Item 1. Security and Issuer

This statement on Schedule 13D (this Schedule 13D) relates to the shares of common stock, without par value (collectively, the Common Shares, and each a Common Share) of Administradora de Fondos de Pensiones Provida S.A. (the Company), a Chilean corporation (sociedad anónima). Common Shares trade on the Santiago Stock Exchange, the Chilean Electronic Stock Exchange (Bolsa Electrónica de Chile, Bolsa de Valores) and the Valparaiso Stock Exchange (Bolsa de Corredores, Bolsa de Valores Valparaiso) (collectively, the Chilean Exchanges). American Depositary Shares, each representing fifteen (15) Common Shares (collectively, ADSs, and each an ADS), trade on the New York Stock Exchange. The Company's principal executive offices are located at Pedro de Valdivia 100, piso 16, Santiago, Chile.

Item 2. Identity and Background

This Schedule 13D is being filed pursuant to Rule 13d-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), by MetLife, Inc. (MetLife), a Delaware corporation, and its indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries, MetLife Chile Acquisition Co. S.A. (Purchaser), a Chilean closed corporation (sociedad anónima cerrada) and Inversiones Previsionales S.A. (Inversiones Previsionales, and collectively with MetLife and Purchaser, the Reporting Persons), a Chilean corporation (sociedad anónima). MetLife's executive offices are located at 200 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10166. Purchaser's and Inversiones Previsionales' executive offices, respectively, are located at Agustinas 640, piso 18, Santiago, Región Metropolitana, Chile.

MetLife is a leading global provider of insurance, annuities and employee benefit programs. Purchaser was formed by MetLife for the purpose of acquiring up to 100% of the outstanding Common Shares and ADSs and does not engage in any other business activities. Inversiones Previsionales was formed as an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Banco Bilbao Vizcaya Argentaria S.A. (BBVA) in connection with the Transaction Agreement (as defined in Item 3), among MetLife and certain of its affiliates and BBVA and certain of its affiliates. The issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of Inversiones Previsionales were transferred to Purchaser and Inversiones MetLife Holdco Tres Limitada (HoldCo Tres), a Chilean limited liability company (sociedad de responsabilidad limitada) that is an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of MetLife, on October 1, 2013, simultaneously with Purchaser's acquisition of the Common Shares and ADSs tendered into the Offers (as defined in Item 3). Inversiones Previsionales does not engage in any business activity other than holding the Common Shares of Provida.

The name, business address, present principal occupation or employment (including the name, principal business and address of any corporation or other organization in which such employment is conducted) and place of citizenship of each executive officer and director of MetLife, Purchaser and Inversiones Previsionales are set forth on Schedules I, II and III attached hereto and are incorporated herein by reference.

To the best knowledge of MetLife, Purchaser and Inversiones Previsionales, none of MetLife, Purchaser, Inversiones Previsionales or any of the persons listed in Schedules I, II and III have been, during the past five (5) years, (i) convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or (ii) a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction and as a result of such proceedings was or is subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activity subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violations with respect to such laws.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

As more fully described in Item 4, MetLife, BBVA and BBVA Inversiones Chile S.A. (collectively with BBVA, the BBVA Parties) entered into a Transaction Agreement, dated as of February 1, 2013 (the Transaction Agreement). Purchaser later executed a Share Purchaser Joinder Agreement to the Transaction Agreement together with MetLife and the BBVA Parties, dated as of March 12, 2013, thereby becoming a party to the Transaction Agreement. The Transaction Agreement and Share Purchaser Joinder Agreement were previously filed and are hereby incorporated by reference.

Pursuant to the Transaction Agreement, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, Purchaser agreed to commence a tender offer in the United States and a tender offer in Chile (respectively, the U.S. Offer and the Chilean Offer and, collectively, the Offers), and the BBVA Parties agreed that (i) BBVA would tender into the Offers its 42,076,485 Common Shares held in the form of ADSs and (ii) following the expiration of the Offers and simultaneously with the closing of the Offers, BBVA would cause the transfer to Purchaser and HoldCo Tres of 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of Inversiones Previsionales, which was then an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of BBVA, thereby transferring indirectly the 171,023,573 Common Shares held by Inversiones Previsionales.

