ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

- (a) Section 317 of the California Corporations Code (the "CCC") provides that the Company shall have the power to indemnify any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or any person who is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding to which the person is made a party or threatened to be made a party by reason of the fact that the person was or is acting as the Company's agent. Indemnification under Section 317 is subject to certain conditions and limitations, and is mandatory in certain circumstances. The rights to indemnity thereunder continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of the person. In addition, expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or agent in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or any person who is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, may be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company.

- (b) Article VIII, Section 4 of the Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company provides that the Company shall have the power to indemnify any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or any person who is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding to which the person is made a party or threatened to be made a party by reason of the fact that the person was or is acting as the Company's agent. Indemnification under this Section is subject to certain conditions and limitations, and is mandatory in certain circumstances. The rights to indemnity thereunder continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of the person. In addition, expenses incurred by a director, officer, employee or agent in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company, or any person who is or was serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, may be paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company.
- (c) Article Fifth of the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation provides that liability of the directors of the Company for monetary damages shall be eliminated to the fullest extent permissible under California law. Article Sixth of the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation further provides that the Company is authorized to indemnify agents (as defined in Section 317 of the CCC) in excess of the indemnification otherwise permitted by Section 317 or the CCC, subject to the limits set forth in Section 204 of the CCC.
- (d) Pursuant to authorization provided under the Restated Articles of Incorporation, the Company has entered into indemnification agreements with its directors and officers. Generally, the indemnification agreements attempt to provide the maximum protection permitted by the CCC, as it may be amended from time to time. Moreover, the indemnification agreements provide for certain additional indemnification. The indemnification agreements provide for the Company to advance to the individual any and all reasonable expenses (including legal fees and expenses) incurred in investigating or defending an action, suit or proceeding. In order to receive an advance of expenses, the individual must undertake to repay such advance upon a determination that he or she is not entitled to indemnification. The Company's Amended and Restated Bylaws contain a provision of similar effect relating to advancement of expenses to a director or officer, subject to an undertaking to repay if it is ultimately determined that indemnification is unavailable.

ITEM 9. UNDERTAKINGS

1. The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 (the "1933 Act");

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(i) and (a)(ii) shall not apply if the information required to be in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the 1934 Act that are incorporated by reference into this Registration Statement.

Edgar Filing: SYNBIOTICS CORP - Form S-8

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the 1933 Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the 1933 Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
