1st Constitution Bancorp (the "Registrant") experienced unanticipated technical difficulties with the interactive data files the Registrant was filing as part of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017 (the "2017 Form 10-K"). Because of the timing of the unexpected technical difficulties, the Registrant was unable to file the 2017 Form 10-K on time. The Registrant was able to resolve the technical issues regarding the interactive data files and filed the 2017 Form 10-K on March 19, 2018.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Form contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a "safe harbor" for forward-looking statements. When used in this and in future filings by the Registrant with the Securities and Exchange Commission, in the Registrant's press releases and in oral statements made with the approval of an authorized executive officer of the Registrant, the words or phrases "will," "will likely result," "could," "anticipates," "believes," "continues," "expects," "plans," "will continue," "is anticipated," "estimated," "project" or "outlook" or similar expressions (including confirmations by an authorized executive officer of the Registrant of any such expressions made by a third party with respect to the Registrant) are intended to identify forward-looking statements. The Registrant cautions readers not to place undue reliance on any such forward-looking statements, each of which speaks only as of the date made. Such statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from historical earnings and those presently anticipated or projected.

Factors that may cause actual results to differ from those results expressed or implied, include, but are not limited to, those reported in the Registrant's periodic and other reports filed with the SEC, such as the overall economy and the interest rate environment; the ability of customers to repay their obligations; the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses; competition; significant changes in accounting, tax or regulatory practices and requirements; certain interest rate risks; risks associated with investments in mortgage-backed securities; risks associated with speculative construction lending; and risks associated with safeguarding information technology systems. Although management has taken certain steps to mitigate any negative effect of the aforementioned items, significant unfavorable changes could severely impact the assumptions used and could have an adverse effect on profitability. The Registrant undertakes no obligation to publicly revise any forward-looking statements to reflect anticipated or unanticipated events or circumstances occurring after the date of such statements, except as required by law.