On August 29, 2013, Purchaser commenced the U.S. Offer to purchase: (i) up to 100% of the issued and outstanding Common Shares held by U.S. holders (within the meaning of Rule 14d-1(d) under the Exchange Act) and (ii) up to 100% of the outstanding ADSs from all holders wherever located, for U.S. $6.1476 per Common Share, and U.S. $92.2140 per ADS, in each case, in cash, without interest, payable in U.S. dollars (or in Chilean pesos upon a valid election by a tendering security holder), and less the amount of any fees, expenses and withholding taxes that may have been applicable. Simultaneously with the U.S. Offer, Purchaser commenced the Chilean Offer in accordance with the mandatory tender offer rules of the Republic of Chile (Chile) to purchase up to 100% of the outstanding Common Shares from all holders of Common Shares, wherever located, for the same price and on substantially the same terms as the Common Shares offered to be purchased pursuant to the U.S. Offer. The Offers expired on September 27, 2013.

On September 30, 2013, Purchaser announced on a Schedule TO-T/A filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) that it had accepted for payment all of the ADSs and Common Shares that were tendered in the U.S. Offer. On the same date, Purchaser announced in Chile that it had accepted for payment all of the Common Shares that were tendered in the Chilean Offer. On or around October 1, 2013, as a result of the Offers, Purchaser acquired 131,725,750 Common Shares (including those represented by ADSs), representing approximately 39.8% of the outstanding Common Shares, including the 42,076,485 Common Shares then held in the form of ADSs by BBVA.

On October 1, 2013, simultaneously with payment for the ADSs and Common Shares validly tendered and not withdrawn in the Offers, BBVA caused the transfer to Purchaser and HoldCo Tres of 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of Inversiones Previsionales, thereby transferring indirectly the 171,023,573 Common Shares held by Inversiones Previsionales, representing approximately 51.6% of the outstanding Common Shares. Purchaser paid BBVA the same price per Common Share and per ADS as paid by Purchaser to holders of Common Shares and ADSs pursuant to the Offers.

As a result of the above-described transactions, MetLife currently indirectly owns 302,749,323 Common Shares (including 72,775,905 Common Shares represented by ADSs) representing approximately 91.4% of the outstanding Common Shares.

Purchaser paid an aggregate of U.S. $1,808,612,512.21 for the Common Shares and ADSs acquired in connection with the transactions described herein, which was funded through MetLife and its subsidiaries' existing cash balances.

Item 4. Purpose of Transactions

The purpose of the Transaction Agreement (as defined in Item 3) was for MetLife, through Purchaser and Inversiones Previsionales, to acquire up to 100% of the Common Shares and ADSs. Subject to applicable law, the Reporting Persons intend to acquire additional Common Shares and ADSs through open market purchases, privately negotiated transactions or purchases facilitated by brokers in Chile or the United States, or otherwise. In connection with any such acquisition of additional Common Shares or ADSs, the Reporting Persons may enter into contracts and other arrangements with brokers and other market participants in Chile or the United States. The Reporting Persons do not currently have any plans or proposals that would result in an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation of the Company or its subsidiaries, or to sell or transfer a material amount of assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

In accordance with the Transaction Agreement, BBVA caused the members of the Company's board of directors that were appointed by BBVA or any of its subsidiaries (excluding the Company's independent directors and their independent alternates) to resign from the board of directors of the Company and caused the board of directors to appoint in the place of each such resigning director such qualified person as was designated by MetLife, effective as of October 2, 2013. MetLife therefore designated a majority of the board of directors of the Company. The Reporting Persons may from time to time cause changes in the board of directors of the Company, as the Reporting Persons may determine at any such time. From time to time the Reporting Persons may appoint, replace or remove management of the Company.

The Reporting Persons do not currently have any plans or proposals that would result in any changes to the Company's by-laws which may impede the acquisition of control of the Company by any person or that would result in a material change to the Company's present capitalization or dividend policy. However, the Reporting Person may manage the Company differently than BBVA, including with respect to dividend policy and business strategy.

Subject to applicable law, MetLife may cause the Company to delist the Common Shares and ADSs from the Chilean Exchanges and the New York Stock Exchange and to terminate the Company's registration with the Chilean Securities and Insurance Commission (Superintendencia de Valores y Seguros) and the SEC. MetLife may also cause the Company to terminate the deposit agreement among the Company, the ADS Depositary and holders of ADSs, dated as of November 22, 1994, as amended and restated as of February 7, 1996, as further amended and restated as of August 19, 1999.

