PROXY STATEMENT

The accompanying proxy card, to be mailed to stockholders together with the Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders and this Proxy Statement on or about March 30, 2007, is solicited by the Board of Directors of American Campus Communities, Inc. in connection with the Annual Meeting of Stockholders (Annual Meeting) to be held on May 3, 2007.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q: What am I voting on?

A: Election of eight directors to hold office for a one-year term and ratification of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent auditors for 2007.

Q: Who is entitled to vote?

A: Stockholders as of the close of business on March 16, 2007 are entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote.

Q: How do I vote?

A: Sign and date each proxy card you receive and return it in the prepaid envelope. If you do not mark any selections, the proxy holders named on your proxy card will vote your shares in favor of all of the director nominees and in favor of the ratification of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent auditors for 2007. You may change your vote or revoke your proxy at any time before the Annual Meeting by submitting written notice to our Secretary, submitting another proxy that is properly signed and later dated or voting in person at the Annual Meeting. In each case, the later submitted votes will be recorded and the earlier votes revoked. If you hold your shares in street name, please follow the procedures required by your bank, broker or other nominee to revoke a proxy. You should contact that firm directly for more information on these procedures.

In their discretion, the proxy holders are authorized to vote on any other matters that may properly come before the Annual Meeting and at any postponement or adjournment thereof. The Board knows of no other items of business that will be presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting other than the proposals described in this Proxy Statement. In addition, no stockholder proposals or nominations were received on a timely basis, so no such matters may be brought to a vote at the Annual Meeting.

Q: Is my vote confidential?

A: Yes. Proxy cards, ballots and voting tabulations that identify individual stockholders are confidential. Only the inspectors of election and certain employees associated with processing proxy cards and counting the vote have access to your card. Additionally, all comments directed to management (whether written on the proxy card or elsewhere) will remain confidential, unless you ask that your name be disclosed.

Q: Who will count the vote?

A:

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN CAMPUS COMMUNITIES INC - Form DEF 14A

All votes will be tabulated by the inspector of election appointed for the Annual Meeting, who will separately tabulate affirmative and negative votes and withheld votes and abstentions. In order to be elected as a director, a nominee must receive a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting at which a quorum is present. In order for Ernst & Young LLP to be ratified as our independent auditors for 2007, the proposal must receive a majority of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting at which a quorum is present. For purposes of calculating votes cast on a proposal, abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted as votes cast and will have no effect on the result of the vote on the proposal. Broker non-votes are proxies from brokers or other nominees indicating that such person has not received instructions from the beneficial owner or other person entitled to vote the shares that are the subject of the proxy on a particular matter with respect to which the broker or other nominee does not have discretionary voting power.

Q: What constitutes a quorum?

A: As of the record date for the Annual Meeting, 22,903,073 shares of common stock were issued and outstanding. A majority of the outstanding shares, present or represented by proxy, constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted in determining the presence of a quorum.

Q: Who can attend the Annual Meeting?

A: All stockholders of record as of March 16, 2007 can attend.

Q: Who pays for this proxy solicitation?

A: We will bear the entire cost of solicitation of proxies, including preparation, assembly and mailing of this Proxy Statement, the proxy card and any additional information we furnish to stockholders. Copies of solicitation materials will be furnished to banks, brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians holding shares of our common stock in their names that are beneficially owned by others to forward to these beneficial owners. We may reimburse persons representing beneficial owners for their costs of forwarding the solicitation material to such beneficial owners. Original solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone, facsimile, electronic mail or personal solicitation by our directors, officers or employees. We will not pay any additional compensation to directors, officers or employees for such services.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

There are currently nine directors on the Board, William C. Bayless, Jr., R.D. Burck, G. Steven Dawson, Cydney C. Donnell, Michael J. Henneman, Edward Lowenthal, Brian B. Nickel, Scott H. Rechler and Winston W. Walker. The employment agreements with each of Messrs. Bayless and Nickel provide that such executive will be nominated as a director. See Executive Compensation Employment Contracts. In connection with our acquisition of a portfolio of properties from entities affiliated with Royal Properties, we agreed, for so long as recipients of units of limited partnership interest in our operating partnership continue to beneficially own, on an as if converted basis, units comprising at least 10% of our then outstanding fully diluted shares of common stock, to nominate Mr. Henneman as a director. As such holders no longer beneficially own at least 10% of the outstanding fully diluted shares of our common stock, the Board has not selected Mr. Henneman as a nominee for election at the Annual Meeting and has selected each of the other eight current directors as a nominee for election at the Annual Meeting. Accordingly, at the time of the Annual Meeting, the size of the Board will be reduced to eight members. Directors elected at the Annual Meeting will hold office for a one-year term.

