Note 2. Acquisitions

The Company completed the acquisition and merger of First Morris Bank & Trust (First Morris) with and into the Bank as of April 1, 2007. First Morris operated nine full service branch offices in Morris County, New Jersey. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, 50% of First Morris common stock was converted into the Company s common stock at an exchange rate of 2.1337 shares of the Company s common stock for each First Morris share, and 50% of First Morris common stock was converted into $39.75 in cash for each First Morris share. The aggregate consideration paid in the merger consisted of $62.0 million in cash and 3,330,276 shares of the Company s common stock, which had a value of $18.60 per share based on the Company s average closing price from October 12, 2006 to October 17, 2006, for purposes of calculating goodwill in accordance with GAAP. The cash portion of the merger consideration was funded through cash from continuing operations.

As a result of the First Morris acquisition, the Company acquired assets having a fair value of $554.3 million, including $332.5 million of net loans, $138.2 million of investment securities and $60.7 million of cash and cash equivalents, and assumed $509.0 million of deposits.

The acquisition was accounted for as a purchase and the excess cost over the fair value of net assets acquired (goodwill) in the transaction was $88.6 million. Under the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 142, goodwill is not being amortized in connection with this transaction and the goodwill will not be deductible for income tax purposes. The Company also recorded a core deposit intangible of $8.4 million in connection with the acquisition, which is being amortized on an accelerated basis over nine years. The amortization of premiums and discounts resulting from the fair value adjustments of assets and liabilities were not significant for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007.

Note 5. Components of Net Periodic Benefit Cost

The Bank has a noncontributory defined benefit pension plan (the Plan) covering its full-time employees who had attained age 21 with at least one year of service as of April 1, 2003. The Plan was frozen on April 1, 2003. The Plan provides for 100% vesting after five years of service. The Plan s assets are invested in investment funds and group annuity contracts managed by the Principal Financial Group and Allmerica Financial.

In addition to pension benefits, certain health care and life insurance benefits are made available to retired employees. The costs of such benefits are accrued based on actuarial assumptions from the date of hire to the date the employee is fully eligible to receive the benefits. Effective January 1, 2003, eligibility for retiree health care benefits was frozen as to new entrants, and benefits were eliminated for employees with less than ten years of service as of December 31, 2002. Effective January 1, 2007, eligibility for retiree life insurance benefits was frozen as to new entrants, and retiree life insurance benefits were eliminated for employees with less than ten years of service as of December 31, 2006.

Net periodic benefit costs for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007 and 2006 include the following components (in thousands):

The net periodic benefit costs for pension benefits and other post-retirement benefits for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007 were calculated using the results of the January 1, 2007 SFAS No. 87 and SFAS No. 106 valuations.

Note 6. Impact of Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In March 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 156, Accounting for Servicing of Financial Assets, amending SFAS No. 140, Accounting for Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities, to require that all separately recognized servicing assets and servicing liabilities be initially measured at fair value, if practicable. SFAS No. 156 permits, but does not require, the subsequent measurement of separately recognized servicing assets and servicing liabilities at fair value. An entity that uses derivative instruments to mitigate the risks inherent in servicing assets and servicing liabilities is required to account for those derivative instruments at fair value. Under SFAS No. 156, an entity can elect subsequent fair value measurement to account for its separately recognized servicing assets and servicing liabilities. By electing that option, an entity may simplify its accounting because SFAS No. 156 permits income statement recognition of the potential offsetting changes in fair value of those servicing assets and servicing liabilities and derivative instruments in the same accounting period. The Company adopted SFAS No. 156 on January 1, 2007. The adoption of SFAS No. 156 did not have a material impact on the Company s financial condition, results of operations or financial statement disclosures.

