FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Exelon Increases Offer to Acquire NRG Energy by 12.4 Percent

Company Cites Additional Upside Value Identified Since Initial Offer

Also Shares Details on Financing

CHICAGO (July 2, 2009) Exelon Corporation (NYSE:EXC) today announced an increase in its offer to acquire all of the outstanding NRG common stock in an all-stock transaction with a fixed exchange ratio of 0.545 of a share of Exelon common stock for each NRG share, a 12.4 percent increase over the initial exchange offer of 0.485. Exelon's increased offer represents value of over $3 billion to NRG shareholders.

Exelon also filed today with the SEC an investor presentation that will be used as part of the company's proxy solicitation for the election of nine new, independent directors to the NRG board of directors. In the presentation, Exelon cited approximately $1.5 billion of additional newly identified synergies as the primary reason for the increase. The new offer also reflects the value of NRG's recent acquisition of the Reliant Energy retail business.

We listened to NRG investors and balanced their views with the best interests of Exelon shareholders. An exhaustive analysis by our internal team, informed by the best third-party experts, resulted in additional synergies, allowing us to increase our offer to NRG shareholders," said John Rowe, chairman and chief executive officer of Exelon. "Our track record of the Unicom-PECO merger, cost-cutting initiatives, and fleet optimization proves we can deliver this further value to Exelon and NRG shareholders. This is our best and final offer, and we will use the time leading up to the NRG annual meeting on July 21 to communicate the value of our new offer to NRG shareholders, encouraging them to vote for nine new independent directors who can unlock that value.

Exelon's more detailed analysis of NRG's structure, cost platform and operations assumes that the company would not only absorb NRG but also integrate and transform it. This approach, plant benchmarking, and application of Exelon's management model to NRG's assets yielded an estimated present value of $3.6 billion to $4.0 billion in operational synergies from areas including corporate/IT, fossil and nuclear fleet, trading, development, and retail operations. It reflects a 30 percent reduction in NRG's O&M expense, which is consistent with prior power sector transactions and reflects Exelon's track record of delivering cost reductions.

In the presentation, Exelon also shared details on its financing plan to maintain its investment grade credit ratings while optimizing long-term shareholder value. Exelon says it is confident, based on discussions with its outside advisors, that the company will be able to meet all financing needs associated with the transaction, including the re-financing of $4.7 billion of NRG's senior notes and other NRG debt, if necessary, while maintaining investment grade credit ratings.

Exelon says it continues to pursue NRG because of the long-term value that can be created by industry consolidation. Exelon believes that the scope, scale and diversified risk of the combined company will allow it not only to withstand the ever-changing forces of the markets and regulation but also to grow and create more value than each company could on its own.

Exelon says its offer will create immediate value for NRG shareholders and a commensurate value for Exelon shareholders. NRG shareholders will benefit from Exelon's stronger investment grade balance sheet, low-carbon nuclear fleet, operating excellence, and a $600 million share in the synergies resulting from the combination. Exelon shareholders benefit from NRG's assets, cash flow, and its own share of the synergies.

Together, the two companies would become the first national generation company, said Rowe. There is no model that can do more for shareholders of both companies than an Exelon-NRG combination.

Carbon
Legislation Is Coming

Who Can Better
Navigate a Carbon-Constrained World?

Waxman-Markey legislation provides allocations to merchant coal units only if they actually run in any given year with this allocation mechanism, merchant coal plants will dispatch more than is economically efficient and fewer merchant coal plants will retire

If merchant coal allocations are granted in a manner that does not change dispatch and retirement incentives, Exelon's EBITDA would increase by about $1.5 billion and NRG's EBITDA would increase by about $150M in Year 1

While Exelon has supported merchant coal allocations as part of an overall industry compromise, if no allocations are granted, Exelon's EBITDA would increase by $1.5 billion and NRG's EBITDA will decrease by $150M in Year 1 Note: Dollar values reflect illustrative results based on potential outcomes of climate legislation and should not be interpreted as

Exelon's Uprate
Plan
NRG's New Nuclear Plan
at Max Equity Position<sup>1</sup>

1. Exelon expects that NRG's planned equity sell-down would further reduce NRG's net equity interest to approximately 35%, or 936 MW, and possibly even less

We are impressed with Exelon's optimistic plans to add up to 1,500 MW from nuclear uprates over the next eight years. The returns on these investments should be very attractive, as the company does not anticipate a higher run-rate of O&M expenses (i.e., O&M/MWh should decrease).

out and highlights the different market dynamics such as positive basis to PECO's Philadelphia location.

