EXPLANATORY NOTE

Raytheon Company (the Company or Raytheon) is filing this Amendment No. 1 to its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004 solely to revise Item 6 (Selected Financial Data) by deleting the selected financial data relating to 2001 and 2000 and to make a similar change to Exhibit 12 (Computation of Ratio of Earnings to Fixed Charges).

In April 2005, the Company submitted an offer of settlement to the staff of the Enforcement Division of the Securities and Exchange Commission, which the Enforcement Division staff has agreed to recommend to the Commission, to resolve a pending investigation of the Company's disclosures and accounting practices, primarily related to its Raytheon Aircraft Corporation (RAC) commuter aircraft business during the period from 1997 to 2001. This offer of settlement was previously disclosed in a press release and in a Form 8-K dated April 15, 2005. In connection with its investigation, the staff of the Enforcement Division has alleged that, among other matters, approximately $67 million to $240 million of the total $693 million charge the Company took in the third quarter of 2001 related to losses on its commuter assets (the commuter loss provision) should have been taken at year-end 2000, and that the commuter loss provision taken in 2001 was thus overstated by a corresponding amount. In offering to settle the pending matter, Raytheon neither admits nor denies these allegations.

In connection with the settlement, the Company acknowledges certain past inadequate documentation, disclosure, and accounting practices, and further acknowledges that, in the exercise of reasonable judgment, a portion of the total $693 million charge taken in 2001 should have been recorded at year-end 2000. The Company has not, however, conducted a current detailed analysis for such periods for the purpose of attempting to allocate the commuter loss provision between the two years. The Company believes that such an undertaking now would be unreasonably difficult and burdensome.

RAC has not manufactured new commuter aircraft since 2002. The Company formed Raytheon Airline Aviation Services, LLC (RAAS) to manage the commuter portfolio, and since the fourth quarter of 2003, the Company has included the financial results of RAAS in the Other reporting segment. The Company believes that it would be unduly difficult and burdensome to restate the five-year statistical summary table, particularly when such a restatement would relate to a non-core line of business. RAAS accounted for 0.5%, 0.5% and 0.7%, of the Company's net sales during 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively, and accounted for 2% and 3% of the Company's total assets at December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003, respectively. Accordingly, the Company is omitting the selected financial data for 2001 and 2000 previously included in the table (and in Exhibit 12) and such financial data should no longer be relied upon.

As previously disclosed, the Company recorded a $12 million after-tax charge related to the offer of settlement in its 2005 first quarter.

thus overstated by a corresponding amount. In offering to settle the pending matter, Raytheon neither admits nor denies these allegations.

In connection with the settlement, the Company acknowledges certain past inadequate documentation, disclosure, and accounting practices, and further acknowledges that, in the exercise of reasonable judgment, a portion of the total $693 million charge taken in 2001 should have been recorded at year-end 2000. RAC has not manufactured new commuter aircraft since 2002. The Company formed Raytheon Airline Aviation Services, LLC (RAAS) to manage the commuter portfolio, and since the fourth quarter of 2003, the Company has included the financial results of RAAS in the Other reporting segment. The Company believes that it would be unduly difficult and burdensome to restate the five-year statistical summary table, particularly when such a restatement would relate to a non-core line of business. RAAS accounted for 0.5%, 0.5% and 0.7%, of the Company's net sales during 2004, 2003 and 2002, respectively, and accounted for 2% and 3% of the Company's total assets at December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003, respectively. Accordingly, the Company is omitting the selected financial data for 2001 and 2000 previously included in the table and such financial data should no longer be relied upon.

Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform with the current year presentation.