All nominees have consented to serve as directors. The Board has no reason to believe that any of the nominees will be unable to act as director. However, if a director is unable to stand for re-election, the Board may either reduce the size of the Board or the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may designate a substitute. If a substitute nominee is named, the proxies will vote for the election of the substitute.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN CAMPUS COMMUNITIES INC - Form DEF 14A

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting, which means the eight nominees who receive the largest number of properly cast votes will be elected as directors. Each share of our common stock is entitled to one vote for each of the eight director nominees. Cumulative voting is not permitted. It is the intention of the proxy holders named on the enclosed proxy card to vote the proxies received by them for the election of the nominees named below unless authorization to do so is withheld.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met five times in 2006.

Consideration of Director Nominees

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider appropriate nominees for director whose names are submitted in writing by a holder of our common stock. Nominations must be addressed to Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, c/o American Campus Communities, Inc., 805 Las Cimas Parkway, Suite 400, Austin, Texas 78746, indicating the nominee's qualification and other relevant biographical information and providing confirmation of the nominee's consent to serve as director. GOVERNANCE OF THE COMPANY

Board Independence and Meetings

Board Governance Documents. The Board maintains charters for all committees. In addition, the Board has adopted a written set of corporate governance guidelines and a code of business conduct and ethics. To view our committee charters, corporate governance guidelines and code of business conduct and ethics, please visit www.americancampuscommunities.com. The Board has adopted and adheres to corporate governance practices that the Board and senior management believe promote the highest standards of integrity, are sound and represent best practices. The Board of Directors periodically reviews these governance practices, the rules and listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange and SEC regulations, as well as best practices suggested by recognized governance authorities.

Independence; Lead Independent Director. Currently, the Board has nine directors. The Board of Directors has determined, after considering all of the relevant facts and circumstances, that five directors (Messrs. Burck, Dawson, Lowenthal and Walker and Ms. Donnell) are independent, as independence is defined by the New York Stock Exchange. This means that none of the independent directors has any direct or indirect material relationship with us, either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with us. As a result, the Board has a majority of independent directors on the Board as required by the listing requirements of the New York Stock Exchange. Mr. R.D. Burck serves as our Lead Independent Director.

Executive Sessions. Independent, non-management directors have regularly scheduled executive sessions in which they meet without the presence of management. These executive sessions typically occur after each regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors. Any independent director may request that an additional executive session be scheduled. The presiding director of these executive sessions is Mr. Burck.

Meetings. The Board of Directors met ten times in 2006. All directors attended at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the Board and committees, collectively, on which they served during 2006, except for Mr. Scott H. Rechler who attended 60% of the total number of meeting of the Board and committee on which he served during 2006. All directors are encouraged to attend our Annual Meeting. At the time of last year's Annual Meeting, there were nine members of the Board, eight of whom attended such meeting.

Director Qualifications; Limits on Board Service

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee reviews with the Board on an annual basis the appropriate skills and characteristics required of Board members in the context of the then-current composition of the Board. This assessment includes, in addition to qualities of intellect, integrity and judgment, business experience and knowledge, reputation and character, issues of diversity, relevant industry and trade association knowledge and participation, accounting and financial expertise, public company experience, willingness and ability to devote the time and effort required to effectively serve on the Board and relevant legal and regulatory qualifications. The committee makes this determination in the context of an assessment of the perceived needs of the Board at that point in time. The committee evaluates all nominees for director based on these criteria, including nominees that may be recommended by stockholders.

The Board recognizes that its members benefit from service on the boards of other companies. We encourage that service but also believe it is critical that directors have the opportunity to dedicate sufficient time to their service on the Board. To that end, individuals who serve on more than six other public company boards will not normally be asked to join the Board unless the Board determines that such simultaneous service would not impair the ability of such individual to effectively serve on the Board.

Term Limits; Retirement Age

The Guidelines on Governance provide that, as a general matter, non-employee directors will not stand for election to a new term of service at any Annual Meeting following their 75th birthday. However, the Board may approve exceptions to this practice when it believes it is in our interest to do so. The Board does not believe it should establish term limits for director service, instead preferring to rely upon the mandatory retirement age and the evaluation procedures described below as the primary methods of ensuring that each director continues to act in a manner consistent with the best interests of us, our stockholders and the Board. The Board believes that term limits have the disadvantage of losing the contribution of directors who have been able to develop, over a period of time, increasing insight into our operations and, therefore, provide an increasing contribution to the Board as a whole.

Board and Committee Evaluations

Our Corporate Governance Guidelines require the Board and each committee of the Board to conduct an annual self-evaluation to determine whether the Board or respective committee is functioning effectively. The reviews focus on the performance of the entire Board or the respective committee. In connection with each annual performance evaluation, the Board or committee surveys and receives comments from each director or committee member regarding an assessment of the Board's or the committee's performance. The Board also reviews the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee's recommendations concerning the performance and effectiveness of the Board and each of its committees. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will also review the individual performance of a director as circumstances warrant.

