Publicly Held Company

MATERIAL FACT

Braskem S.A. ("Braskem" or "Company"), pursuant to CVM Instruction 358/02, hereby informs its shareholders and the market in general that today CADE – Brazil's antitrust agency decided to reject the acquisition by Braskem of shares representing 70.59% of the total and voting capital of Solvay Indupa S.A.I.C.

Braskem disagrees with this decision, especially because the relevant market of PVC and caustic soda is international, as recognized by CADE's precedents consolidated for more than a decade.

The Company will keep its shareholders and the market in general informed of any relevant developments on that matter.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements. These statements are statements that are not historical facts, and are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.
