Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers

On November 1, 2010, the Board of Directors of ACL Semiconductors, Inc. (the Company) decided that it would be in the Company's best interests to move towards establishing a Board comprised of a majority of independent directors and therefore at this time, only nominate three of its current directors to stand for re-election at the 2010 shareholders meeting on November 22, 2010. Ming Yan Leung and Wun Kin Fong, two of the directors that were appointed on June 11, 2010 will not be standing for re-election at the Company's annual meeting of stockholders. Mr. Leung and Mr. Fong's decision not to stand for re-election are not as a result of any disagreement with the Company on any matter relating to the Company's operations, policies or practices.

If the Company nominated all five of its executive directors for re-election at this time, the Board would have to add at least six additional independent directors to achieve an independent board. Therefore, the number of directors nominated at this time was reduced to three candidates.