FASB Interpretation 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes (FIN 48) was released in July 2006. FIN 48 establishes a recognition threshold and measurement for income tax positions recognized in an entity s financial statements in accordance with SFAS No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. FIN 48 also prescribes a two-step evaluation process for tax positions. The first step is recognition and the second is measurement. For recognition, an enterprise judgmentally determines whether it is more-likely-than-not that a tax position will be sustained upon examination, including resolution of related appeals or litigation processes, based on the technical merits of the position. If the tax position meets the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold, it is measured and recognized in the financial statements as the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized. If a tax position does not meet the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold, the benefit of that position is not recognized in the financial statements. Tax positions that meet the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold at the effective date of FIN 48 may be recognized or, may continue to be recognized, upon adoption of FIN 48. The cumulative effect of applying the provisions of FIN 48 shall be reported as an adjustment to the opening balance of retained earnings for that fiscal year. The Company adopted FIN 48 on January 1, 2007. The adoption of FIN 48 did not have a material impact on the Company s financial condition, results of operations or financial statement disclosures.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements. SFAS No. 157 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in GAAP, and enhances disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS No. 157 applies when other accounting pronouncements require fair value measurements; it does not require new fair value measurements. SFAS No. 157 is effective for financial statements issued for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007, and interim periods within those years. Earlier application is encouraged, provided the entity has not yet issued financial statements, including financial statements for any interim period for that fiscal year. The Company does not expect the adoption of SFAS No. 157 to have a material impact on its financial condition, results of operations or financial statement disclosures.

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Liabilities Including an amendment of FASB Statement No. 115. SFAS No. 159 permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The objective is to improve financial reporting by providing entities with the opportunity to mitigate volatility in reported earnings caused by measuring related assets and liabilities differently without having to apply complex hedge accounting provisions. SFAS No. 159 is effective as of the beginning of an entity s first fiscal year beginning after November 15, 2007. Early adoption is permitted as of the beginning of a fiscal year that begins on or before November 15, 2007, provided the entity also elects to apply the provisions of SFAS No. 157. The Company is evaluating the impact of adoption of SFAS No. 159 and is presently unable to quantify the impact, if any, on its financial condition, results of operations or financial statement disclosures at the time of adoption.

Acquisition of First Morris Bank & Trust

On April 1, 2007, First Morris was merged with and into the Company s subsidiary, The Provident Bank. Consideration was paid to First Morris stockholders in a combination of Company common stock and cash. The merger added nine branches to The Provident Bank in Morris County, New Jersey.

Critical Accounting Policies

The calculation of the allowance for loan losses is a critical accounting policy of the Company. The allowance for loan losses is a valuation account that reflects management s evaluation of the probable losses in the loan portfolio. The Company maintains the allowance for loan losses through provisions for loan losses that are charged to income. Charge-offs against the allowance for loan losses are taken on loans where management determines that the collection of loan principal is unlikely. Recoveries made on loans that have been charged-off are credited to the allowance for loan losses.

The Company s evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses includes a review of all loans on which the collectibility of principal may not be reasonably assured. For residential mortgage and consumer loans, this is determined primarily by delinquency and collateral values. For commercial real estate and commercial loans, an extensive review of financial performance, payment history and collateral values is conducted on a quarterly basis.

As part of the evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses, each quarter management prepares an analytical worksheet. This analysis categorizes the entire loan portfolio by certain risk characteristics such as loan type (residential mortgage, commercial mortgage, construction, commercial, etc.) and loan risk rating.

When assigning a risk rating to a loan, management utilizes a nine point internal risk rating system. Loans deemed to be acceptable quality are rated one through four, with a rating of one established for loans with minimal risk. Loans that are deemed to be of questionable quality are rated five (watch) or six (special mention). Loans with adverse classifications (substandard, doubtful or loss) are rated seven, eight or nine, respectively. Commercial mortgage, commercial and construction loans are rated individually and each lending officer is responsible for risk rating loans in their respective portfolio. These risk ratings are then reviewed by the department manager, the Chief Lending Officer and the Credit Administration Department. The risk ratings are then confirmed by the Loan Review Department and they are periodically reviewed by the Credit Committee in the credit renewal or approval process.

Table of Contents

Management believes the primary risks inherent in the portfolio are possible increases in interest rates, a decline in the economy, generally, and a decline in real estate market values. Any one or a combination of these events may adversely affect borrowers ability to repay the loans, resulting in increased delinquencies, loan losses and future levels of provisions. Accordingly, the Company has provided for loan losses at the current level to address the current risk in its loan portfolio. Management considers it important to maintain the ratio of the allowance for loan losses to total loans at an acceptable level given current economic conditions, interest rates and the composition of the portfolio.

