Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On July 9, 2007, LaBranche & Co Inc. (the Company) announced that it had initiated a review of strategic alternatives available to the Company for enhancing stockholder value.

On September 18, 2007, pursuant to the authorization of the Company's Board of Directors, the Company entered into a change in control agreement with each of Jeffrey A. McCutcheon, the Company's Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, and Stephen H. Gray, the Company's General Counsel and Corporate Secretary.

Each of these change in control agreements has a term that commenced on September 18, 2007, and will end upon the expiration of a 12-month period following the occurrence of a change in control (as defined in the change in control agreements), unless the executive's employment with the Company is earlier terminated for any reason other than by the Company without cause or by the executive for good reason (in each case, as defined in the change in control agreements), in which case the agreement will terminate immediately upon such termination of employment.

Under these change in control agreements, in the event of a qualifying termination (as defined in the change in control agreements), each of these two executives would become immediately entitled to the following benefits:

- (a) a lump-sum cash payment, payable within 10 business days after the date of a qualifying termination, in an amount equal to the sum of (i) the executive's annual base salary in effect immediately prior to the change in control or the date of the executive's termination of employment, whichever is greater, and (ii) the annual cash bonus paid to the executive for the calendar year immediately preceding the year in which the executive's employment with the Company is terminated or the aggregate cash bonus paid to the executive during the 12-month period immediately preceding the termination date of the executive's employment with the Company, whichever is greater;
- (b) the executive and his family will receive continuation of group health plan benefits (including all life insurance, health, accident and liability plans and programs) to which the executive was entitled to participate in immediately prior to a qualifying termination to the extent authorized by, and consistent with, COBRA until the earlier of (i) the 12-month period following the date of a qualifying termination and (ii) the executive's employment with a new employer, with the cost of the regular premium for such benefits shared in the same relative proportion by the Company and the executive as in effect on the date of termination; and
- (c) the executive also is entitled to reimbursement by the Company for reasonable legal fees incurred in seeking to obtain or enforce in good faith any right or benefit provided by the change in control agreement in the event that the executive substantially prevails in such dispute, up to a maximum of $50,000.

In consideration of the receipt of the benefits provided under the change in control agreements upon termination, neither Mr. McCutcheon nor Mr. Gray will be entitled to any other severance benefits provided under any other agreement with the Company that may otherwise be payable to him upon such termination of employment with the Company. Furthermore, in order to obtain the benefits provided under the change in control agreements, each executive must first execute a release of claims with the Company that includes a waiver and release of any and all claims he may have against the Company.
