General Electric Company commenced an exchange offer on October 19, 2015 to exchange General Electric Company common stock, par value $0.06 per share for Synchrony Financial common stock, par value $0.001 per share. Any holder of General Electric Company common stock during the exchange offer period could participate in the exchange offer, subject to certain restrictions in foreign jurisdictions. On November 16, 2015, General Electric Company's Board of Director's Management Development and Compensation Committee approved Mr. Bornstein's tender of 65,000 shares of General Electric Company common stock pursuant to the exchange offer.

Because the exchange offer was oversubscribed, General Electric Company accepted only a portion of the shares of General Electric Company common stock that were validly tendered and not validly withdrawn, on a pro rata basis in proportion to the number of shares tendered. Shareholders who owned less than 100 shares of General Electric Company common stock, or an "odd-lot", who validly tendered all of their shares, could elect not to be subject to proration, in accordance with the terms of the exchange offer.

The final proration factor of 31.2870888% was established on November 20, 2015, and applied to all tendered shares of General Electric Company common stock (other than "odd-lot" tenders) to determine the number of such shares that would be accepted. As a result, 20,337 shares of Mr. Bornstein's General Electric Company common stock were accepted in the exchange offer.

Note: File three copies of this Form, one of which must be manually signed. If space is insufficient, see Instruction 6 for procedure. Potential persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB number.
