Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

Note 1 - Basis of Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

The condensed consolidated financial information included in this report has been prepared in conformity with the accounting principles and practices reflected in the consolidated financial statements included in the annual report filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for the preceding calendar year. All adjustments are of a normal recurring nature and are, in the opinion of management, necessary to a fair statement of the consolidated results for the interim periods. Certain 2002 amounts have been reclassified to conform to the 2003 presentation. This report should be read in conjunction with the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002.

Effective December 15, 2002, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation-Transition and Disclosure, which amends Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation (SFAS 148). In accounting for its plans, the Company, as allowable under the provisions of SFAS 148, applies Accounting Principles Board Opinions No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees. As a result of this election, the Company does not recognize compensation expense for its stock option plans. Had the Company determined compensation cost based on the fair value for its stock options at grant date, net income and earnings per share would have been reduced to the pro forma amounts as follows:

Note 4 Business Combinations

On June 5, 2003, the Company formed First Advantage Corporation, which was created through the merger of First American Corporation's screening information businesses with the operations of US SEARCH.com Inc. Under the terms of the agreement, the former stockholders of US SEARCH received 0.04 of a Class A common share of First Advantage for each share of US SEARCH owned prior to the merger. The former stockholders of US SEARCH hold approximately 20 percent of the total shares of First Advantage. The First American Corporation received Class B common stock, entitling 10 votes for each share, representing approximately 80 percent of the total shares of First Advantage. As a result of this acquisition, the Company recorded approximately $3.0 million of intangible assets with definite lives and $53.8 million of goodwill. The new public company trades Class A common stock as FADV on the NASDAQ National Market System.

In addition to the acquisition discussed above, the Company acquired 17 companies during the six months ended June 30, 2003. These acquisitions were not material individually or in the aggregate. Of these acquisitions, 15 have been included in the Company's title insurance segment and two are in the Company's property information segment. The aggregate purchase price was $78.5 million in cash, $16.2 million in notes payable and .7 million shares, valued at $17.7 million, of the Company's common stock. The purchase price for each was allocated to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed using a variety of valuation techniques including discounted cash flow analysis. As a result of these acquisitions, the Company recorded approximately $10.9 million of intangible assets with definite lives and $38.9 million of goodwill.

Table of ContentsNote 5 Segment Information

In order to expand the disclosure of the Company's business segments and to report financial results in a manner consistent with the reporting responsibilities of the Company's management, the Company established seven reporting segments that fall within two primary business groups, Financial Services and Information Technology. The Financial Services Group includes Title Insurance and Services, Specialty Insurance and Trust and Other Services. The Information Technology Group includes Mortgage Information, Property Information, Credit Information and Screening Information.

The Company had $41.6 million of intangible assets included in Other assets at June 30, 2003, with definite lives ranging from three to seven years. These assets, comprised primarily of customer lists and noncompete agreements, are being amortized in a manner consistent with periods prior to the adoption of SFAS 142.

Note 7 Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity

In May 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 150, Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity. This statement is effective for interim periods beginning after June 15, 2003 and establishes standards for how an issuer classifies and measures certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. The implementation of this statement will require the Company to reclassify its Mandatorily redeemable preferred securities of the Company's subsidiary trust whose sole assets are the Company's $100,000,000 8.5% deferrable interest subordinated notes due 2012 as debt. As a result of the change in classification, the Company's debt-to-total capitalization ratio will be increased. This change will not have any other impact on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Certain statements made in this 10-Q, including those relating to anticipated cash requirements, are forward looking. Risks and uncertainties exist which may cause results to differ materially from those set forth in these forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause the anticipated results to differ from those described in the forward-looking statements include: interest rate fluctuations; changes in the performance of the real estate markets; general volatility in the capital markets; changes in applicable government regulations; consolidation among the Company's significant customers and competitors; legal proceedings commenced by the California attorney general and related litigation; the Company's continued ability to identify businesses to be acquired; changes in the Company's ability to integrate businesses which it acquires; and other factors described in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made. The Company does not undertake to update forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date the forward-looking statements are made.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The preparation of the Company's financial statements requires management to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of certain assets, liabilities, revenues, expenses and related disclosure of contingencies. A summary of the significant critical accounting policies of the Company can be found in Management's Discussion and Analysis in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002.

