Inclusion of Tax Debits in REFIS

Rio de Janeiro, August 14, 2015 – Petróleo Brasileiro S.A. – Petrobras hereby announces that it has decided to include tax debits in the Special Installment Program – REFIS, instituted by Law 12996/2014 and regulated by Joint Ordinance PGFN/RFB 1064/15 and Regulatory Instruction RFB 1576/15, published on August 3, 2015.

Since the publication of the above-mentioned regulatory instruments, Petrobras has been reassessing its federal tax litigation in order to identify eventual proceedings that can be included in the REFIS.

These debits refer to the non-collection of Withholding Income Tax (IRRF) on remittances to the subsidiary Petrobras International Finance Company (PIFCO) in payment for the importation of oil and oil products between 1999 and 2002, 2004, 2005 and from 2007 to 2012.

The inclusion of these debits, whose updated amount is R$6.0 billion, in the REFIS, will save the Company 50% by reducing the liability to R$3.0 billion, R$876 million of which will be settled with tax loss carryforwards.

The total disbursement will therefore be R$2.1 billion, R$1.26 billion of which from the conversion of the court deposit to be paid definitively and the remainder to be paid in installments, with disbursement of R$536 million in 2015 and R$ 333 million between 2016 and 2017.

The negative impact on the Company's results for the third quarter of 2015 will be R$2.0 billion, net of taxes.

The decision to adhere to the program was based on the potential financial benefits and on an analysis of risk based on possible unfavorable decisions in both the legal and administrative spheres. At the reporting date of the 2Q2015 financial statements, this analysis was not complete, which only occurred on August 13, 2015.

In addition, taking the issue to the judicial sphere would require the constitution of guarantees, as well as a substantial increase in the amount of the debt over time due to interest and additional financial charges and the risk of the cancellation of the Federal Tax Clearance Certificate (CPEN), which would result in significant losses for the Company.

As the term for including notified tax debits expires in September 2015, the Company is continuing to reanalyze the litigation to identify other debits that can be settled through the Program.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (Securities Act), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act) that are not based on historical facts and are not assurances of future results. These forward-looking statements are based on management's current view and estimates of future economic circumstances, industry conditions, company performance and financial results. The words "anticipates", "believes", "estimates", "expects", "plans" and similar expressions, as they relate to the company, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Statements regarding the declaration or payment of dividends, the implementation of principal operating and financing strategies and capital expenditure plans, the direction of future operations and the factors or trends affecting financial condition, liquidity or results of operations are examples of forward-looking statements. Such statements reflect the current views of management and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties. There is no guarantee that the expected events, trends or results will actually occur. The statements are based on many assumptions and factors, including general economic and market conditions, industry conditions, and operating factors. Any changes in such assumptions or factors could cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations.

All forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement, and you should not place reliance on any forward-looking statement contained in this press release. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or future events or for any other reason.
