On April 13, 2007, Lawson Products, Inc. (the Company) announced that the Company's Board named Dr. Ronald B. Port as Non-Executive Chairman effective April 13, 2007 to replace Robert J. Washlow, the Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board. Mr. Washlow is the son-in-law of Lawson's founder and director Sidney L. Port. Dr. Port, 66, has been a member of the Lawson Board since 1984 and is the son of Sidney L. Port. The Lawson Board also elected James S. Errant, 58, former son-in-law of Sidney L. Port, to replace Mr. Washlow on the Board. Thomas Neri, Lawson's President and Chief Operating Officer, was elected to serve as Chief Executive Officer effective April 13, 2007. Mr. Neri, age 55, has been President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company since January 5, 2007. Mr. Neri was elected Executive Vice President, Finance, Planning and Corporate Development, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of the Company in 2004. He also served as Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer from 2004 to January 2006. Prior thereto, Mr. Neri was a business consultant from 2000 to 2003. From 1993 to 2000, Mr. Neri was President and Publisher of Pioneer Newspapers, Inc., a subsidiary of Hollinger International, a publicly held international publishing company. A copy of the press release announcing these events is set forth as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K.

In connection with his departure, on April 13, 2007, the Company and Mr. Washlow entered into a Separation Agreement and General Release (the Separation Agreement). The following description of the Separation Agreement is a summary of the material terms of the agreement and does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the agreement, a copy of which is attached to this Form 8-K as Exhibit 10.1, which is incorporated herein by reference. The Separation Agreement was negotiated and approved by the independent and disinterested members of the Board of Directors. Mr. Washlow's termination was deemed to be for Good Reason (as defined in Mr. Washlow's employment agreement), and Mr. Washlow agreed to release the Company from all claims related to his employment, including claims under his employment agreement. The Company agreed to pay Mr. Washlow two times his base salary of $650,000 and most recent bonus of $208,000, or $1,716,000 in total, in addition to paying his base salary through May 15, 2007 and providing him with four weeks of accrued vacation pay. Mr. Washlow retained the right to exercise 28,000 vested Stock Performance Rights for 1 year and to continue for five years insurance coverage under the Company's group insurance plans. The Company also agreed to assign to Mr. Washlow a key man term life insurance policy, which has a face value of $5 million, and for which he is responsible for future premium payments. Mr. Washlow is entitled to the distribution of his vested account balance under the Company's 2004 Executive Deferral Plan, calculated on the last day of the 6-month period following his separation. Under the Company's Long-Term Capital Accumulation Plan (LTIP), Mr. Washlow had 301 Shareholder Value Appreciation Rights that vested upon his separation and which were valued at $417,000 as of April 13, 2007. In the event of a sale of the Company on or prior to December 31, 2008, Mr. Washlow is entitled to the difference in the amount he would have been paid under the LTIP had he remained an active employee of the Company and the $417,000 he will receive due to his termination,