Additionally, pursuant to SFAS 142, the Company is required to perform an annual impairment test for goodwill and other intangible assets. This impairment test is performed utilizing a variety of valuation techniques, all which require management to make estimates and judgments, and include discounted cash flow analysis, market approach valuations and the use of third party valuation advisors. Certain of these valuation techniques are also utilized by the Company in accounting for business combinations, primarily in the determination of the fair value of acquired assets and liabilities.

OVERVIEW

Elevated levels of mortgage applications in the fourth quarter of 2002 produced strong order closings in the first quarter of 2003. This contributed to a strong first quarter in the real estate-related segments of the Company's Financial Services and Information Technology groups. Mortgage applications reached record levels during the second quarter of 2003 and, coupled with operating efficiencies resulting from technology enhancements and related infrastructure cost-cutting initiatives, resulted in record-breaking quarterly results for the three months ended June 30, 2003. Net income for the three months ended June 30, 2003, was $127.5 million, or $1.47 per diluted share, compared with net income of $40.1 million, or $0.51 per diluted share for the three months ended June 30, 2002. Net income for the six months ended June 30, 2003, was $215.1 million, or $2.53 per diluted share, compared with net income of $84.2 million, or $1.07 per diluted share for the six months ended June 30, 2002.

Financial Services. Operating revenues from direct title operations increased 38.7% and 32.2% for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, when compared with the same periods of the prior year. These increases were primarily due to an increase in the number of title orders closed by the Company's direct operations. The Company's direct operations closed 533,100 and 988,800 title orders during the current three and six month periods, respectively, increases of 39.7% and 27.7% when compared with 381,500 and 774,500 closed during the same periods of the prior year. These increases were primarily due to the factors mentioned above in the Overview section. Operating revenues from agency operations increased 34.4% and 30.2% for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, when compared with the same periods of the prior year. These fluctuations were primarily due to the same factors affecting direct title operations as well as the timing of the reporting of agency remittances. Specialty insurance operating revenues increased 51.5% and 54.3% for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, when compared with the same periods of the prior year. These increases were primarily due to geographic expansion at the Company's home warranty division and market share growth at the property and casualty insurance division. Trust and other services operating revenues decreased 11.6% and 11.4% for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, when compared with the same periods of the prior year. These decreases were primarily attributable to a reduction in fees earned due to the declining values of the investment portfolios managed by this segment.

Information Technology. Mortgage information operating revenues increased 44.9% and 36.8% for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, when compared with the same periods of the prior year. These increases were primarily due to market share gains and to the increase in real estate activity. Property information operating revenues increased 70.6% and 60.2% for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, when compared with the same periods of the prior year. These increases were primarily attributable to market share gains, the increase in real estate activity, and $17.1 million and $29.3 million of operating revenues contributed by new acquisitions for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively. Credit information operating revenues increased 36.7% and 27.1% for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, when compared with the same periods of the prior year. These increases were primarily due to an increase in the demand for mortgage credit information, as well as $2.7 million and $5.3 million of operating revenues contributed by new acquisitions for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively. Screening information operating revenues increased 51.2% and 45.5% for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, when compared with the same periods of the prior year. These increases were primarily attributable to $10.5 million and $17.3 million of operating revenues contributed by new acquisitions for the respective periods.

Table of ContentsINVESTMENT AND OTHER INCOME

Investment and other income totaled $27.8 million and $52.4 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, representing increases of $8.2 million, or 42.0%, and $14.0 million, or 36.4%, when compared with the same periods of the prior year. These increases resulted primarily from an increase in earnings from unconsolidated affiliates, which are accounted for under the equity method of accounting.

NET REALIZED INVESTMENT GAINS

Net realized investment gains totaled $1.6 million and $14.1 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, compared with losses totaling $12.6 million for both the three and six months ended June 30, 2002. The current six-month period included a $13.1 million realized investment gain associated with the merger of the Company's Credit Online business with DealerTrack Holdings, Inc. Included in the prior year periods were $13.6 million of investment losses resulting from the write-down of WorldCom bonds. The majority of the write-down related to the Company's Capital Management Division, which manages funds for the benefit of the Company's 1031 tax-deferred exchange customers.

