Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

Invesco Ltd. ("Invesco") today announced that Jerome P. Kenney has resigned his position as a director, effective December 10, 2008. Mr. Kenney joined the company's Board in January 2008 upon his retirement from Merrill Lynch & Co. Recently, at the request of Merrill Lynch, Mr. Kenney became an adviser to Blackrock, Inc., its 49.9% owned affiliate and a competitor of Invesco. Mr. Kenney and the company mutually agreed that in the circumstances it would be best for Mr. Kenney to resign his Invesco Board seat due to the potential conflicts of interest that may arise from his maintaining both such roles.

On December 11, 2008, the Board appointed Ben F. Johnson III as a new director. Mr. Johnson is currently a partner at Alston & Bird LLP and served as the firm's managing partner from 1997 to 2008. He has practiced law at the firm since 1971 and was named a partner in 1976. Mr. Johnson received his B.A. degree from Emory University and his J.D. degree from Harvard Law School. Mr. Johnson's term will commence immediately following his retirement from Alston & Bird, which is expected to occur on December 31, 2008. Invesco expects that upon commencing to serve as a director, Mr. Johnson will be appointed to the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee and the Nomination and Corporate Governance Committee. Mr. Johnson will be paid in accordance with the company's Compensation Arrangements for Members of the Board of Directors, a copy of which may be found in the company's most recent annual proxy statement. During 2008, Alston & Bird has provided legal services to the company in the approximate amount of $3.6 million.

A copy of the press release issued by the company in connection with the above is attached to this report as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