Although management believes that the Company has established and maintained the allowance for loan losses at adequate levels, additions may be necessary if future economic and other conditions differ substantially from the current operating environment. In addition, various regulatory agencies periodically review the Company s allowance for loan losses as an integral part of their examination process. Such agencies may require the Company to recognize additions to the allowance or additional write-downs based on their judgments about information available to them at the time of their examination. Although management uses the best information available, the level of the allowance for loan losses remains an estimate that is subject to significant judgment and short-term change.

Additional critical accounting policies relate to judgments about other asset impairments, including goodwill, investment securities and deferred tax assets. The Company engages an independent third party to perform an annual analysis during the fourth quarter to test the aggregate balance of goodwill for impairment. For purposes of goodwill impairment evaluation, the Bank is identified as the reporting unit. The fair value of goodwill is determined in the same manner as goodwill recognized in a business combination and uses standard valuation methodologies, including a review of comparable transactions and discounted cash flow analysis. If the carrying amount of goodwill pursuant to this analysis were to exceed the implied fair value of goodwill, an impairment loss would be recognized. No impairment loss was required to be recognized for the three or nine months ended September 30, 2007 or 2006.

The Company s available for sale securities portfolio is carried at estimated fair value, with any unrealized gains or losses, net of taxes, reported as accumulated other comprehensive income or loss in stockholders equity. Estimated fair values are based on published or securities dealers market prices. Securities which the Company has the positive intent and ability to hold to maturity are classified as held to maturity and carried at amortized cost. The Company conducts a periodic review and evaluation of the securities portfolio to determine if any declines in the fair values of securities are other than temporary. If such a decline were deemed other than temporary, the Company would write down the security to fair value through a charge to current period operations. The market value of the securities portfolio is significantly affected by changes in interest rates. In general, as interest rates rise, the market value of fixed-rate securities decreases and as interest rates fall, the market value of fixed-rate securities increases. With significant changes in interest rates, the Company evaluates its intent and ability to hold securities to maturity or for a sufficient period of time to recover the recorded principal balance.

The determination of whether deferred tax assets will be realizable is predicated on estimates of future taxable income. Such estimates are subject to management s judgment. A valuation allowance is established when management is unable to conclude that it is more likely than not that it will realize deferred tax assets based on the nature and timing of these items.

Intangible assets increased $92.2 million, or 21.5%, to $521.9 million at September 30, 2007, compared to $429.7 million at December 31, 2006, as a result of $88.6 million of goodwill and an $8.4 million core deposit intangible recorded in connection with the acquisition of First Morris.

Liquidity and Capital Resources. The Company s primary sources of funds are deposits, FHLB-NY advances, repurchase agreements, loan repayments, maturities of investments and cash flows from mortgage-backed securities. Scheduled loan amortization is a fairly predictable source of funds, while loan and mortgage-backed securities prepayments and deposit flows are influenced by interest rates, local economic conditions and the competitive marketplace. Additional sources of liquidity that are available to the Company, should the need arise, are a $100.0 million overnight line of credit and a $100.0 million one-month overnight repricing line of credit with the FHLB-NY. As of September 30, 2007, the Company had $35.0 million in outstanding borrowings against these lines of credit.

Cash needs for the nine months ended September 30, 2007, were provided for primarily from income and principal payments on loans, investments and mortgage-backed securities, sales of residential mortgage loans, mortgage-backed securities and investments, and increases in deposits. Table of Contents

The earnings and per share data for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 further reflect the impact of a settlement of an insurance claim resulting in a recovery of $3.5 million, net of tax, related to a fraud loss that was incurred and recognized in 2002, the Company s acquisition of First Morris from April 1, 2007, the date the acquisition was completed, and one-time expenses of $246,000, net of tax, related to the merger and integration of First Morris operations. The earnings and per share data for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006 were impacted by a one-time executive severance payment which resulted in an after-tax charge of $473,000.