Number of Directors; Director Vacancies

Our bylaws provide that at any regular meeting or at any special meeting called for that purpose, a majority of the entire Board of Directors may increase or decrease the number of directors, provided that there cannot be less than three directors. The tenure of office of a director will not be affected by any decrease in the number of directors. Our bylaws also provide that if any or all the directors cease to be directors, any vacancy, other than vacancies that result from an increase in the number of directors or from the removal of a director, may in general be filled solely by a majority of the remaining directors, even if the remaining directors do not constitute a quorum. Any vacancy that results from an increase in the number of directors constituting the entire Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the entire Board of Directors. Any vacancy that results from the removal of a director may be filled either by a majority of the remaining directors or our stockholders. Any director elected to fill a vacancy will hold office until the next annual election of directors and until a successor is elected and qualified.

Stockholder Approval of Amendment of Our Charter and Bylaws and Transactions Outside the Ordinary Course of Business

Our charter, including its provisions on removal of directors, may be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of all of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter. Our bylaws may be amended only by a majority of our directors.

Our charter provides that we may not merge with or into another entity, sell all or substantially all of our assets, engage in a share exchange or engage in similar transactions outside the ordinary course of our business unless the transaction or transactions are approved by the affirmative vote of the majority of all of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter, except if:

the merger will merge one of our 90% or more owned subsidiaries into us without amending our charter other than in limited respects and without altering the contract rights of the stock of the subsidiary (in which case only the approval of our Board of Directors and the board of directors of the subsidiary is necessary);

we are the successor corporation in a share exchange (in which case only the approval of our Board of Directors is necessary); or we are the survivor in the merger and the merger does not change the terms of any class or series of our outstanding stock, or otherwise amend our charter, and the number of shares of stock of each class or series outstanding immediately before the merger does not increase by more than 20% of the number of shares of each such class or series of stock that was outstanding immediately prior to effectiveness of the merger (in which case only the approval of our Board of Directors is necessary).

Guidelines on Governance and Codes of Ethics

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN CAMPUS COMMUNITIES INC - Form DEF 14A

During 2004, the Board adopted Guidelines on Governance to address significant corporate governance issues. These guidelines provide a framework for our corporate governance initiatives and cover a variety of topics, including the role of our Board, Board selection and composition, Board committees, Board operation and structure, Board orientation and evaluation, Board planning and oversight functions and stock ownership guidelines. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for overseeing and reviewing the guidelines and reporting and recommending to the Board any changes to the guidelines.

Also during 2004, the Board of Directors adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, which is designed to help officers, managers and employees resolve ethical issues in an increasingly complex business environment. It covers topics such as reporting unethical or illegal behavior, compliance with law, share trading, conflicts of interest, fair dealing, protection of our assets, disclosure of proprietary information, internal controls, personal community activities, business records, communication with external audiences and obtaining assistance to help resolve ethical issues. The Board also adopted a Code of Ethical Conduct for Senior Financial Officers, which is applicable to our principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller and persons performing similar functions.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors has responsibility for establishing, implementing and continually monitoring our executive compensation program.

Throughout this proxy statement, the individuals who served as our chief executive officer and chief financial officer during fiscal 2006, as well as the other individuals included in the Summary Compensation Table on page 20, are referred to as the named executive officers.

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

An important part of our results-oriented culture is to recognize and reward executives based on their contributions to our success. Our executive compensation program links incentive compensation to individual and corporate results by rating achievement against financial and non-financial objectives. Our compensation objectives are designed to make our performance expectations clear to executives and other employees and to consistently measure and reward performance. The key objectives of our executive compensation program are to:

support our business objectives to produce consistent earnings growth and increase stockholder value; attract, reward, motivate and retain talented executives; tie executive compensation to our financial performance and other critical factors; and link executives' goals with stockholders' interests.

Role of Executive Officers in Compensation Decisions

The Compensation Committee makes all compensation decisions for our chief executive officer and recommends to the Board compensation for our other officers. The Compensation Committee also approves equity awards to all of our officers and other employees.

William C. Bayless, Jr., our President and Chief Executive Officer, annually reviews the performance of each executive officer (other than Mr. Bayless, whose performance is reviewed by the Compensation Committee). The conclusions reached and recommendations based on these reviews, including salary adjustments and annual award amounts, are presented to the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee exercises its discretion in modifying any recommended adjustments or awards.

Setting Executive Compensation

Based on the objectives described above, the Compensation Committee has structured our annual and long-term executive compensation to motivate executive officers to achieve our business goals and reward the executive officers for achieving such goals. In furtherance of this, in 2006, the Compensation Committee engaged an outside executive compensation consulting firm to conduct a benchmarking analysis of the compensation provided to our executive officers. The outside compensation consultant has provided the Compensation Committee with relevant market data to consider when making compensation decisions for our executive officers. The Compensation Committee also reviews public disclosures made by companies in the real estate and other industries.

