March 13, 2017

Dear CCI Employee:

I'd like to update you on our pending acquisition of FairPoint. Since the December announcement, our teams have been working to secure regulatory and shareholder approvals. We are pleased to report we are making solid progress on all fronts and continue to target closing on the merger mid-2017.

In January, we secured the financing to fund the acquisition on favorable terms and we received clearance related to our Hart Scott Rodino filing, which reviews anti-trust implications of the transaction and is reviewed by the Federal Trade Commission and Justice Department.

We have completed all required filings with the Federal Communications Commission and have merger approval from three of the 11 states that require a regulatory review.

As publicly traded companies, we also need the approval of the majority of our respective shareholders. We have mailed our joint proxy statement/prospectus calling for a special shareholder vote to approve this transaction. Both Consolidated Communications and FairPoint will hold special meetings on March 28, 2017.

We are unified in our goal to make this merger seamless for our customers.

You may be wondering how this merger will affect you. While it is too early in the process to share specifics, we have teams starting to work on integration plans and we look forward to sharing more details with you in the coming months.

Our Company has a long history of stability and innovation. We have a successful track record of growth by acquisition, with expertise in integrating companies while applying best practices. We are excited about our collective potential and what it means for our combined customers, along with the opportunity to leverage a stronger financial position and scale that comes with this combination.

Thank you all for your hard work and focus on our priorities for the year. I am excited about this planned business combination which brings together two companies with advanced networks and complementary business strategies, resulting in a financially strong business and broadband solutions provider. We look forward to providing you more updates as we near the completion of the transaction. For additional information about the merger, visit www.consolidated.com/fairpoint.

Sincerely,

Bob Udell
President and Chief Executive Officer
