GOL's 2007 Pre-Delivery Payment (PDP) Loan Facility
Named South America Aircraft Debt Deal of the Year
by *Jane's Transport Finance

São Paulo, December 7, 2007 GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. (NYSE: GOL and Bovespa: GOLL4), the parent company of Brazil's low-cost airlines GOL Transportes Aéreos S.A. and VRG Linhas Aéreas S.A., announces that GOL Transportes Aereos S.A.'s 2007 committed aircraft pre-delivery payment (PDP) loan facility was named the South America Aircraft Debt Deal of the Year by Jane's Transport Finance.

The completed loan facility totaled US$310 million for all 21 Boeing 737-800 Next Generation aircraft to be delivered in 2008 and 2009. The facility, a clubbed financing which comprises eight banks, was led by Calyon and Citigroup.

We're pleased with the support these world-class financial institutions provided to us, ensuring additional financial flexibility to continue lowering our operating costs and better serving the demand for safe, high quality transportation service in Brazil and South America, says Richard Lark, GOL's Chief Financial Officer.

Now in its 8th year, Jane's Transport Finance Awards recognize financiers, bankers and lawyers working within the transport finance industry. Judged by a panel of leading experts and the Jane's Transport Finance editorial board, the awards are presented annually to leaders in the aviation, legal, shipping, rail and road industries. Each winner is judged on a specific deal which demonstrates how their finance house or bank has shown particular innovation and skill in securing finance for transportation assets.

GOL has distinguished itself by accessing funding from the top tier of aircraft finance banks. This is no mean feat, especially in an industry reeling from high fuel costs. The inclusion of these banks is a testament to GOL's strong and savvy management team and an equally strong business plan. GOL looks positioned to remain a major player in the future, says Jim Smith, editor, Jane's Transport Finance.

We are proud that our PDP loan facility was named the South America Aircraft Debt Deal of the Year and we remain focused on expanding our fleet through smart financial decisions that keep our costs low and give us greater flexibility, adds Lark.

U.K.-based Jane's Transport Finance is a bi-monthly magazine providing finance intelligence, including pricing, structure, arrangers and lenders for debt deals.

About GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A.

GOL Linhas Aéreas Inteligentes S.A. is the parent company of low-cost airlines GOL Transportes Aéreos S.A. (GTA, which operates the GOL brand) and VRG Linhas Aéreas S.A. (VRG, which operates the VARIG brand). GTA and VRG offer daily flights to more destinations in Brazil than any other domestic airline, while providing customers with the most convenient flight schedules in the country. The airlines operate a young, modern fleet of Boeing aircraft, the safest and most comfortable jets of its class, with low maintenance, fuel and training costs, and high plane utilization and efficiency ratios. In addition to its safe and reliable services, which stimulate brand recognition and customer satisfaction, the Company is recognized as the best value proposition in the market. Growth plans include increasing frequencies in existing markets and adding service to additional markets in both Brazil and other high-traffic destinations. Shares are listed on the NYSE (GOL) and Bovespa (GOLL4) stock exchanges.
