("ASUR") for a preliminary injunction against Red Oak, Pinnacle, and other defendants. "We are gratified that the court has not accepted this attempt to prevent Red Oak and other shareholders from voting at tomorrow's annual meeting of shareholders, and we now hope that ASUR will conduct an orderly meeting and allow its owners to decide the composition of the board of directors," said David Sandberg. "It is time for a change at ASUR and we encourage all holders to vote on the BLUE proxy card if they have not done so."
