Update

Apache filed the S-4 registration statement related to the merger with Mariner Energy on May 19, 2010. In response to unsubstantiated reports, Apache Corporation (NYSE, Nasdaq: APA) stated that it intends and is committed to completing the merger during the third quarter of 2010, subject to the approval and adoption of the merger agreement by Mariner stockholders, governmental and regulatory approvals and other usual and customary closing conditions. On May 3, 2010, the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Justice Department and the Federal Trade Commission granted early termination of the statutory waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act.

Forward-Looking Statements

Statements in this document include forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The opinions, forecasts, projections, future plans or other statements other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements. We can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to have been correct. Actual results could differ materially as a result of a variety of risks and uncertainties, including: the timing to consummate the proposed agreement; the risk that a condition to closing of the proposed agreement may not be satisfied; the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for the proposed agreement is not obtained or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated; negative effects from the pendency of the merger; our ability to achieve the synergies and value creation contemplated by the proposed agreement; our ability to promptly and effectively integrate the merged businesses; and the diversion of management time on agreement-related issues. Other factors that could materially affect actual results are discussed in Apache's and Mariner's most recent Forms 10-K as well as each company's other filings with the SEC available at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. Actual results may differ materially from those expected, estimated or projected. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and we undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any of them in light of new information, future events or otherwise.