In evaluating compensation, the Compensation Committee compared various elements comprising total compensation against two peer groups of publicly-traded companies (collectively, the Compensation Peer Groups), one comprised of public REITs with market capitalizations similar to ours (the Size-Based Peer Group) and the other comprised of public REITs with assets similar to ours and against which we believe we compete for talent and stockholder investment (the Asset-Based Peer Group). The Compensation Peer Groups are periodically reviewed and updated by the Compensation Committee.

The following public REITs meet these criteria:

Asset-Based Peer Group	Size-Based Peer Group
Associated Estates Realty Corporation	Capital Lease Funding, Inc.
BRE Properties, Inc.	Cedar Shopping Centers, Inc.
Camden Property Trust	Education Realty Trust, Inc.
Colonial Properties Trust	First Potomac Realty Trust
Education Realty Trust, Inc.	GMH Communities Trust
Essex Property Trust, Inc.	Hersha Hospitality Trust
GMH Communities Trust	Kite Realty Group Trust
Home Properties, Inc.	Parkway Properties, Inc.
Mid-America Apartment Communities, Inc.	Ramco-Gershenson Properties Trust
Post Properties, Inc.
Roberts Realty Investors Inc.
United Dominion Realty Trust, Inc.

For executive positions, financial institutions and private real estate investment and development companies offer a considerable competitive opportunity in the attraction and retention of experienced and talented professionals. To appropriately judge the market competitive compensation for executive positions, the Compensation Committee also considered compensation for a number of companies representing a cross-section of the types and sizes of companies that could be competitive with us in executive recruitment.

As we compete with many companies for top executive-level talent, the Compensation Committee generally sets compensation for executive officers relative to the median compensation paid to similarly situated executives of the companies comprising the Compensation Peer Groups. Variations to this objective may occur as dictated by the experience level of the individual and market factors.

A significant percentage of total compensation is allocated to incentives as a result of the philosophy mentioned above. There is no pre-established policy or target for the allocation between either cash and non-cash or short-term and long-term incentive compensation. Rather, the Compensation Committee reviewed a variety of information, including that provided by the outside compensation consultant, to determine the appropriate level and mix of incentive compensation. Income from such incentive compensation is realized as a result of company performance and individual performance, depending on the type of award, compared to established goals.

2006 Executive Compensation Components

The principal components of our executive compensation program are base salary, annual incentive compensation and long-term compensation, which may include grants of restricted stock awards, or RSAs, profits interest units (PIUs) or outperformance awards based on past performance.

Base Salary

The named executive officers receive base salaries determined by the responsibilities, skills and experience related to their respective positions. Other factors considered in base salary determinations are individual performance, the success of each business unit in the individual's area of responsibility in achieving business plans, the competitiveness of the executive's total compensation and our ability to pay an appropriate and competitive salary. Members of executive management are eligible for periodic increases in their base salary as a result of individual and company performance, their salary relative to the competitive market median level and the time interval and any added responsibility since the last salary review. The Compensation Committee reviews and approves any such salary increases for the Chief Executive Officer and reviews and recommends to the Board approval of any such salary increases for the named executive officers. In 2006, all of the named executive officers received a salary increase from 2005 due to these factors.

Annual Incentive Compensation

The Compensation Committee may award annual incentive compensation to executives, including the Chief Executive Officer, for the achievement of specified goals based on the individual's position. Each year, the Compensation Committee sets the target and maximum award that may be granted to each executive officer if threshold goals are achieved. For 2006, the target award was 50% of base salary for achieving the stated objectives and the maximum award was up to 100% of base salary for significantly exceeding the stated objectives or to reward significant accomplishments. Each of the goals listed below was generally weighted equally.

For 2006, the company-wide goals used in determining an award for Mr. Bayless were:

- re-leasing of our owned off-campus assets to achieve revenue growth;
- acquisitions and commencement of development and construction of owned assets to achieve asset growth;
- growth of third party service revenues;
- achievement of budgeted operating results related to net operating income (NOI), funds from operations (FFO) and FFO modified for the operational performance of on-campus participating properties (FFOM), taking into our account our debt service and dividend coverage ratios; and
- the effectiveness of overall performance, considering FFOM, stockholder growth and growth in same store NOI.

For the other three named executive officers, goals were tied to their respective business unit. For Mr. Nickel, the 2006 goals were as follows:

- achievement of budgeted operating results related to NOI, FFO and FFOM, taking into account our debt service and dividend coverage ratios;
- optimizing our capital structure with the focus on our development pipeline with the objective of maximizing long-term accretion while minimizing short-term dilution to stockholders;
- overseeing the internal audit function;
- acquisitions and commencement of development and construction of owned assets to achieve asset growth; and
- the effectiveness of overall performance, with an emphasis on investor relations, banking relationships and payroll functions.

For Mr. Hopke, 2006 goals were as follows:

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN CAMPUS COMMUNITIES INC - Form DEF 14A

acquisitions and commencement of development and construction of owned assets to achieve asset growth;
achievement of projected yield contributions with respect to acquired and developed properties;
achievement of budgeted operating results related to NOI, FFO and FFOM, taking into account our debt service and dividend coverage ratios;
growth of third party service revenues; and the effectiveness of overall performance, with an emphasis on investment returns and pipeline quality.

