Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 29, 2017, Lennar Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") with CalAtlantic Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("CalAtlantic"). Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, CalAtlantic will be merged with and into a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, with the wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company continuing as the surviving corporation (the "Merger").

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, CalAtlantic's stockholders will receive 0.885 shares of the Company's Class A common stock for each share of CalAtlantic's common stock. CalAtlantic's stockholders will also have the option to exchange all or a portion of their shares of common stock for cash in an amount of $48.26 per share (the "Cash Election Option") in lieu of receiving the Company's Class A common stock, subject to a maximum cash amount of $1,162,250,000. The Cash Election Option will be subject to proration to the extent they exceed the maximum cash amount. No fractional shares of the Company's Class A common stock will be issued in the Merger. Any holder of CalAtlantic's common stock who would be entitled to receive a fraction of a share of the Company's Class A common stock will instead receive cash equal to the market value of a share of such Class A common stock (based on the last sale price reported on the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") on the last trading day before the closing date).

The Merger Agreement provides that the Company may issue shares of its Class B common stock as a dividend to holders of its Class A and Class B common stock within 30 days of the Merger Agreement. If the Company issues that dividend, the merger consideration will include in addition to the Company's Class A common stock the shares of Class B common stock that would have been issued as a dividend on the Class A common stock issued in the Merger.

The executive officers of the Company will continue to serve as executive officers of the Company upon the consummation of the Merger. Immediately following the effective time of the Merger, a member of the current CalAtlantic board will be elected to the Company's board of directors.

The completion of the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions, including (a) the adoption of the Merger Agreement and Merger by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all outstanding shares of CalAtlantic common stock; (b) the approval by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all outstanding shares of the Company's Class A common stock as well as a majority of all outstanding shares of the Company's Class A common stock and Class B common stock, voting together without regard to class, to amend the Company's certificate of incorporation to increase the number of authorized shares of the Company's Class A common stock; (c) the approval by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's Class A common stock and Class B common stock, voting together without regard to class, to issue the Company's Class A common stock (and if required, the Company's Class B common stock) in the Merger; (d) the absence of a material adverse effect on the Company or CalAtlantic; (e) the absence of any law or order prohibiting the Merger; and (f) the delivery of opinion from counsel to CalAtlantic that the Merger will constitute a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties by the Company and CalAtlantic, which will terminate when the Merger becomes effective. It also contains covenants by the parties, including a covenant by the parties that until the Merger takes place (or the Merger Agreement is terminated), the parties and each of their subsidiaries will, with certain exceptions, operate their businesses in the ordinary course consistent with past practice. CalAtlantic has also agreed that, subject to certain exceptions, it will terminate all ongoing discussions regarding any proposal to enter into an acquisition transaction and will not authorize or approve and will use its reasonable best efforts to prevent any of its officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives to initiate, solicit, knowingly encourage or otherwise knowingly facilitate any inquiry or the making of any proposal with respect to an acquisition transaction; provided, however, that if CalAtlantic receives an acquisition proposal that its board determines in good faith, after consultation with its independent financial advisor, constitutes or would be reasonably expected to result in a transaction which would be more favorable to CalAtlantic's stockholders than the Merger, CalAtlantic may furnish non-public information to the potential acquirer making the acquisition proposal and enter into discussions and negotiations with that potential acquirer. CalAtlantic is obligated to inform the Company about any acquisition proposal, including the identity of the potential acquirer, within two business days after CalAtlantic receives any such acquisition proposal.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated under certain circumstances, including by either party if (1) the Merger has not been consummated by May 31, 2018; provided that if the closing does not occur by the third business day before May 31, 2018 because the conditions to closing have not been satisfied or waived, either party may extend the outside closing date to no later than August 31, 2018; (2) the consummation of the Merger has been enjoined or prohibited; (3) the Company and/or CalAtlantic stockholder approvals are not obtained; (4) the other party breaches its representations and covenants and such breach would result in the closing conditions not being satisfied; or (5) the board of directors of the other party makes an adverse change in its recommendation to its stockholders. In addition, the Merger Agreement may be terminated by CalAtlantic if before its stockholders' meeting to vote on the Merger, (i) CalAtlantic receives an acquisition proposal that its board determines in good faith would be a superior proposal (i.e., would be more favorable to CalAtlantic's stockholders than the Merger), (ii) CalAtlantic gives the Company notice of the superior proposal, (iii) the Company does not agree to increase the merger consideration or, the Company agrees to increase the merger consideration but CalAtlantic's board in good faith determines after consultation with its financial advisor that the superior proposal continues to be a superior proposal and (iv) CalAtlantic pays the Company a termination fee of $178,700,000. If the Merger Agreement is terminated under other circumstances specified in the Merger Agreement, the Company may be required to pay to CalAtlantic a termination fee of $178,700,000 or CalAtlantic may be required to pay the Company a termination fee of $178,700,000. In addition, if the Merger Agreement is terminated by either party because the Company or the CalAtlantic stockholder approvals are not obtained, then the party that was unable to obtain stockholder approval must reimburse the other party for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses up to an amount equal to $30,000,000.

In connection with the Merger Agreement, the Company entered into a Voting and Cash Election Agreement (the "Voting Agreement") with MP CA Homes LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("MP CA Homes"), a stockholder currently holding 25.4% shares of CalAtlantic's common stock. Pursuant to the Voting Agreement, among other things and subject to the terms and conditions therein, MP CA Homes has agreed to vote all of its shares of CalAtlantic's common stock in favor of the Merger. In addition, to the extent that CalAtlantic's stockholders do not elect to exchange their shares of CalAtlantic's common stock equal to or greater than the maximum cash amount, MP CA Homes has agreed to exchange that number of shares of CalAtlantic's common stock held by it that would cause the number of shares as to which the Cash Election Option is exercised to be equal to or greater than the maximum cash amount.

Stuart Miller, the Chief Executive Officer of Company, has agreed to vote 41.4% of the voting interests he and his family directly and indirectly holds in the Company in favor of the matters to be voted upon in the Company's stockholders' meeting in connection with the Merger.

It is expected that the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The foregoing descriptions of the Merger Agreement and the Voting Agreement are only summaries and do not purport to be complete. They are qualified in their entirety by the actual terms of the Merger Agreement and the Voting Agreement, copies of which are filed as Exhibit 2.1 and Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.

The description of the Merger Agreement above, and the Merger Agreement itself, are included in, or as an exhibit to, this Current Report on Form 8-K to provide investors and others with information about the Merger. They are not intended to provide factual information about any of the parties to the Merger Agreement to anyone other than the parties. Some of the representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement may have been intended to allocate risks among parties rather than to assure the correctness of information. Also, many of the representations and warranties are qualified by information in documents that are not filed with this Current Report on Form 8-K. In addition, many of the representations and warranties exclude facts or conditions that would not have a material adverse effect on one or more parties or are otherwise limited to material items. Accordingly, nobody reading this Current Report on Form 8-K should rely on statements made in representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement as being complete, or necessarily correct, descriptions of the matters to which they relate.
