Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On September 27, 2010, Orrstown Financial Services, Inc. (the Company) announced the promotion of Bradley S. Everly to Executive Vice President. Mr. Everly will continue to serve in his current position as Chief Financial Officer. In connection with this promotion, the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Orrstown Bank (the Bank), entered into an Executive Employment Agreement with Mr. Everly, the material terms of which are described below.

The Executive Employment Agreement provides for a two (2) year term to expire September 30, 2012 and an initial annual base salary at a rate of $200,000 per year. Under the Executive Employment Agreement, Mr. Everly is eligible to receive annual incentive payments as determined by the Compensation Committee of the Bank under the Company's Executive Incentive Plan and equity incentive awards under the Company's equity-based compensation plans, and is eligible to participate in any retirement plan, deferred compensation plan, welfare benefit plan or other benefit program in which the senior executive officers of the Bank are eligible to participate.

The Executive Employment Agreement provides Mr. Everly with reimbursement of business expenses and paid vacation in accordance with Bank policies and procedures.

The Executive Employment Agreement contains customary nondisclosure, nonsolicitation and mutual nondisparagement provisions and a six month restrictive covenant within 80 miles of Shippensburg, Pennsylvania after resignation by Mr. Everly without good reason or termination of the executive by the Bank for cause.

The Executive Employment Agreement provides that the Bank may terminate Mr. Everly's employment for cause, defined to mean (i) the failure by the executive to substantially perform his duties, which failure creates actual material harm to the Company or the Bank, after written notice and the failure of the executive to correct the deficiency within thirty (30) days after such notice; (ii) the engagement by the executive in serious misconduct injurious to the Company or the Bank; (iii) the violation by the executive of the nondisclosure, nonsolicitation or restrictive covenants after written notice and a failure to cure the violation; (iv) dishonesty or gross negligence by the executive in the performance of his duties; (v) breach by the executive of his fiduciary duties to the Company or the Bank involving personal profit; (vi) violation by the executive of any law, rule or regulation governing banks or bank officers or any final and unappealable order issued by any bank regulatory authority which actually and materially harms the business of the Company or Bank, or (vii) moral turpitude or other serious misconduct on the part of the executive which brings material public discredit to the Company or Bank.

The Executive Employment Agreement further provides that Mr. Everly may resign upon ninety (90) days prior written notice, or may terminate his employment for good reason, defined as: (i) a diminution in his base salary; (ii) an imposition of a requirement that he report to an officer or employee of the Company or the Bank other than directly to the chief executive officer or the Board of Directors; (iii) a material change in the geographic location of his primary office; or (iv) any other action or inaction that constitutes a material breach of the Agreement by the Bank, in all cases after notice to the Bank within ninety (90) days after the initial existence of such condition and the failure of the Bank to cure the situation within thirty (30) days after notice.

The Executive Employment Agreement contains provisions intending that payments thereunder comply with the provisions of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Executive Employment Agreement provides that the Bank will indemnify Mr. Everly to the fullest extent permitted by the By-laws of the Bank and by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Subject to the right of Mr. Everly to resign at any time upon ninety (90) days prior notice, the Executive Employment Agreement provides that the Company and the Bank may renew or extend the term of the Agreement for one or more successive two (2) year terms by written notice to the executive not later than 120 days prior to the expiration of the then current term. In the event the Company and the Bank would not renew or extend the term of the Agreement, and Mr. Everly's employment with the Company and the Bank would terminate upon the expiration of the then current term, the Executive Employment Agreement provides for the Bank to pay to Mr. Everly in a lump sum an amount equal to five (5) months of his base salary and the continuation for a period of five (5) months of life insurance, health and dental plans and other employee benefit plans made available to and on a cost sharing basis consistent with all employees of the Company and the Bank.

The above summary of the Executive Employment Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Executive Employment Agreement, the form of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on January 22, 2010, and is incorporated herein by reference. A copy of the press release announcing Mr. Everly's promotion is filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