16

For Mr. Dowell, 2006 goals were as follows:

growth of same store NOI;
achievement of budgeted operating results related to NOI, FFO and FFOM, taking into account our debt service and dividend coverage ratios;
re-leasing of our owned off-campus assets to achieve revenue growth;
achievement of projected yield contributions with respect to acquired and developed properties;
growth of third party service revenues; and the effectiveness of overall performance, with an emphasis on the fall 2006 lease-up occupancy for our entire owned off campus portfolio.

For 2006, we:

achieved FFOM of $1.37 per fully diluted share, which covered our annual distribution of $1.35 per share; increased NOI for same store owned off-campus properties by 4.7% over the year ended December 31, 2005;
maintained same store occupancy for owned off-campus properties at 98.7% as of December 31, 2006;
executed the ground lease and commenced construction on South Campus Residential Community (SCRC), the $138 million, 1,866-bed owned on-campus development at Arizona State University in Tempe; completed the disposition of The Village on University containing 918 beds in Tempe, Arizona for a sale price of $51.0 million, recognizing a gain of $18.6 million; commenced construction on Frear Hall, an 810-bed on-campus third-party development serving students attending the University of Hawaii, Manoa; and increased total assets by 60.5% from $550.9 million as of December 31, 2005 to $884.4 million as of December 31, 2006, through acquisitions and developments consistent with our investment criteria.

Based on 2006 goal achievement, the Compensation Committee awarded annual incentive compensation to each named executive officer. To more fully achieve the objective of linking executives' goals with stockholders' interests, for 2006, all of the awards were in the form of RSAs and are included in the table below under Long-Term Compensation RSAs.

Long-Term Compensation

Because today's business decisions affect us over a number of years, long-term incentive awards are tied to our performance and the long-term value of our stock. The Compensation Committee's policy is to make all awards of RSAs, PIUs or outperformance awards based on an officer's actual current and past performance rather than projected future performance. Grants of RSAs, PIUs and outperformance awards are an important part of our long-term compensation plan.

RSAs. The Compensation Committee granted the following RSAs in January 2007 for 2006 performance based achievement of the goals described above under Annual Incentive Compensation. The Compensation Committee did not grant any PIUs or outperformance awards for 2006.

Name	Grant Date	Number of RSAs	Market Value on Date of Award
William C. Bayless, Jr.	1/29/07	12,858	$400,000
Brian B. Nickel	1/29/07	9,643	$300,000
Greg A. Dowell	1/29/07	7,232	$225,000
James C. Hopke, Jr.	1/29/07	4,822	$150,000

The RSAs vest in five equal installments beginning on February 28 of the year following the date of grant.

Outperformance Bonus Plan. Upon the consummation of our initial public offering, or IPO, we granted a special award of a bonus pool equal to the value on the date of vesting of 367,682 shares of common stock to executive officers and certain key employees, subject to continued service and attainment of certain performance measures. No dividends or dividend equivalent payments accrue with respect to the shares underlying this bonus pool.

Vesting of the awards will occur on August 17, 2007, the third anniversary of the IPO, provided that the employees have maintained continued service and that at least one performance measure, as outlined in the plan, has been achieved. These performance measures are: (i) a total return on our common stock of at least 25% per annum from the IPO date through the vesting date (the Primary Performance Measure), or (ii) a total return on our common stock of at least 12% per annum from the IPO date through the vesting date, and such return is at or above the 60th percentile of the total return achieved by peer companies (which may be comprised of a different grouping of companies than those comprising either Compensation Peer Group) during the same period (the Alternate Performance Measure).

Payments of vested awards will be made within 120 days of vesting. The Compensation Committee may, in its sole discretion, elect to pay such an award through cash, the issuance of shares of common stock, PIUs or similar securities (provided that such issuance will not result in any recognition of taxable income by the recipient), valued at the date of issuance.

Any individual award that becomes unvested as a result of an early termination of employment will be reallocated among the remaining recipients. In the event of a change of control, or termination of employment other than for cause or by a designated recipient for good reason, the award will be fully vested at that time (with the value of the bonus pool to be determined at that time for any affected award recipient) if the Primary Performance Measure has been achieved. Otherwise, a portion (but not less than 50%) of the special award (equal to the portion of the initial three-year vesting period that has elapsed) will be vested at that time if the Alternate Performance Measure has been achieved.

Common Units / PIUs. PIUs were issued to certain executive and senior officers upon consummation of the IPO. In connection with our equity offering in July 2005, all 121,000 PIUs were converted to Common Units. Each Common Unit is deemed equivalent to one share of our common stock, and Common Units are entitled to the same quarterly per unit distributions as holders of our common stock. This treatment with respect to quarterly distributions is similar to the treatment of RSAs.

