ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

New Credit Facility

Frontier Communications Corporation (the Company) has entered into a new $750.0 million revolving credit facility (the New Credit Facility) that will become effective upon, and subject to (1) the closing of the merger of New Communications Holdings Inc. (Spinco), a wholly owned subsidiary of Verizon Communications Inc. (Verizon), with and into the Company, pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger entered into on May 13, 2009, by and among Verizon, Spinco and the Company, as amended on July 24, 2009 (the Merger Agreement), (2) the termination of the Company's existing revolving credit facility and (3) other customary conditions. The terms of the New Credit Facility are set forth in the Credit Agreement, dated as of March 23, 2010, between the Company, the Lenders party thereto, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as Administrative Agent (the Credit Agreement). Associated facility fees under the New Credit Facility will vary from time to time depending on the Company's debt rating (as defined in the Credit Agreement). The New Credit Facility is scheduled to terminate on the date that is three years and six months after the effective date of the New Credit Facility. During the term of the New Credit Facility, the Company may borrow, repay and reborrow funds, and may obtain letters of credit, subject to customary borrowing conditions. Loans under the New Credit Facility will bear interest based on the alternate base rate or the adjusted LIBO rate (each as determined in the Credit Agreement), at the Company's election, plus a margin specified in the Credit Agreement based on the Company's debt rating. Letters of credit issued under the New Credit Facility will also be subject to fees that vary depending on the Company's debt rating. The New Credit Facility will be available for general corporate purposes but may not be used to fund dividend payments.

Amendment to Distribution Agreement

On March 23, 2010, Verizon and Spinco entered into Amendment No. 2 to Distribution Agreement (the Distribution Agreement Amendment), which amends the Distribution Agreement, dated as of May 13, 2009, by and between Verizon and Spinco, as amended by Amendment No. 1 to Distribution Agreement, dated as of July 24, 2009, by and among Verizon and Spinco (the Distribution Agreement).

Among other things, the Distribution Agreement Amendment: (i) provides that Verizon will not retain control of certain business and governmental accounts of Spinco, (ii) excludes certain assets in a portion of North Carolina from the definition of Spinco Assets, and (iii) includes certain assets in a portion of Virginia in the definition of Spinco Assets. The assets described in clause (iii) of the previous sentence will only be transferred to a Company subsidiary if a certificate of public convenience is obtained in Virginia by such subsidiary. If a certificate of public convenience is obtained in Virginia, the Company subsidiary will serve approximately 300 customers in that portion of Virginia bordering West Virginia.

Agreement Regarding Intellectual Property Matters

On March 23, 2010, Verizon, Spinco and the Company entered into the Agreement Regarding Intellectual Property Matters (the IP Matters Agreement).

Among other things, the IP Matters Agreement requires (i) the Company to pay $105 million at the closing of the Merger to reimburse Verizon for licenses to certain third party software the Company will acquire pursuant to the Merger, (ii) Verizon to obtain the consents necessary for Frontier to operate certain third-party software after the Merger, and (iii) Verizon and the Company to share the costs associated with obtaining consents pursuant to clause (ii) of this sentence. Including the amounts payable by the Company pursuant to the IP Matters Agreement, the Company currently expects to incur acquisition and integration costs of approximately $100 million and capital expenditures of approximately $180 million in 2010 related to the Merger.