The reduction in net income, excluding non-recurring items, for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007, compared with the same periods in 2006, was primarily attributable to the Company s short-term strategy of foregoing organic asset growth in favor of reducing net interest margin compression, in light of the prolonged flat or inverted yield curve that existed throughout 2006 and much of the first nine months of 2007. The Company has chosen to incrementally reposition its balance sheet to benefit from the eventual re-emergence of a more normalized yield curve, using cash flows from its securities portfolios to pay down wholesale borrowings and managing capital through common stock repurchases.

Net Interest Income. Net interest income decreased $636,000, or 1.6%, to $39.3 million for the quarter ended September 30, 2007, compared to $39.9 million for the quarter ended September 30, 2006. For the nine months ended September 30, 2007, net interest income decreased $9.4 million, or 7.5%, to $116.6 million, compared to $126.0 million for the same period in 2006. Interest income for the third quarter of 2007 increased $7.0 million, or 9.8%, to $77.8 million, compared to $70.9 million for the same period in 2006. For the nine months ended September 30, 2007, interest income increased $13.6 million, or 6.4%, to $224.8 million, compared to $211.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2006. Interest expense increased $7.6 million, or 24.5%, to $38.5 million for the quarter ended September 30, 2007, compared to $30.9 million for the quarter ended September 30, 2006. For the nine months ended September 30, 2007, interest expense increased $23.0 million, or 27.0%, to $108.2 million, compared to $85.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2006. The changes in interest income and expense for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007, versus the comparable 2006 periods, reflect the loans and deposits acquired from First Morris, in addition to increases in market interest rates experienced throughout the last year.

The Company s net interest margin decreased 20 basis points to 2.97% for the quarter ended September 30, 2007, compared to 3.17% for the quarter ended September 30, 2006. The net interest margin for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 decreased 5 basis points from the trailing quarter net interest margin of 3.02%. The net interest margin decreased 28 basis points to 3.00% for the nine months ended September 30, 2007, from 3.28% for the same period in 2006. The net interest spread was 2.53% for the quarter ended September 30, 2007, compared with 2.58% for the trailing quarter and 2.73% for the same period in 2006. For the nine months ended September 30, 2007, the net interest spread was 2.55%, compared with 2.87% for the same period in 2006. The Company continued its short-term strategy of de-leveraging its balance sheet in the current interest rate environment, but has nevertheless experienced net interest margin pressure as competitive deposit pricing increased year-over-year funding costs faster than interest-earning asset yields grew.

The average yield on interest-earning assets increased 26 basis points to 5.87% for the quarter ended September 30, 2007, compared to 5.61% for the comparable quarter in 2006. Compared to the trailing quarter, the yield on interest-earning assets increased 6 basis points from 5.81%. For the nine months ended September 30, 2007, the yield on interest-earning assets increased 29 basis points to 5.80%, from 5.51% for the same period in 2006. The increases in interest-earning asset yields were primarily attributable to rising market interest rates, favorable repricing on adjustable-rate assets, as well as growth in higher-yielding commercial loans.

The average cost of interest-bearing liabilities increased 46 basis points to 3.34% for the quarter ended September 30, 2007, compared to 2.88% for the quarter ended September 30, 2006. Compared to the trailing quarter, the average cost of interest-bearing liabilities increased 11 basis points from 3.23%. For the nine months ended September 30, 2007, the average cost of interest-bearing liabilities increased 61 basis points to 3.25%, from 2.64% for the same period in 2006. The increases in the average cost of interest-bearing liabilities were primarily attributable to rising market interest rates and unfavorable repricing on maturing time deposits. Since June 2004, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve increased the Federal funds borrowing rate 17 times, for a total of 425 basis points, before reducing the Federal funds borrowing rate 50 basis points on September 18, 2007. The Federal Reserve s actions had an unfavorable impact on the repricing of deposits through September 30, 2007.