Common Units are redeemable for cash based upon the fair market value of an equivalent number of shares of our common stock, or, at our election, an equal number of shares of common stock. The grant or vesting of PIUs was not a taxable transaction to the recipients. Therefore, a recipient who wishes to hold incentive equity awards for the long term may be able to do so more efficiently with PIUs and ultimately enjoy a greater after-tax return when disposing of them.

Perquisites and Other Personal Benefits

We provide the named executive officers with perquisites and other personal benefits that we and the Compensation Committee believe are reasonable and consistent with our overall compensation program to better enable us to attract and retain superior employees for key positions. The Compensation Committee periodically reviews the levels of perquisites and other personal benefits provided to the named executive officers.

We maintain executive benefits that we consider necessary in order to offer fully competitive opportunities to our executive officers. These include 401(k) retirement savings plans and business expense reimbursements. Executive officers are also eligible to participate in all of our employee benefit plans, such as medical, dental, group life, disability and accidental death and dismemberment insurance, in each case on the same basis as other employees.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN CAMPUS COMMUNITIES INC - Form DEF 14A

We have entered into employment agreements with certain of our key employees, including the named executive officers. The employment agreements provide that, if we terminate a named executive officer's employment without cause or the executive terminates his employment for good reason (each as defined in the applicable employment agreement), the executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

a cash payment equal to 299% for Mr. Bayless, 200% for Mr. Nickel and 100% for Messrs. Dowell and Hopke, in each case times the sum of his then-current annual base salary plus the average annual bonus paid or payable in respect of the last prior three years payable over the remaining term of his non-competition agreement;

his prorated annual bonus for the year in which the termination occurs;

health benefits for two years following the executive's termination of employment at the same cost to the executive as in effect immediately preceding such termination, subject to reduction to the extent that the executive receives comparable benefits from a subsequent employer; and excise tax equalization payments.

Tax and Accounting Implications

Deductibility of Executive Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits the deductibility on our tax return of compensation over $1 million to any of our named executive officers. We did not pay any compensation during 2006 that would be subject to section 162(m). We believe, because we qualify as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code and therefore are not subject to federal income taxes on our income to the extent distributed, the payment of compensation that does not satisfy the requirements of section 162(m) will not generally affect our net income. However, to the extent compensation does not qualify for deduction under section 162(m) or under our incentive award plan approved by stockholders to, among other things, mitigate the effects of section 162(m), a larger portion of stockholder distributions may be subject to federal income taxation as dividend income rather than return of capital. We do not believe section 162(m) will materially affect the taxability of stockholder distributions, although no assurance can be given in this regard due to the variety of factors that affect the tax position of each stockholder. For these reasons, the Compensation Committee's compensation policy and practices are not directly governed by section 162(m).

Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation

Beginning on January 1, 2005, we began accounting for stock-based payments to employees in accordance with the requirements of FASB Statement 123(R).

Potential Payments Upon Termination or Change in Control

The following summarizes the compensation payable to each named executive officer under his employment agreement in the event of a termination of such executive's employment.

Each employment agreement provides that the respective executive may terminate the agreement at any time by delivering written notice of termination to us at least 30 days prior to the effective date of such termination, in which case he will be entitled to payment of his base salary through the effective date of termination, plus all other benefits to which he has a vested right at that time. Additionally, each employment agreement provides that he may terminate the agreement for good reason, which is defined in the employment agreement, in general, as any substantial change by us in the nature of his employment without his express written consent; the requirement that he be based at a location at least 50 miles further than from his current principal location of employment; our failure to obtain a satisfactory agreement from any successor to assume the terms of the employment agreement; and our breach of any material provision of the employment agreement.

The employment agreements provide that, if we terminate an executive's employment without cause or the executive terminates his employment for good reason (each as defined in the applicable employment agreement), the executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to his execution and non-revocation of a general release of claims:

a cash payment equal to 299% for Mr. Bayless, 200% for Mr. Nickel and 100% for Messrs. Dowell and Hopke, in each case times the sum of his then-current annual base salary plus the average annual bonus paid or payable in respect of the last prior three years payable over the remaining term of his non-competition agreement;

his prorated annual bonus for the year in which the termination occurs;

health benefits for two years following the executive's termination of employment at the same cost to the executive as in effect immediately preceding such termination, subject to reduction to the extent that the executive receives comparable benefits from a subsequent employer; and excise tax equalization payments.

The amounts set forth in the table below represent the compensation payable to each named executive officer under his respective employment agreement in the event of a termination of such executive's employment. The amounts shown assume such termination was effective as of December 31, 2006 and therefore include amounts earned through such time and are estimates of the amounts that would be paid the executives

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

No director who served on our Compensation Committee during 2006 was either an officer or employee during 2006, a former officer or was party to any material transaction described below in the Certain Relationships and Related Transactions section.

