Item 5. Other Events

Proposed Acquisition. On July 17, 2006, Integrated Media Holdings Inc., a Delaware Corporation (Integrated Media) and Bidchaser Inc., a Florida corporation (Bidchaser) entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) pursuant to which a newly formed wholly owned subsidiary of Integrated Media will merge with and into Bidchaser and shares of capital stock of Integrated Media will be issued to the present shareholders of Bidchaser.

Under the Merger Agreement, Paul D. Hamm, President and Chief Executive Officer and Director of Integrated Media will continue as President, CEO and director of Integrated Media and Leonardo Cunha will assume the role of CEO of Bidchaser. Upon completion of the merger, there will not be a change in control of Integrated Media.

The Merger.

A newly formed, wholly owned subsidiary of Integrated Media (the Subsidiary) shall be merged with and into Bidchaser. All capital stock of the Subsidiary shall be canceled and retired, the corporate existence of the Subsidiary shall automatically cease to exist and Bidchaser will be the surviving corporation in the Merger. Each of the constituent corporations have approved and adopted this Agreement as a plan of reorganization within the provisions of Section 368 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The transaction is expected to be completed on or before August 31, 2006 by the issuance and reserved for issuance to the shareholders of Bidchaser of approximately 10% of the common stock outstanding, on a fully diluted basis, of Integrated Media. After completion of the transaction, Bidchaser will operate as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Integrated Media. The transaction will not require approval of shareholders of Integrated Media.

Closing of the transaction is subject to the customary matters usually associated with business combinations.

About Integrated Media

Integrated Media Holdings was originally founded and incorporated in 1999 as CeriStar, Inc. by a group of technology entrepreneurs led by founder and former CEO of Iomega Corporation. On September 10, 2002, we merged with a wholly owned subsidiary of Planet Resources Inc., a non-operating publicly held company (together referred to as Planet) in which all of our issued and outstanding stock, including Convertible Preferred Series A shares and the Convertible Preferred Series B shares, were exchanged for shares of Planet common stock. Series A and B preferred shares were exchanged at a rate of .757 shares for every common share of Planet and the common stock of the Company were exchanged into .322 shares of common stock of Planet. Just prior to the merger, Planet authorized a 1 for 5.23 reverse stock split. The merger was accounted for as a reverse merger with CeriStar being the accounting acquirer. On October 15, 2002, Planet Resources Inc. was renamed CeriStar, Inc. The company changed its name to Endavo Media and Communications, Inc. in September 2004 to reflect its concentration on the distribution of content and services over the Internet and broadband networks. We executed a consolidation of equity capital in order to reposition the company to raise public capital. In September 2005, we consolidated operations to reduce costs while we redirected the company's business plan focus. In April 2006, we reorganized as a public holding company, changing our name to Integrated Media Holdings, Inc., in order to pursue the strategic objective of acquiring interest in broadband media and services companies, along with new business plans. Endavo now operates as a wholly owned subsidiary of Integrated Media Holdings, Inc. Endavo Media and Communications, Inc. provides digital video delivery solutions and products to owners of video and media content through Internet Protocol, or IP, based networks.

Edgar Filing: Integrated Media Holdings, Inc. - Form 8-K

After our September 2005 consolidation and under a newly refocused business plan in the fourth quarter of 2005 and first quarter of 2006, we began testing and launching specific new product designed to provide digital content distribution and management solutions for content owners seeking to distribute online and over broadband, or IP, networks. Specifically, our new solutions facilitate the distribution of digital video and programming, on behalf of content owners, to connected customers and broadband communities. Our systems reside on a national fiber (IP) backbone network, allowing us to efficiently reach consumers over the Internet and on local broadband networks through IP service providers. We call our integrated content management & distribution system, content delivery network and d-commerce platform the EcoSystem. The initial phase of our restructured business plan is to distribute digital video and programming to certain targeted groups of broadband consumers through web-based portals, or communities, and through the Windows Media Center Edition™ PC platform. Our content delivery platforms enable the delivery of video, audio and other services to networked personal computers, televisions and mobile devices.

PRESS RELEASE OF INTEGRATED MEDIA

Dated July 19, 2006

I-Media Agrees to Acquire Bidchaser

Acquisition of E-commerce Services Set to Generate Revenues in Current Quarter

Atlanta, Georgia (MARKETWIRE) July 19, 2006 -- Integrated Media Holdings, Inc. (OTCBB: IMHI) announced today that it has signed a definitive agreement to acquire Orlando, Florida based Bidchaser, Inc., a global online auction and e-commerce company. The acquisition will be completed by merging a newly formed Integrated Media subsidiary with Bidchaser through a share exchange and with Bidchaser surviving as the wholly-owned subsidiary. The agreement to acquire Bidchaser gives Integrated Media Holdings (I-Media) its second wholly-owned subsidiary and allows the Company to acquire an e-commerce platform and business plan that is being launched into the market during July and August. Bidchaser is expected to begin generating revenues from its e-commerce services and transactions during this initial rollout period.

Under definitive agreement, the acquisition will be accomplished through a reverse triangular merger and share exchange that is expected to be completed on or around August 31, 2006. This is an important strategic move for I-Media in its series of steps to improve shareholder value. Through this acquisition, Bidchaser also brings to I-Media an experienced and fully hardware-equipped software engineering and multimedia acquisition staff, with IT/ Web development offices in Baroda, Pune and Mumbai (Bombay), India, which will be used for I-Media's broadband video and e-commerce projects.

In addition to Bidchaser's IT and e-commerce assets, the acquisition brings an active content deal pipeline from India and the Far East to I-Media's current broadband video business in the East. Prior to acquiring Bidchaser, I-Media's industry presence had been strongest in the North and Latin American markets. Upon the acquisition, I-Media's proprietary broadband video and e-commerce businesses will be immediately increased worldwide.

The acquisition of Bidchaser will be accomplished through a share exchange for 100% of Bidchaser shares after merging with a newly formed subsidiary of Integrated Media Holdings. Bidchaser shareholders will receive a total of 2,122,094 common shares and 280,080 Series A Preferred Shares. Series A Preferred shares are each convertible into 9.6 common shares. To significantly reduce dilution to existing Integrated Media shareholders, the company's majority holder is contributing 100% of the Series A Preferred shares from its existing holdings for the preferred exchange.

This transaction will significantly reduce I-Media's cost of development and sales, while improving our balance sheet immediately, said Paul Hamm, CEO of I-Media.

I-Media's wholly owned subsidiary Endavo has already been using Bidchaser's services in the development and deployment of online video portals and services prior to the acquisition. By acquiring Bidchaser, our top line growth will be accelerated and I-Media's current broadband technologies and e-commerce capabilities will be greatly increased, Hamm added.

"Bidchaser is excited to be a part of the I-Media group," said Leonardo Cunha, President and CTO of Bidchaser, Inc. "The combined resources, expertise, and strategic vision in the digital commerce marketplace shared by Bidchaser and I-Media will make this a successful and profitable venture. We will be a formidable presence in the industry and a leader in the new era of digital commerce.