Provision for Loan Losses. Provisions for loan losses are charged to operations to maintain the allowance for loan losses at a level management considers adequate to absorb probable credit losses inherent in the loan portfolio. In determining the level of the allowance for loan losses, management considers past and current loss experience, evaluations of real estate collateral, current economic conditions, volume and type of lending, adverse situations that may affect a borrower s ability to repay the loan and the levels of non-performing and other classified loans. The amount of the allowance is based on estimates, and ultimate losses may vary from such estimates as more information becomes available or subsequent events change. Management assesses the allowance for loan losses on a quarterly basis and makes provisions for loan losses to maintain the adequacy of the allowance.

The Company recorded provisions for loan losses of $1.3 million and $2.8 million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007, respectively. This compares with provisions for loan losses of $100,000 and $1.2 million recorded for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006, respectively. The increase in the provision for loan losses for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007, compared with the same periods in 2006, was attributable to year-over-year loan portfolio growth, changes in portfolio composition from retail to commercial loans, and an increase in non-performing loans. Total non-performing loans as a percentage of total loans were 0.26% at September 30, 2007, compared with 0.20% at December 31, 2006, and 0.18% at September 30, 2006. The Company had net charge-offs of $473,000 and $468,000 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007, respectively, compared to net charge-offs of $158,000 and $1.0 million for the same respective periods in 2006. The allowance for loan losses was $37.6 million, or 0.89% of total loans at September 30, 2007, compared to $32.4 million, or 0.86% of total loans at December 31, 2006, and $32.2 million, or 0.86% of total loans at September 30, 2006.

Non-Interest Income. Non-interest income totaled $8.1 million for the quarter ended September 30, 2007, a decrease of $262,000, or 3.1%, compared to the same period in 2006. Net gains on securities transactions totaled $2,000 for the quarter ended September 30, 2007, a decrease of $1.1 million compared to the same quarter in 2006. This decrease was partially offset by a $747,000, or 13.1%, increase in fee income for the quarter ended September 30, 2007, compared to the same period in 2006. Within fee income, increases in deposit fees, loan fees, trust income and other retail fees were partially offset by reductions in equity fund income. The increases in fee income were primarily attributable to additional customer relationships acquired from First Morris.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2007, non-interest income totaled $30.0 million, an increase of $7.0 million, or 30.7%, compared to the same period in 2006. The Company recorded a one-time gain on an insurance settlement of $5.9 million, before taxes and after expenses, related to the resolution of previously disclosed litigation. Fee income increased $1.4 million, or 8.0%, for the nine months ended September 30, 2007, compared to the same period in 2006. Within fee income, increases in deposit fees, loan fees, trust income and other retail fees were partially offset by reductions in equity fund income. The increases in fee income were primarily attributable to additional customer relationships acquired from First Morris. Other income decreased $431,000, or 22.4%, for the nine months ended September 30, 2007, compared to the same period in 2006, due primarily to gains recorded on the call of FHLB advances during the same period in 2006.

Non-Interest Expense. For the three months ended September 30, 2007, non-interest expense increased $5.6 million, or 18.7%, to $35.7 million, compared to $30.1 million for the three months ended September 30, 2006. For the three months ended September 30, 2007, compensation and benefits expense increased $4.1 million compared with the same period in 2006, primarily as a result of one-time severance costs totaling $3.2 million in connection with a previously announced voluntary resignation program, which was accepted by 25 of 52 eligible employees, as well as the addition of branch and lending staff from First Morris and the addition of small business and middle market relationship managers to support the Company s business lending and deposit gathering initiatives. Amortization of intangibles increased $303,000 for the quarter ended September 30, 2007, compared with the same period in 2006, primarily as a result of the amortization of the core deposit intangible recorded in connection with the First Morris acquisition. Additional increases in occupancy expense of $476,000 and advertising expense of $292,000 for the quarter ended September 30, 2007, compared with the same period in 2006, are also due primarily to the acquisition and integration of First Morris operations. Other operating expenses increased $454,000 due to increases in several categories, including debit card expense, employee development costs, grants for the origination of mortgages to low- and moderate-income borrowers, loan collection expense and attorney fees.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2007, non-interest expense increased $8.9 million, or 9.9%, to $99.2 million, compared to $90.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2006. Compensation and benefits expense increased $5.6 million, primarily as a result of one-time severance costs totaling $3.2 million in connection with a previously announced voluntary resignation program, as well as the addition of branch and lending staff from First Morris and the addition of small business and middle market relationship managers. Data processing expense increased $831,000 due primarily to merger-related charges recorded in connection with the acquisition of First Morris. Amortization of intangibles increased $403,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2007, compared with the same period in 2006, primarily as a result of the amortization of the core deposit intangible recorded in connection with the First Morris acquisition. Additional increases in occupancy expense of $719,000 and advertising expense of $278,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2007, compared with the same period in 2006, are also due primarily to the acquisition and integration of First Morris operations. Other operating expenses increased $1.1 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2007, compared with the same period in 2006, due to increases in several categories, including grants for the origination of mortgages to low- and moderate-income borrowers, employee development costs, loan collection expense and miscellaneous losses.

