Enclosure: Press Release dated July 27, 2007 re: Partner Communications announces it received a petition to grant an order nisi and an interlocutory order

PARTNER COMMUNICATIONS ANNOUNCES IT
RECEIVED A PETITION TO GRANT AN ORDER NISI
AND AN INTERLOCUTORY ORDER

ROSH HA AYIN, Israel, July 27, 2007 Partner Communications Company Ltd. (Partner) (Nasdaq and TASE: PTNR; LSE: PCCD), a leading Israeli mobile communications operator, announced that it received yesterday a petition to grant an order nisi and an interlocutory order, filed in the Supreme Court sitting as the High Court of Justice against the Minister of Environmental Protection, the Minister of Interior and the Minister of Communications (as respondents) and against Partner, Pelephone Communications Ltd., Cellcom Israel Ltd. and Mirs Communications Ltd. (as formal respondents). The petitioners, the Forum for Sane Cellular Telephony and others, seek orders nisi against the respondents to show cause why they should not refrain from granting building, erection and operating permits to cellular antennas in reliance on the exception applicable to wireless access devices set in the Communications Law (Telecommunications and Broadcasting), 5742-1982, and why they should not revoke all such erection and operating permits granted to date pursuant to the said exception. In addition, the petitioners seek an interlocutory order prohibiting the respondents from granting permits until the petition is heard.

Partner is still reviewing and evaluating the petition, and at this early stage is not in a position to evaluate with any certainty the likelihood that the petition will be allowed.

Edgar Filing: PARTNER COMMUNICATIONS CO LTD - Form 6-K

Should the petition be allowed, it may adversely affect Partner's communications network and consequently, inter-alia, its ability to continue to provide a high quality service to its customers. In addition, if the petition is allowed, this could hamper Partner's continued rolling-out of the network.
