BT ITALIA AND I.NET COMPLETE MERGER

BT and I.Net S.p.A. ("I.Net") today announced the completion of the merger between BT Italia S.p.A. ("BT Italia") and I.Net approved at I.Net's Extraordinary General Meeting in September 2007. The merger follows the acquisition by BT of Etnoteam's 13.6% stake in I.Net and the subsequent public tender offer for the remaining shares in public hands in April 2007.

BT Italia is Italy's leading supplier of communications solutions and services dedicated solely to business and public sector customers. I.Net is an acknowledged leader in security and business continuity solutions, guaranteeing 'Business Continuity' by planning and managing service-enhanced ICT infrastructures for its corporate customers.

Francois Barrault, CEO BT Global Services, said: 'The completion of this complex transaction marks an important step in the continued development of BT Global Services in Italy. The merger of these two leading businesses follows the integration of Albacom, the acquisition of Atlanet and the re-branding of our Italian operations as BT Italia.'

The Chairman of I.Net, Sally Davis, said: 'The completion of this merger demonstrates the success achieved by Enrico Casini and his team in developing I.Net over the past few years into a leading provider of services to the enterprise market. I am confident that the combination with BT Italia will deliver considerable benefits to both companies.'

Corrado Sciolla, CEO BT Italia, said: 'I.Net's market-leading skills in business continuity and disaster recovery will significantly expand the services that BT Italia offers to its entire customer base. With this merger BT Italia confirms its leading position in the communication services to the Italian business community.'

As at the last reported balance sheet date of September 30, 2007, the gross assets of I.Net were EUR173.1m.