The Company s annualized non-interest expense as a percentage of average assets was 2.30% for the quarter ended September 30, 2007, compared with 2.06% for the same period in 2006. For the nine months ended September 30, 2007, non-interest expense as a percentage of average assets was 2.21%, compared with 2.05% for the same period in 2006. The efficiency ratio (non-interest expense divided by the sum of net interest income and non-interest income) was 75.41% for the quarter ended September 30, 2007, compared with 62.36% for the same period in 2006. For the nine months ended September 30, 2007, the efficiency ratio was 67.65%, compared with 60.58% for the same period in 2006. The Company s expense and efficiency ratios have been adversely impacted by a one-time charge of $3.2 million recorded in connection with a voluntary resignation program, as well as constraints on asset growth and revenue resulting from the Company s de-leveraging of its balance sheet.

Income Tax Expense. Income tax expense decreased $3.0 million, to $2.1 million, on income before taxes of $10.3 million, resulting in an effective tax rate of 20.2% for the three months ended September 30, 2007, compared to income tax expense of $5.1 million on income before taxes of $18.1 million, resulting in an effective tax rate of 28.1% for the same period in 2006. Income tax expense decreased $5.3 million to $11.9 million, on income before taxes of $44.6 million, resulting in an effective tax rate of 26.7% for the nine months ended September 30, 2007, compared to income tax expense of $17.2 million on income before taxes of $57.5 million, resulting in an effective tax rate of 29.9% for the same period in 2006. The reductions in the Company s effective tax rate were primarily the result of a larger proportion of the Company s income being derived from tax-exempt interest and Bank-owned life insurance cash surrender value appreciation.

Item 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK.

Qualitative Analysis. Interest rate risk is the exposure of a bank s current and future earnings and capital arising from adverse movements in interest rates. The guidelines of the Company s interest rate risk policy seek to limit the exposure to changes in interest rates that affect the underlying economic value of assets and liabilities, earnings and capital. To minimize interest rate risk, the Company generally sells all 20- and 30-year fixed-rate mortgage loans at origination. Commercial real estate loans generally have interest rates that reset in five years, and other commercial loans such as construction loans and commercial lines of credit reset with changes in the prime rate, the federal funds rate or LIBOR. Investment securities purchases generally have maturities of five years or less, and mortgage-backed securities have weighted average lives between three and five years.

The Asset/Liability Committee meets on a monthly basis to review the impact of interest rate changes on net interest income, net interest margin, net income and the economic value of equity. The Asset/Liability Committee reviews a variety of strategies that project changes in asset or liability mix, various interest rate scenarios and the impact of those changes on projected net interest income and net income.

Table of Contents

The Company endeavors to acquire and retain core deposit accounts and expand customer relationships in order to maintain a less interest rate sensitive funding base. The Company s ability to retain maturing certificate of deposit accounts is the result of its strategy to remain competitively priced within its marketplace, typically within the upper quartile of rates offered by its competitors. Pricing strategy may vary depending upon current funding needs and the ability of the Company to fund operations through alternative sources, primarily by accessing short-term lines of credit with the FHLB-NY during periods of pricing dislocation.

