From 1982 to 1986, Mr. Ullman served as Executive Vice President, Sanger Harris division, of Federated Department Stores, and from 1986 to 1988 served as Managing Director and Chief Operating Officer of Wharf (Holdings) Ltd. From July 1999 to September 2001, Mr. Ullman served as Directeur General, Group Managing Director, of LVMH Moet Hennessy Louis Vuitton ("LVMH") (a global company producing luxury products). From 1998 until June 1999 Mr. Ullman served as President of LVMH Selective Retail Group, and in 1997 served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of LVMH's DFS Group Limited. Prior to that, Mr. Ullman served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of DFS Group, Ltd. from 1995 to 1997. Mr. Ullman currently serves as a director of Polo Ralph Lauren Corporation, Starbucks Coffee Company, Segway, LLC, Mercy Ships International, UCSF Medical Center, Lucille Packard Foundation for Children's Health, and is on the Board of Advisors of Kendall Jackson Wine Estates, Ltd.

Mr. Ullman will receive a base salary of $1,500,000, which amount will be reviewed by the Board of Directors annually. He will be eligible for annual profit incentive compensation under the J. C. Penney Corporation, Inc. Management Incentive Compensation Program, with a target amount of 100% of base salary guaranteed from December 1, 2004 through January 31, 2005. Thereafter, his target bonus is set at 100% of base salary, with a maximum potential payout of 200% of base salary, all such payouts based upon Company performance. The Company will issue to Mr. Ullman at his starting date $3,000,000 in vested restricted stock units (based on the average market price of Company Common Stock on October 27, 2004), but if termination is voluntary or for retirement, payable six months after separation from service or January 1, 2008, whichever is later. Mr. Ullman will also receive $6,000,000 of restricted stock at his starting date (based on the average market price of JCPenney stock on October 27, 2004), vesting 20% per year beginning December 1, 2005, subject to employment on each vesting date. Mr. Ullman will receive long-term incentive awards commencing with the fiscal year beginning February 1, 2006. The value of each award is up to $6,000,000, as determined in the discretion of the Board of Directors annually, based on performance measures and other criteria to be set by the Board.

Myron (Mike) Ullman Named Chairman and CEO of JCPenney

Questrom to Step Down After Smooth Transition

PLANO, Texas, October 27, 2004 -- Myron E. Ullman III has been named to succeed Allen Questrom as chairman and chief executive officer of J. C. Penney Company, Inc. (NYSE:JCP). He will join the company on December 1, 2004.

"The Board has done an outstanding job in recruiting Mike to join JCPenney," said Mr. Questrom. "He has a superior record of success in retailing, and has demonstrated his effectiveness as a leader during his time at Macy's, LVMH Moet Hennessy Louis Vuitton, and the DFS Group (Duty Free Shoppers). I am delighted that he will work with our strong management team and associates to continue JCPenney's growth and success. Mike will be a great asset to our associates, customers, and shareholders."

"JCPenney is a legendary name in American retailing, and I am honored to be joining this venerable organization," said Mr. Ullman. "Having met with members of the Board, I am enthusiastic about what we can accomplish together. JCPenney's management team is extremely strong, and they have achieved great success during the past four years under Allen Questrom's leadership. I look forward to the opportunity to guide the company into the future."

The Board Search Committee was led by Vernon Jordan Jr., JCPenney's longest serving board member with more than 30 years of service. Heidrick & Struggles assisted in the search.

Mr. Ullman is an experienced leader, with considerable retail experience both domestically and internationally. During the past 15 years, he has led major businesses in the U.S. (R. H. Macy & Co. and DFS Group, Ltd.), Asia (the Wharf Holdings) and, most recently, Europe (LVMH Moet Hennessy Louis Vuitton).

From 1992 to 1995, he was Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of New York-based R. H. Macy & Co., Inc., one of the most prominent and largest retailers in the United States. He led Macy's through a sweeping organizational, cultural, and financial transformation, including the introduction of new merchandising, distribution, and information processes. He became Macy's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer in April 1992, several months after the company filed for bankruptcy protection. He guided the company through a complex reorganization and revitalization process that culminated in Macy's merger with Federated Department Stores, Inc., in early 1995.

Mr. Ullman began his career with IBM as an international account manager. After serving as Vice President of Business Affairs for the University of Cincinnati, and a White House Fellow under President Ronald Reagan, he joined Federated where he later became Executive Vice President of the Sanger Harris Division. He has also served as Managing Director and Chief Operating Officer of Wharf (Holdings), Ltd. in Hong Kong.

Mr. Ullman serves as a director of Polo Ralph Lauren Corp., Starbucks Coffee Company, Taubman Centers, and Segway, LLC, and he serves on the Board of Advisors of Kendall Jackson Wine Estates, Ltd. He is also chairman of Mercy Ships International. He served as an independent director and Co-Chairman of Global Crossing as its Board conducted the special investigation of alleged accounting irregularities.

Ullman received a B.S. in Industrial Management from the University of Cincinnati in 1969. He and his wife Cathy have six children and currently live in Montrose, Colorado. He is 57 years old.