TOTAL OPERATING EXPENSES

Financial Services. Salaries and other personnel costs for the Financial Services group, which primarily reflects the title insurance segment, were $319.5 million and $614.2 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, increases of $48.2 million, or 17.8%, and $87.7 million, or 16.7%, when compared with the same periods of the prior year. These increases were primarily attributable to incremental labor costs incurred to service the increase in business volume, particularly at the title insurance operations, where the Company experienced a 51.7% and 38.7% increase in total order volume for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, when compared with the same periods of the prior year. Offsetting in part the increase in personnel costs due to the increase in business volume were operational efficiencies in the title insurance segment which resulted from the Company's FAST technology and related cost-cutting initiatives. Salaries and other personnel costs as a percentage of operating revenues for the Financial Services group were 27.7% and 28.7% for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, and 32.2% and 32.3% for the respective periods of the prior year.

Agents retained $408.8 million and $774.5 million of title premiums generated by agency operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, which compares with $308.8 million and $593.1 million for the same periods of the prior year. The percentage of title premiums retained by agents ranged from 80.3% to 81.6% due to regional variances (i.e., the agency share varies from region to region and thus the geographical mix of agency revenues causes this variation).

Other operating expenses for the Financial Services group, which primarily reflect the title insurance segment, were $187.8 million and $349.6 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, increases of $45.5 million, or 32.0%, and $67.8 million, or 24.1%, when compared with the same periods of the prior year. These increases were primarily the result of incremental costs incurred to service the increase in business volume. Other operating expenses as a percentage of operating revenues for the Financial Services group were 16.3% for both the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, and 16.9% and 17.3% for the respective periods of the prior year.

The provision for policy losses and other claims primarily represents title insurance claims, home warranty claims and property and casualty insurance claims. For the title insurance segment, the claims provision as a percentage of title insurance operating revenues was 4.1% for the current six-month period and 4.0% for the same period of the prior year. This increase in rate reflects marginal adverse claims development experience for certain prior policy years. For the home warranty business, the claims provision as a percentage of home warranty operating revenues was 45.8% for the current six-month period and 50.2% for the same period of the prior year. This decrease in rate was primarily due to a reduction in the average cost per claim, which was primarily attributable to the elimination of higher-cost vendor contractors that were servicing claims in new geographic areas. For the property and casualty business, the claims provision as a percentage of property and casualty insurance operating revenues was 73.7% for the current six-month period and 60.1% for the same period of the prior year. This increase in rate was due to high claims activity experienced primarily during the first quarter of 2003 resulting from insured property damaged in Southern California as a result of extraordinarily high wind conditions.

Premium taxes, which relate to the title insurance and specialty insurance segments, were $22.5 million and $15.6 million for the six months ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. Premium taxes as a percentage of title insurance and specialty insurance operating revenues were 1.1% for the current six-month period and 1.0% for the same period of the prior year. The slight variation in rate was primarily due to the composition and geographical mix of the operating revenues (i.e., tax rates and bases vary from state to state).

Table of Contents

Information Technology. Information technology personnel and other operating expenses were $239.7 million and $464.3 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, increases of $58.3 million, or 32.1%, and $104.9 million, or 29.2%, when compared with the same periods of the prior year. Excluding acquisition activity, the increases were $38.4 million, or 21.2% for the current three-month period, and $72.5 million, or 20.2% for the current six-month period. These increases were primarily due to costs incurred to service the increase in business volume, costs incurred to integrate new acquisitions and increased technology costs. Personnel and other operating expenses as a percentage of operating revenues for the information technology group were 66.3% and 68.6% for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, down from 75.2% and 74.9% for the same periods of the prior year.

