Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

As described in Item 5.07 below, at the 2019 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the “Annual Meeting”) of Kaman Corporation (the “Company”), the Company’s shareholders approved amendments to the Company’s Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (as in effect prior to the amendment, the “Initial Restated Certificate”, and as amended, the “Amended Restated Certificate”) to (i) eliminate the supermajority voting provisions set forth therein, (ii) provide for the election of Directors by majority vote, and (iii) declassify the Board of Directors (the “Board”). Such amendments were set forth in a Certificate of Amendment to the Initial Restated Certificate (the “Certificate of Amendment”), which was filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Connecticut and became effective on April 17, 2019.

In addition, at the Board’s meeting held on April 17, 2019, the Board approved certain conforming amendments to the Amended and Restated Bylaws (as in effect prior to the amendment, the “Initial Restated Bylaws”, and as amended, the “Amended Restated Bylaws”) of the Company. The Amended Restated Bylaws became effective as of April 17, 2019.

Elimination of Supermajority Voting Provisions

Prior to the amendments, the Initial Restated Certificate provided for certain amendments to the Initial Restated Certificate or the Initial Restated Bylaws to be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of 66 2/3% of all capital stock of the Company which by its terms may be voted on all matters submitted to shareholders of the Company generally, voting together as a single class at a duly called meeting of the shareholders of the Company. In addition, for corporations, like the Company, which were incorporated under the laws of the State of Connecticut prior to January 1, 1997, Connecticut law provides that certain corporate actions be approved by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the voting power of each voting group entitled to vote thereon, absent a modification to such requirement in a company’s certificate of incorporation. Upon its effectiveness, the Amended Restated Certificate provides that (i) those certain amendments to the Amended Restated Certificate or the Amended Restated Bylaws be instead approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of all capital stock of the Company which by its terms may be voted on all matters submitted to shareholders of the Company generally, voting together as a single class at a duly called meeting of the shareholders of the Company, and (ii) such corporate transactions be instead approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter.

Election of Directors by Majority Vote

Connecticut law provides that the members of the Board be elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present, absent a modification to such requirement in a company’s certificate of incorporation. Upon their effectiveness, the Amended Restated Certificate and the Amended Restated Bylaws provide that in uncontested director elections, where the number of director nominees does not exceed the number of directors to be elected, each director nominee must receive a majority of votes cast.

Declassification of the Board

Prior to the amendments, the Initial Restated Certificate and Initial Restated Bylaws provided for a classified Board of Directors, with three classes of directors each elected to serve staggered three year terms. Upon their effectiveness, the Amended Restated Certificate and the Amended Restated Bylaws provide that directors elected at the 2020 Annual Meeting and thereafter will be elected to one-year terms. The declassification of the Board will be phased in so that it will not affect the unexpired term of any director elected prior to the 2020 Annual Meeting. Therefore, the directors elected at the 2019 Annual Meeting, as described in Item 5.07 below, were elected to three-year terms, expiring at the 2022 Annual Meeting. The terms of the directors elected at the 2018 Annual Meeting will expire at the 2021 Annual Meeting, and the terms of the directors elected at the 2017 Annual Meeting will expire at the 2020 Annual Meeting. From and after the 2020 Annual Meeting, all directors will stand for election annually. Any director first elected by the Board as a result of a newly created directorship or to fill a vacancy on the Board of Directors will hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders.

The foregoing description is qualified in its entirety by the Certificate of Amendment and the Amended Restated Bylaws, copies of which are filed as Exhibits 3.1 and 3.2, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference.
