Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously disclosed, on February 18, 2014, a derivative lawsuit was filed in Delaware Chancery Court (Case No. 9359-VCP) by a purported stockholder of Autoliv, Inc. ( Autoliv or the Company ) against twelve of Autoliv's current and former directors and officers. The complaint names the Company as a nominal defendant only. The complaint purports to allege claims against the individual defendants for breach of fiduciary duty, waste and unjust enrichment related to the Company's U.S. antitrust litigation and seeks monetary and other relief on behalf of Autoliv against the individual defendants.

On October 3, 2014, the parties filed a Stipulation of Settlement (the Stipulation ) that asks the Delaware court to approve the proposed settlement that will dismiss all claims in the complaint with prejudice. The court has scheduled a hearing on December 15, 2014 for approval of the settlement. Pursuant to the Stipulation, the Company agreed to institute various corporate governance reforms as specified in the Stipulation for a period of not less than two years. Subject to court approval, Autoliv agreed to pay plaintiff's counsel attorneys' fees and expenses in the aggregate amount of $495,000.

The current and former directors and officers named as defendants have denied and continue to deny all of the claims alleged against them, and neither the individual defendants nor the Company have admitted any fault, wrongdoing, or liability in connection with the Stipulation. The named defendants and the Company are settling the litigation to avoid the expenses, risk and uncertainty inherent in complex and continuing litigation.

Pursuant to the Stipulation, the Notice of Pendency and Proposed Settlement of Stockholder Derivative Action (the Notice ) is attached to this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1, and the Stipulation is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.2. The Notice and the Stipulation can also be viewed on Autoliv's website at www.autoliv.com on the Investors page under the SEC filings. Any descriptions of the Notice and Stipulation set forth above are qualified in their entirety by the copies attached hereto or available on the Company's website.