In general, the title insurance business is a lower profit margin business when compared to the Company's other segments. The lower profit margins reflect the high cost of producing title evidence whereas the corresponding revenues are subject to regulatory and competitive pricing restraints. Due to this relatively high proportion of fixed costs, title insurance profit margins generally improve as closed order volumes increase. In addition, title insurance profit margins are affected by the composition (residential or commercial) and type (resale, refinancing or new construction) of real estate activity. Profit margins from resale and new construction transactions are generally higher than from refinancing transactions because in many states there are premium discounts on, and cancellation rates are higher for, refinance transactions. Title insurance profit margins are also affected by the percentage of operating revenues generated by agency operations. Profit margins from direct operations are generally higher than from agency operations due primarily to the large portion of the premium that is retained by the agent. Most of the businesses included in the Information Technology group are database intensive, with a relatively high proportion of fixed costs. As such, profit margins generally improve as revenues increase. Revenues for the mortgage and property information segments, like the title insurance segment, are primarily dependent on the level of real estate activity and the cost and availability of mortgage funds. Revenues for the credit information segment are in part impacted by real estate activity, but also by the consumer and automobile sectors. Included in corporate expenses for the three and six months ended June 30, 2002, were the previously mentioned $13.6 million in investment losses resulting from the write down of WorldCom bonds. Excluding these investment losses, corporate expenses increased $6.8 million and $17.1 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, when compared with the same periods of the prior year. These increases were primarily due to increased technology costs and higher general costs associated with the support effort needed to service the Company's expanded national and international operations.

INCOME TAXES

The effective income tax rate (income tax expense as a percentage of pretax income after minority interest expense) was 39.3% for the six months ended June 30, 2003, and 40.5% for the same period of the prior year. The decrease in effective rate was primarily attributable to changes in the ratio of permanent differences to pretax profits. A large portion of the Company's minority interest expense is attributable to a limited liability company subsidiary which, for tax purposes, is treated as a partnership. Accordingly, no income taxes have been provided for that portion of the minority interest expense.

MINORITY INTERESTS

Minority interest expense was $29.2 million and $49.1 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, respectively, increases of $15.5 million and $22.0 million when compared with the same periods of the prior year. These increases were primarily attributable to the increase in operating results of the Company's joint venture with Experian.

NET INCOME

Net income for the three and six months ended June 30, 2003, was $127.5 million, or $1.47 per diluted share, and $215.1 million, or $2.53 per diluted share, respectively. Net income for the three and six months ended June 30, 2002, was $40.1 million, or $0.51 per diluted share, and $84.2 million, or $1.07 per diluted share, respectively.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Total cash and cash equivalents increased $153.0 million and $39.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2003 and 2002, respectively. The increase for the current year period as well as for the prior year period was primarily due to cash generated by operating activities, offset in part by capital expenditures, purchases of debt and equity securities, the cash effect of company acquisitions, the repayment of debt, distributions to minority shareholders and cash dividends.

Notes and contracts payable (excluding the Company's trust preferred securities) as a percentage of total capitalization decreased to 17.8% at June 30, 2003 from 20.7% at December 31, 2002. This decrease was primarily due to net income for the six months ended June 30, 2003 and debt repayments. In May 2003, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 150, Accounting for Certain Financial Instruments with Characteristics of both Liabilities and Equity. This statement is effective for interim periods beginning after June 15, 2003 and establishes standards for how an issuer classifies and measures certain financial instruments with characteristics of both liabilities and equity. The implementation of this statement will require the Company to reclassify its mandatorily redeemable preferred securities of the Company's subsidiary trust whose sole assets are the Company's $100,000,000 8.5% deferrable interest subordinated notes due 2012 as debt. As a result of the change in classification, the Company's debt-to-total capitalization ratio would have been 22.0% and 25.6% at June 30, 2003 and December 31, 2002, respectively.

Management believes that all of its anticipated operating cash requirements for the immediate future will be met from internally generated funds.

Item 3 Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

There have been no material changes in the Company's risk since filing its Form 10K for the year ended December 31, 2002.

Item 4 Controls and Procedures

Based upon an evaluation by the Company's President and Chief Financial Officer within 90 days prior to the filing date of the Quarterly report on Form 10-Q, they have concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as defined in Rule 13a-14(c) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, are effective for gathering, analyzing and disclosing the information the Company is required to disclose in its reports filed under such Act. Subsequent to the date of the evaluation, there were no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect these controls.

Explanatory Note:

This amendment no. 1 to the Company's quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2003 is being filed for the purpose of amending the comprehensive loss and accrued liabilities on the Company's June 30, 2003 balance sheet. The impact of the change was to reduce equity by $3.4 million and increase accrued liabilities by a corresponding amount and relates to the comprehensive loss related to the Company's pension plan. There is no further impact on the Company's financial condition or results of operations.
