Allied Domecq holds investor seminar on its North American business

Allied Domecq will today host an investor seminar in New York. The seminar will comprise presentations largely by members of Allied Domecq's US senior management team. No update on current trading will be given at the seminar.

Philip Bowman, Chief Executive, said, "North America is the largest single market for our Spirits & Wine and Quick Service Restaurants businesses, representing around half of the Group's trading profit. At this seminar, we will describe the dynamics of this important market, demonstrate the strength of our brands, present our approach to corporate social responsibility and outline our strategy to create value for shareholders."

Presentation slides from the seminar will be available from the company's website, www.allieddomecq.com from noon on Tuesday, 8 June.
