BYLAWS
OF THE
COMMITTEE FOR ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Article 1 The Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements is a support body to the Board of Directors and has the following duties and responsibilities:

- (a) reviewing, from time to time, the accounting policies and financial statements adopted by the Company and providing recommendations to the Board of Directors;
- (b) following-up and assessing the compliance with the accounting policies and financial statements adopted by the Company;
- (c) appointing the members of the Accounting and Financial Statements Committee;
- (d) following-up and assessing the operation of the Accounting and Financial Statements Committee;
- (e) preparing and providing to the Board of Directors a summary of review and approval of matters discussed by the Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements;
- (f) providing quarterly presentations on matters within its scope of incumbency; and
- (g) advising the Board of Directors of the Company about issues deemed by it that should be the subject matter of resolutions by the referred Board.

Article 2 The Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements shall be made up by three (3) members, namely, the Financial Vice-President of the Company, one member of the Board of Directors or one member of the Audit Committee, and one independent member, elected by the Board of Directors for terms of office of one (1) year, reelection being permitted.

Article 3 The Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements shall have one Secretary, to be selected in common agreement as from the members at the time the Committee is organized, who shall perform his duties for a term of one (1) year.

Paragraph One In the absence of the Secretary, he will be replaced by any of the other members of the Committee. A Chair of the meetings will be appointed at each meeting among the members of the Committee.

Paragraph Two In case of vacancy in the office of Secretary, a new Secretary will be elected, who will perform his duties until the end of the term of office of the Secretary who was replaced.

Article 4 The Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements shall hold regular meetings at each quarter, and special meetings whenever they are called by the Secretary, on his own initiative or upon request from any of the other members of the Committee.

Article 5 A quorum of at least two (2) members will be required for the Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements to validly make resolutions.

Sole Paragraph In the absence of a minimum quorum, as set forth in the head paragraph hereof, the Secretary shall call a new meeting, which shall be held as urgently as may be required in regard of the matter to be discussed.

Article 6 The meetings of the Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements shall be called by any written means (letter, e-mail, directive release).

Article 7 Decisions by the Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements shall be made by majority of votes, and a dissenting member will be entitled to have his vote recorded in the minutes of the respective meeting.

Article 8 Minutes shall be drawn-up in a proper book for all the meetings of the Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements, and signed by all the attendees.

Article 9 At the first meeting after the organization of the Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements, the Committee shall approve an annual schedule of activities.

Article 10 In the course of the meetings, any acting member of the Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements shall be entitled to individually request and review books and other corporate records, being authorized to make notes and remarks, which shall be discussed and resolved at the respective meetings, provided that such books and records refer to matters within the scope of responsibility of the Committee, under the terms of Article 1 above.

Sole Paragraph Reviewing the above referred records shall not be permitted except at the company's head-office.

Article 11 Requests of information and/or explanations concerning the corporate business by any permanent member of the Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements shall be submitted to the managing bodies of the Company, in a written request signed by the Secretary to the Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements.

Article 12 It shall be incumbent upon the Secretary to:

(a) arrange for the calling of the members of the Committee to the meetings, at least five (5) business days in advance; and

(b) request to the Company's management such information and/or explanations as may be deemed necessary under the terms of Article 10 above.

Sole Paragraph The Secretary will be allowed to request the Board of Executive Officers to make a staff available for providing secretarial support to the meetings of the Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements.

Article 13 The attendance of members of the Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements to General Meetings or to meetings of the Board of Directors, in order to answer to requests of information eventually made by the shareholders or directors may be requested by the Board of Directors, in writing, at least five (5) days in advance.

Article 14 The Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements may prepare policies regulating matters within their scope of responsibility, under the terms of Article 1 above, and such policies may be changed from time to time by the Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements itself, provided that such changes are made by unanimous decision of the Committee members, without prejudice to the provisions in Article 7 above.

Article 15 The Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements may organize Operating Committees, which shall have the duty of reviewing specific issues concerning matters within the scope of authority of the Committee.

Article 16 The duties of the Committee for Accounting Policies and Financial Statements shall be performed both within the scope of the Company and within the scope of other companies under its control.

Article 17 Matters not expressly provided for herein shall be decided by the Board of Directors.

[approved at the Meeting of the Board of Directors held on February 4,2009]
