Petrobras concludes the acquisition of Esso Chile Petrolera

(Rio de Janeiro, April 30 2009). PETRÓLEO BRASILEIRO S/A - PETROBRAS, [Bovespa: PETR3/PETR4, NYSE: PBR/PBRA, Latibex: XPBR/XPBRA, BCBA: APBR/APBRA], a Brazilian international energy company informs that its wholly owned subsidiaries Petrobras Participaciones, S.L. (PPSL) and Petrobras Venezuela Investments & Services B.V (PVIS), located in Spain and in the Netherlands, respectively, concluded today the acquisition of ExxonMobil's distribution and logistics assets in Chile, in the total amount of approximately $400 million.

With the acquisition, Petrobras guarantees a strong position in the Chilean fuel distribution market, with a network of almost 30 service stations, presence in 11 airports, participation in six distribution terminals (four owned and two via joint ventures) and a participation of 22% in the company Sociedad Nacional de Oleoductos and 33,3% in Sociedad de Inversiones de Aviación.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