NRG Is Overvaluing Reliant Retail's Financial

Impact

Valuation Considerations

Even when assuming a $250 million run rate EBITDA for Reliant Retail, the financial impact to NRG is less than $1.00 per share

Exelon

fully supports
the retail business
model,
and
the Reliant
acquisition appears value-accretive

However,
the suggestion that over $1 billion in equity
value (or ~$4.50 per share)
has been created
is an overstatement

Valuation of 4-6x EBITDA is not achievable

NRG paid 1.9x to 2.6x
EBITDA in an auction

Public markets have not imputed attractive multiples
to retail businesses in the past

No allocation of debt in NRG's valuation either in the form of collateral or increased working capital

NRG seems to ignore the higher level of risk for retail;
implies higher cost of capital Potential Price Per Share Impact ($ M)

$250 million run rate EBITDA appears aggressive

Gross margins ($670 M) assume steady mass market and Commercial & Industrial margins which have been volatile

Aggressive pricing from large competitors (e.g., Centrica, FPL, CEG) will likely compress margins

Requires strong execution across key disciplines (e.g., risk management, customer service)

with a view
to long-term shareholder
value

Our optimal financing plan includes:

- Divesting assets of ~$1.6 billion
- Issuing ~$1.1 billion of mandatory convertible equity or common equity
- Deploying cash on hand of ~$1.7 billion
- Financing $4.2 billion in the debt capital markets

The plan is executable
and provides investment grade metrics

We have incorporated
cost issuing equity

or equity-linked securities
into our model as we believe EXC's

The strategic benefits, long-term value and synergies created by the combination

NRG Shareholders can secure the best transaction possible by taking the following actions:
This approach will allow NRG shareholders to share in the significant value to be generated from creating the largest, most diversified power company in the U.S.

34 This will not result in Exelon's slate constituting a majority of the NRG Board

NRG's Board has been entrenched in its steadfast opposition to a transaction with Exelon by:

Supporting an entrenched CEO and Senior Management who have sought to obstruct Exelon's attempts to obtain regulatory approvals for the transaction

Consistently ignoring the spoken will of a majority of NRG's shareholders and refusing to negotiate with Exelon or allow due diligence

We are committed to this transaction but will continue our efforts only as long as we have shareholder support. The election of only four new directors would raise a significant question about the level of that support

RPM Capacity Auctions in PJM

The results of the recent RPM capacity auction are not anticipated to reflect a new norm due to an anticipated market response to low clearing prices and rule changes for demand response bidding

The RTO clearing price for 2012/2013 was $16.46 MW-day. The clearing price for MAAC and Eastern MAAC resources was $133.37 MW-day and $139.73 MW-day respectively.

Exelon offered 12,200
MWs
of capacity
in
the RTO
region;
1,500
MWs
the
MAAC
region; and 9,600 MWs
of capacity in Eastern MAAC region

A market response to the low clearing prices in the RTO region is anticipated

Modified resource bidding behavior
Retirement of costly and less efficient generation
Cancellation of new generation projects
Less Cleared Demand Response (DR)

The RPM capacity auction prices for 2012/2013 are the result of increased generation supply and demand response resources, decreased load PJM wide, and locational reliability requirements

The 2012/2013 capacity auction was the first time in which Interruptible Load Resources (ILR) were required to offer into RPM as a capacity resource

The PJM tariff was interpreted
to require existing
ILR
Resources
to bid

at $0

On June 8, 2009, PJM
and its stakeholders
began considering changes
that would eliminate offer caps on DR

Tariff changes could result in future auctions that better reflect the true market value of capacity (i.e. the value to end use customers who sell firm power rights)

Scale and Complexity of Nuclear New Build Introduces a Unique Set of Challenges for NRG

42

New nuclear build is a high risk proposition for NRG and represents a substantial portion of the company's market cap

Even with financing support by the U.S. and Japanese governments, NRG is placing a significant portion of the company's market cap at risk

Exelon's size and investment grade balance sheet significantly lessens the impact of this mega-project on the company's operating and financial risk profile