Quantitative Analysis. Current and future sensitivity to changes in interest rates are measured through the use of balance sheet and income simulation models. The analyses capture changes in net interest income using flat rates as a base, a most likely rate forecast and rising and declining interest rate forecasts. Changes in net interest income and net income for the forecast period, generally twelve to twenty-four months, are measured and compared to policy limits for acceptable change. The Company periodically reviews historical deposit re-pricing activity and makes modifications to certain assumptions used in its income simulation model regarding the interest rate sensitivity of deposits without maturity dates. These modifications are made to more precisely reflect most likely results under the various interest rate change scenarios. Since it is inherently difficult to predict the sensitivity of interest bearing deposits to changes in interest rates, the changes in net interest income due to changes in interest rates cannot be precisely predicted. There are a variety of reasons that may cause actual results to vary considerably from the predictions presented below which include, but are not limited to, the timing, magnitude, and frequency of changes in interest rates, interest rate spreads, prepayments, and actions taken in response to such changes. Specific assumptions used in the simulation model include:

Parallel yield curve shifts for market rates;

Current asset and liability spreads to market interest rates are fixed;

Traditional savings and interest bearing demand accounts move at 10% of the rate ramp in either direction;

Money Market accounts move at 25% of the rate ramp in either direction; and

Higher-balance demand deposit tiers and promotional demand accounts move at 50% of the rate ramp in either direction.

The following table sets forth the results of a twelve-month net interest income projection model as of September 30, 2007 (dollars in thousands):

	Net Interest Income
	Dollar	Dollar	Percent
Change in Interest Rates in Basis Points (Rate Ramp)	Amount	Change	Change
-200	$ 164,388	$ 5,750	3.6%
-100	161,598	2,960	1.9
Static	158,638
+100	155,262	(3,376)	(2.1)
+200	151,785	(6,853)	(4.3)

The preceding table indicates that as of September 30, 2007, in the event of a 200 basis point increase in interest rates whereby rates ramp up evenly over a twelve-month period, net interest income is projected to decrease 4.3%, or $6.9 million. In the event of a 200 basis point decrease in interest rates, net interest income is projected to increase 3.6%, or $5.8 million.

Another measure of interest rate sensitivity is to model changes in economic value of equity through the use of immediate and sustained interest rate shocks. The following table illustrates the result of the economic value of equity model as of September 30, 2007 (dollars in thousands):

	Present Value of Equity			Present Value of Equity as Percent of Present Value of Assets
Change in Interest Rates (Basis Points)	Dollar Amount	Dollar Change	Percent Change	Present Value Ratio	Percent Change
-200	$ 1,375,869	$ 87,572	6.8%	20.7%	4.8%
-100	1,347,738	59,441	4.6	20.4	3.4
Flat	1,288,297			19.8
+100	1,209,387	(78,910)	(6.1)	18.8	(4.7)
+200	1,128,709	(159,588)	(12.4)	17.9	(9.7)

The above table indicates that as of September 30, 2007, in the event of an immediate and sustained 200 basis point increase in interest rates, the present value of equity is projected to decrease 12.4%, or $159.6 million. If rates were to decrease 200 basis points, the model forecasts a 6.8%, or $87.6 million increase in the present value of equity.

Certain shortcomings are inherent in the methodologies used in the above interest rate risk measurements. Modeling changes in net interest income requires the use of certain assumptions regarding prepayment and deposit decay rates, which may or may not reflect the manner in which actual yields and costs respond to changes in market interest rates. While management believes such assumptions are reasonable, there can be no assurance that assumed prepayment rates and decay rates will approximate actual future loan prepayment and deposit withdrawal activity. Moreover, the net interest income table presented assumes that a particular change in interest rates is reflected uniformly across the yield curve regardless of the duration to maturity or re-pricing of specific assets and liabilities. Accordingly, although the net interest income table provides an indication of the Company s interest rate risk exposure at a particular point in time, such measurement is not intended to and does not provide a precise forecast of the effect of changes in market interest rates on the Company s net interest income and will differ from actual results.

Item 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES.

Under the supervision and with the participation of management, including the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company s disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) or 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) were evaluated at the end of the period covered by this report.
