News Release 10 December 2012

AngloGold Ashanti Maintains Investment Grade Credit Rating

(Johannesburg) – AngloGold Ashanti is pleased to note that Standard & Poor's has affirmed the investment grade rating on the company's publicly traded debt following an extensive review.

"We've taken strong, decisive action to maintain our investment grade rating and preserve our financial stability and flexibility," Chief Executive Officer Mark Cutifani said, "And at the same time our strategy to improve the quality and diversity of our portfolio remains firmly on track,"

The affirmation of the BBB- rating (with negative outlook) comes despite a decision in October to downgrade South Africa's sovereign debt rating and that of several of the country's other corporates. The decision highlights AngloGold Ashanti's geographically diverse production base and new production coming on stream from projects already in advanced stages of development.

"Maintaining a strong and stable financial foundation has always been key to ensuring we have cost-effective access to capital over the long-term," said AngloGold Ashanti's Chief Financial Officer, Srinivasan Venkatakrishnan, who led the team through the rating review. "Despite the raft of macro headwinds we've faced during the recent months, we've shown that we have the strategy, portfolio and the team to make good on our commitments."

The investment grade rating reflects AngloGold Ashanti's diverse portfolio of operating gold mines, which reduces its dependence on any single jurisdiction, the company's competitive total cost structure and its ability to protect cash flows in a range of gold price scenarios. AngloGold Ashanti's two major new projects – Tropicana in Australia and Kibali in the Democratic Republic of Congo – are scheduled to begin production within the next year, further diversifying AngloGold Ashanti's production base.

About AngloGold Ashanti

AngloGold Ashanti is a global gold mining company and the world's third largest gold producer. The primary listing of the company's ordinary shares is on the JSE Limited (JSE). At September 30 the company had a robust balance sheet, with net debt of $1.569bn and earnings before interest tax, depreciation and amortisation of $2.07bn in the first nine months of the year. AngloGold Ashanti has the following publicly traded debt outstanding:

- $300m, 30-year bond due 2040, bearing a coupon of 6.5%
- $700m, 10-year bond, due 2020, bearing a coupon of 5.375%
- $750m, 10-year bond, due 2022, bearing a coupon of 5.125%
- $732.5m, 5-year convertible bond, due 2014, bearing a coupon of 3.5% and a strike price of $47.61 per share

Moody's Investor Service, another international rating agency, rates AngloGold Ashanti's debt Baa2, an investment grade ranking which is two notches above high yield, or junk status.