No executive officer served as a member of the compensation or similar committee or board of directors of any entity whose members served on our Compensation Committee.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Except as described below, each non-employee director receives an annual fee of $25,000 for services as a director, payable quarterly. The Chairman of the Board receives an additional annual fee of $32,500 but is not entitled to receive any other committee meeting fees. Non-employee members of the Audit Committee, Executive Committee, Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and/or Compensation Committee receive a fee of $2,000 for each committee meeting attended in person or $1,000 for each committee meeting attended by conference, telephone or similar communications equipment, except that in lieu of such meeting fee for Audit Committee meetings, the chairman of the Audit Committee receives a monthly fee of $2,000.

Edgar Filing: AMERICAN CAMPUS COMMUNITIES INC - Form DEF 14A

Our 2004 Incentive Award Plan (the "Plan") provides for formula grants of restricted stock units, or RSUs, to non-employee directors. On August 17, 2004, the closing date of our IPO, except as described below, each non-employee member of the Board on such date received $25,000 of RSUs, or 1,429 RSUs, valued at $17.50 per RSU, the IPO price of our common stock. Thereafter, except as described below, on the date of each Annual Meeting at which a non-employee director is re-elected to the Board of Directors, such non-employee director receives $25,000 of RSUs valued at 100% of the Fair Market Value (as defined in the Plan) of our common stock on the date of grant. Accordingly, on May 11, 2006, the date of our 2006 Annual Meeting, each non-employee member of the Board re-elected on such date received 1,030 RSUs, valued at $24.27 per RSU, the Fair Market Value of our common stock on such date. Similarly, each non-employee director who is initially elected to the Board of Directors receives $25,000 of RSUs on the date of such initial election and $25,000 of RSUs on the date of each Annual Meeting at which the non-employee director is re-elected to the Board of Directors, in each case valued at 100% of the Fair Market Value of our common stock on the date of grant. Effective with the 2007 Annual Meeting, the Chairman of the Board will receive $35,000 of RSUs. Shares underlying RSUs granted to directors will be settled, in accordance with the terms of the Plan, on the third anniversary of the date of the grant. Dividends accrue on the RSUs (without interest) equal to the cash dividends we pay on our common stock. A total of 20,549 RSUs have been issued, all of which are currently outstanding.

Mr. Henneman does not receive any director compensation.

Members of the Board of Directors are also reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in connection with our business, including attendance at meetings of the Board and its committees.

The table below summarizes the compensation we paid to each non-employee director for 2006:

Name (1)	Fees Earned or Paid in Cash	Stock Awards (2)	Total

- (1) William C. Bayless, Jr., our President and Chief Executive Officer, and Brian B. Nickel, our Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary, are not included in this table as they are employees and thus receive no compensation for their services as directors. The compensation received by Messrs. Bayless and Nickel as employees is shown in the Summary Compensation Table on page 20.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

On December 2, 2005, we entered into a contribution and sale agreement with affiliates of Royal Properties to acquire a 13-property portfolio. The closing of the transactions contemplated by the contribution and sale agreement occurred on March 1, 2006, at which time Mr. Henneman received 532,263 Common Units valued at $23.50 per unit. These units became redeemable after March 1, 2007 into an equal number of shares of our common stock or cash, at our election. An agreement with Mr. Henneman contemplated by the contribution and sale agreement provides, among other things, that Mr. Henneman would be appointed to our Board of Directors at closing and that we would cause Mr. Henneman to be nominated for reelection so long as recipients of units of limited partnership interest in our operating partnership issued at closing continue to beneficially own, on an as if converted basis, units comprising at least 10% of the then outstanding fully diluted shares of our common stock. As such holders no longer beneficially own at least 10% of the outstanding fully diluted shares of our common stock, the Board has not selected Mr. Henneman as a nominee for election at the Annual Meeting. The agreement with Mr. Henneman also provides that after the time that Mr. Henneman ceases to serve on the Board, he will have full observation rights with respect to the Board, other than with respect to executive sessions of independent directors and meetings of its committees, including the right to obtain full and timely notice of all meetings of the Board and to obtain copies of all written and other materials disseminated to the Board, provided that Mr. Henneman executes and delivers to us a confidentiality agreement pursuant to which he will agree, among other things, to treat confidentially any information furnished to him in connection with his exercise of such observation rights and to use all such information for informational purposes only. Such observation rights will terminate upon the earlier of (i) the occurrence of our annual meeting in 2008 or (ii) such time that the holders of units issued at the closing beneficially own less than 50% of the units issued at closing. The contribution and sale agreement also provides that, in his capacity as a limited partner of our operating partnership, Mr. Henneman will enter into the First Amendment to Amended and Restated Agreement of Limited Partnership of the Operating Partnership that, among other things, sets forth the rights and preferences of such units; a Registration Rights Agreement pursuant to which we registered shares into which such units are exchangeable; and a Tax Matters Agreement that, among other things, will prevent the operating partnership from selling the properties comprising the Royal portfolio under certain circumstances if the limited partners would recognize a taxable gain in such a disposition.

