February 19, 2007

Dear Fellow Employee,

This afternoon we announced that we will be acquiring Florida Rock, one of the nation's leading producers of construction aggregates, cement, concrete and concrete products in the Southeast and Mid-Atlantic states.

The acquisition of Florida Rock will significantly enhance Vulcan Materials' strategic position and long-term growth opportunities by broadening our regional exposure and giving us a significant presence in the fast-growing Florida market. In addition to strengthening our business overall, this transaction is about growth, and we believe there will be enhanced long-term opportunities for employees as part of a stronger, more geographically diversified organization.

Florida Rock is an ideal, natural business fit; the two companies have highly compatible cultures, similar management philosophies, and a commitment to operational excellence. We look forward to operating two very complementary businesses as a combined company.

While the Florida Rock acquisition is still subject to customary regulatory and shareholder approvals, we expect the transaction to close in mid-year 2007. Until then, Florida Rock and Vulcan Materials remain independent companies. One of the most important things we can all do at this time of transition is to stay focused on our jobs and continue to serve our customers well.

I will host an audio webcast for employees tomorrow, February 20, at 9:30 a.m. CST to talk more about this exciting combination. Please feel free to listen via the web, or if you don't have web access, you may dial into a toll-free number. The webcast can be accessed at the Vulcan intranet, <http://vnet>, and a replay of the webcast will then be available on our intranet. Alternatively, the dial-in number from within the U.S. is 866-770-7129 and from outside the U.S. is 617-213-8067; the passcode is 40262668.

The acquisition of Florida Rock represents an important milestone for Vulcan Materials, our employees, our shareholders, and our customers. I want to thank you for your continued dedication and commitment - your hard work in building Vulcan Materials has made this exciting growth opportunity possible.