If and when the Reporting Persons directly or indirectly hold in the aggregate more than 95% of the then outstanding Common Shares, remaining minority shareholders (including remaining U.S. holders) may be able to exercise limited redemption rights in accordance with Chilean law. Under Chilean law and the Company bylaws, the Reporting Persons are not currently permitted to squeeze out the remaining holders of Common Shares or ADSs, although if a squeeze-out right becomes available in the future, the Reporting Persons reserve the right to exercise it to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Except as set forth in this Schedule 13D (including any information incorporated by reference) and in connection with the transactions described above, none of the Reporting Persons has any plan or proposal that relates to or would result in any of the transactions described in subparagraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 to the Schedule 13D.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer

(a, b) Inversiones Previsionales is the direct record owner of and has shared voting and dispositive power with respect to 171,023,573 Common Shares, representing approximately 51.6% of the outstanding Common Shares. Purchaser is the direct record owner and has shared voting and dispositive power with respect to 131,725,750 Common Shares (including those held in ADS form), representing approximately 39.8% of the outstanding Common Shares. MetLife may be deemed to beneficially own and have shared voting and dispositive power with respect to 302,749,323 Common Shares (including those held in ADS form), representing 91.4% of the issued and outstanding Common Shares, which is the sum of the Common Shares held by its indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries, Inversiones Previsionales and Purchaser.

(c) MetLife and the BBVA Parties entered into the Transaction Agreement and Purchaser later executed a Share Purchaser Joinder Agreement to the Transaction Agreement, as described more fully in Item 3.

Pursuant to the Transaction Agreement, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, Purchaser agreed to commence the Offers, and the BBVA Parties agreed that (i) BBVA would tender into the Offers its 42,076,485 Common Shares held in the form of ADSs and (ii) following the expiration of the Offers and simultaneously with the closing of the Offers, BBVA would cause the transfer to Purchaser and HoldCo Tres of 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of Inversiones Previsionales, which was then an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of BBVA, thereby transferring indirectly the 171,023,573 Common Shares held by Inversiones Previsionales.

On August 29, 2013, Purchaser commenced the U.S. Offer to purchase: (i) up to 100% of the issued and outstanding Common Shares held by U.S. holders (within the meaning of Rule 14d-1(d) under the Exchange Act) and (ii) up to 100% of the outstanding ADSs from all holders wherever located, for U.S. $6.1476 per Common Share, and U.S. $92.2140 per ADS, in each case, in cash, without interest, payable in U.S. dollars (or in Chilean pesos upon a valid election by a tendering security holder), and less the amount of any fees, expenses and withholding taxes that may have been applicable. Simultaneously with the U.S. Offer, Purchaser commenced the Chilean Offer in accordance with the mandatory tender offer rules of Chile to purchase up to 100% of the outstanding Common Shares from all holders of Common Shares, wherever located, for the same price and on substantially the same terms as the Common Shares offered to be purchased pursuant to the U.S. Offer. The Offers expired on September 27, 2013.

On September 30, 2013, Purchaser announced on a Schedule TO-T/A filed with the SEC that it had accepted for payment all of the ADSs and Common Shares that were tendered in the U.S. Offer. On the same date, Purchaser announced in Chile that it had accepted for payment all of the Common Shares that were tendered in the Chilean Offer. On or around October 1, 2013, as a result of the Offers, Purchaser acquired 131,725,750 Common Shares (including those represented by ADSs), representing approximately 39.8% of the outstanding Common Shares, including the 42,076,485 Common Shares then held in the form of ADSs by BBVA.

On October 1, 2013, simultaneously with payment for the ADSs and Common Shares validly tendered and not withdrawn in the Offers, BBVA caused the transfer to Purchaser and HoldCo Tres of 100% of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of Inversiones Previsionales, thereby transferring indirectly the 171,023,573 Common Shares held by Inversiones Previsionales, representing approximately 51.6% of the outstanding Common Shares. Purchaser paid BBVA the same price per Common Share and per ADS as paid by Purchaser to holders of Common Shares and ADSs pursuant to the Offers.

As a result of the above-described transactions, MetLife currently indirectly owns 302,749,323 Common Shares (including 72,775,905 Common Shares represented by ADSs) representing approximately 91.4% of the outstanding Common Shares.

(d) To the best knowledge of the Reporting Persons, no other person has the right to receive or the power to direct the receipt of dividends from, or the proceeds of the sale of, the Common Shares or ADSs of Provida covered by this Schedule 13D.

(e) Not applicable.