AUDIT COMMITTEE INFORMATION

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee, on behalf of the Board of Directors, serves as an independent and objective party to monitor our financial reporting process and internal control system, and to review and appraise the audit efforts of our independent auditors. The Audit Committee performs these oversight responsibilities in accordance with its Audit Committee Charter (as amended and restated in August 2005), a copy of which was included as Appendix A to the proxy statement relating to our 2006 Annual Meeting.

Management has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the systems of internal controls. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed with management the audited financial statements in our Annual Report, and discussed with management the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements. The Audit Committee also reviewed and discussed our earnings releases with management.

During 2006, the Audit Committee met with management and our independent auditors and internal auditor periodically to consider the adequacy of our internal controls and the objectivity of our financial reporting in response to the requirements set forth in Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and related regulations. The Audit Committee also discussed with management and our independent auditors and internal auditor the process used for certifications by our chief executive officer and chief financial officer that are required for certain of our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Ernst & Young LLP, our independent auditors, are responsible for auditing our financial statements and for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles. The Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with the independent auditors their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of our accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the Audit Committee under Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, as currently in effect. The Audit Committee also received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by the Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, as currently in effect, discussed with the independent auditors the auditors' independence from management and us and considered the compatibility of non-audit services with the auditors' independence.

The Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their audit. The Audit Committee meets at least quarterly with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of our internal controls and the overall quality of our financial reporting. The Audit Committee also meets with management and the independent auditors prior to the filing of the quarterly reports on Form 10-Q with the SEC and release to the public of its quarterly and year-end financial results to, among other things, review and discuss such filings, review any related financial statements and related variances, review significant accounting policies and discuss any significant accounting treatments applied during the period.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors (and the Board has approved) that the audited financial statements be included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006 for filing with the SEC.

This section of the proxy statement is not deemed filed with the SEC and is not incorporated by reference into our Annual Report on Form 10-K.

This Audit Committee report is given by the following members of the Audit Committee:

G. & Steven Dawson, Chairman
 R.D. Burck

Independent Auditor Fees

The following summarizes the approximate aggregate fees billed to American Campus Communities for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2006 and 2005 by our principal accounting firm, Ernst & Young LLP:

Types of Services (1)	Total Approximate Fees
	2006	2005
Audit Fees (2)	$553,000	$676,500
Audit-Related Fees (3)	110,000	149,500
Tax Fees (4)		165,000
Total (5)	$663,000	$991,000

- (1) All such services were preapproved by the Audit Committee.
- (2) Fees for audit services billed in 2006 and 2005 included the following: (i) audit of our annual financial statements; (ii) reviews of quarterly financial statements; (iii) audit of internal control over financial reporting; and (iv) services related to SEC matters, including review of registration statements filed and related issuances of comfort letters, consents and other services.
- (3) Fees for audit-related services billed in 2006 and 2005 included audits of acquired properties and audits of certain subsidiaries.
- (4) Fees for tax services billed in 2005 included tax compliance services and tax planning and advice services.
- (5) Excludes amounts that we reimbursed Ernst & Young LLP for out-of-pocket expenses, which totaled approximately $9,000 in 2006 and $6,000 in 2005.

In considering the nature of the services provided by Ernst & Young LLP, the Audit Committee determined that such services are compatible with the provision of independent audit services. The Audit Committee discussed these services with representatives of Ernst & Young LLP and management to determine that they are permitted under the rules and regulations concerning auditor independence promulgated by the SEC to implement the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as well as by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

The Audit Committee has developed policies and procedures concerning its pre-approval of audit and non-audit services provided to us by the independent auditors. These provide that the Audit Committee must pre-approve all audit and permitted non-audit services (including the fees and terms thereof) to be rendered to us by the independent auditors.

The independent auditors provide the Audit Committee with a list describing the services expected to be performed by the independent auditor. Any request for services not contemplated by this list must be submitted to the Audit Committee for specific pre-approval and the provision of such services cannot commence until such approval has been granted. Normally, pre-approval is provided at regularly scheduled meetings. However, the Audit Committee has authorized the committee's Chairman to approve the provision by our independent auditors of up to $50,000 per occurrence of non-audit services not prohibited by law. Each decision made by the Audit Committee Chairman will be reported to the full Audit Committee at its next meeting.

In addition, although not required by the rules and regulations of the SEC, the Audit Committee generally requests a range of fees associated with each proposed service. The Audit Committee believes that providing a range of fees for a service incorporates appropriate oversight and control of the independent auditor relationship, while permitting us to receive immediate assistance from the independent auditor when time is of the essence.

Representatives of Ernst & Young LLP are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting, and to be given an opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

Ratification of the Selection of the Independent Auditors

The audit committee has reappointed Ernst & Young LLP as our independent auditors for 2007.

The proposal will be approved if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of shares represented in person or by proxy at the Annual Meeting.

The Audit Committee, which has the sole authority to retain our independent auditors, recommends that you vote FOR the ratification of the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our independent auditors for 2007.
