Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 15, 2012, upon the recommendation of the Nominating, Governance and Compensation Committee of Dril-Quip, Inc. (the Company), the Board of Directors of the Company increased the size of the Board from four to five directors and appointed Terence Bartlett Jupp to fill the newly created directorship. Mr. Jupp will serve as a Class I director of the Company until the expiration of his term on the date of the Company's annual meeting of stockholders in 2013, or until his successor is duly elected and qualified. Mr. Jupp will serve on the Audit Committee and the Nominating, Governance and Compensation Committee of the Company.

Mr. Jupp, 53, has been Chief Operating Officer of CASA Exploration, a recently formed oil and gas exploration company, since January 2012. From September 2009 until January 2012, Mr. Jupp was President and Chief Executive Officer of Trans-Global Oil and Gas Corp., and from April 2008 until August 2009 was Chief Operating Officer of Turkana Energy. From May 2007 until March 2008, Mr. Jupp was a private investor. From August 2006 until April 2007, Mr. Jupp was employed by Anadarko Petroleum as Vice President International Operations Americas/Far East following its acquisition of Kerr-McGee Oil and Gas. Prior to that, he worked for Kerr-McGee in various management positions domestically and internationally for over 20 years, including as Vice President International Exploration and Production. Mr. Jupp holds a Bachelor of Science degree in petroleum engineering from Texas A&M University.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Jupp and any other person pursuant to which he was selected as a director. The Company is not aware of any transaction in which Mr. Jupp has an interest requiring disclosure under Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

Mr. Jupp will be compensated for his service on the Board of Directors under the Company's standard arrangement for non-employee directors described in its proxy statement for the 2012 annual meeting of stockholders.

On November 15, 2012, the Company entered into an indemnification agreement (the Indemnification Agreement) with Mr. Jupp pursuant to which the Company agrees to indemnify Mr. Jupp, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, from and against any and all losses, liabilities, claims, damages and certain expenses arising out of an event or occurrence related to the fact that he is or was a director of the Company or is or was serving in another position at the request of the Company. The Indemnification Agreement is substantially similar to the Company's indemnification agreements with its executive officers and other directors. The foregoing description is qualified by reference to the terms of the Indemnification Agreement, a copy of the form of which is provided as Exhibit 10.1.

A copy of the press release announcing Mr. Jupp's appointment is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
