RISK FACTORS

Your investment in the Notes involves certain risks, not all of which are described in this Pricing Supplement. In the consultation with your own financial and legal advisers, you should carefully consider, among other matters, the following discussion of risks before deciding whether an investment in the Notes is suitable for you. The Notes are not an appropriate investment for you if you are unsophisticated with respect to their significant components and interrelationships.

Structure of Notes Indexed to Interest Rates

Because the Notes are indexed to the Treasury Rate, there will be significant risks not associated with a conventional fixed rate debt security. These risks include fluctuation of the interest rates and the possibility that you will receive a lower amount of interest. We have no control over a number of matters, including economic, financial and political events, that are important in determining the existence, magnitude and longevity of these risks and their results. In recent years, values of certain interest rates have been volatile, and volatility in those and other interest rates may be expected in the future. However, past experience is not necessarily indicative of what may occur in the future.

Your Return Will be Limited

You should understand that because the Notes are subject to a Maximum Interest Rate, as defined above, the rate of interest that will accrue on the Notes during any Interest Reset Period will never exceed 5.0% per annum.
