Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

6 7/8% Senior Notes due 2018

On October 27, 2010, Regency Energy Partners LP (the Partnership) and its wholly owned subsidiary, Regency Energy Finance Corp. (Regency Finance) and, together with the Partnership, the Regency Entities), completed the public offering (the Offering) of $600,000,000 aggregate principal amount to their 6 7/8% Senior Notes due 2018 (the Notes). The Regency Entities expect to receive net proceeds of approximately $588.6 million from the Offering, after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and estimated offering expenses, and intend to use a portion of the net proceeds to fund their tender offer for up to $357.5 million of their outstanding 8% Senior Notes due 2013 (the 2013 Notes) that was launched on October 13, 2010 (the Tender Offer). The remaining net proceeds from the Offering will be used to reduce outstanding borrowings under the Partnership's revolving credit facility and to pay fees and expenses related to the Tender Offer.

The terms of the Notes are governed by an Indenture dated October 27, 2010 (the Original Indenture), as supplemented by the First Supplemental Indenture dated October 27, 2010 (the First Supplemental Indenture) and, together with the Original Indenture, the Indenture), among the Regency Entities, the guarantors party thereto and U.S. Bank National Association, as trustee (the Trustee). Interest on the Notes is payable semi-annually on June 1 and December 1 of each year, commencing June 1, 2011, and the Notes will mature on December 1, 2018.

The Notes are senior obligations of the Regency Entities and are guaranteed on a senior basis by all of the Partnership's restricted subsidiaries (except Regency Finance). The Notes and guarantees are unsecured and rank equally with all of the Regency Entities' and each guarantor's existing and future unsubordinated obligations, including the Regency Entities' existing notes. The Notes are senior in right of payment to any of the Regency Entities' and each guarantor's future obligations that are, by their terms, expressly subordinated in right of payment to the Notes and guarantees. The Notes and guarantees are effectively subordinated to the Regency Entities' and each guarantor's secured obligations, including the Partnership's revolving credit facility, to the extent of the value of the collateral securing such obligations, and structurally subordinated to all indebtedness and obligations of the Partnership's subsidiaries that do not guarantee the Notes.

Prior to December 1, 2013, the Regency Entities may redeem up to 35% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes issued on October 27, 2010 using the net cash proceeds of certain qualified equity offerings at a redemption price equal to 106.875% of the principal amount of the Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date; provided that (i) at least 65% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes remains outstanding immediately after the occurrence of the redemption and (ii) the redemption occurs within 90 days of the date of the closing of any qualified equity offering. Beginning on December 1 of the years indicated below, the Regency Entities may redeem all or part of the Notes at the redemption prices (expressed as percentages of the principal amount) set forth below plus accrued but unpaid interest to, but excluding, the applicable redemption date:

2014 at 103.438%

2015 at 101.719%

2016 and thereafter at 100.000%

Upon the occurrence of a change of control event, which is followed by a rating decline within 90 days after the consummation of the transaction, the Regency Entities may be required to offer to purchase the Notes at a purchase price equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount of the Notes repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date. Additionally, if the Partnership sells certain assets and does not apply the proceeds from the sale or event in a certain manner, the Regency Entities must use certain excess proceeds to offer to repurchase the Notes at 100% of the principal amount of the Notes, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the repurchase date.

The Indenture contains customary events of default (each an Event of Default). Under the Indenture, Events of Default include the following:

- (1) default for 30 days in the payment when due of interest on the Notes;

(2) default in the payment when due (at maturity, upon redemption or otherwise) of the principal of, or premium, if any, on the Notes;

(3) failure by the Partnership or any guarantor to comply with their obligations to make or consummate a change of control offer or asset sale offer or to comply with any of their agreements or covenants relating to merger, consolidation or sale of assets;

(4) failure by the Partnership for 90 days after notice to comply with its obligations to furnish the holders of Notes and the Trustee certain reports;

(5) failure by the Partnership or any guarantor to comply with their other covenants or agreements in the Indenture for 60 days after written notice;

(6) default under any mortgage, indenture or instrument under which there may be issued or by which there may be secured or evidenced any indebtedness for money borrowed by the Partnership or any of its restricted subsidiaries (or the payment of which is guaranteed by the Partnership or any of its restricted subsidiaries) whether the indebtedness or guarantee now exists, or is created after the issue date of the Notes, if that default both (A) is caused by a failure to pay principal of, or interest or premium, if any, on the indebtedness prior to the expiration of the grace period provided in the indebtedness on the date of the default (a Payment Default ) and (B) results in the acceleration of the indebtedness prior to its express maturity, and, in each case, the principal amount of any of the indebtedness, together with the principal amount of any other indebtedness under which there has been a Payment Default or the maturity of which has been so accelerated, aggregates $20.0 million or more, subject to certain exceptions;

(7) failure by the Regency Entities or the Partnership's restricted subsidiaries to pay final judgments aggregating in excess of $20.0 million, which judgments are not paid, discharged or stayed for a period of 60 days;

(8) any guarantee is held in any judicial proceeding to be unenforceable or invalid or ceases for any reason to be in full force and effect, or any guarantor denies or disaffirms its obligations under its guarantee; and

(9) certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization of the Regency Entities or any of the Partnership's significant subsidiaries or any group of the Partnership's restricted subsidiaries that, taken together, would constitute a significant subsidiary.

If an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes may declare all the Notes to be due and payable. Upon such a declaration, such principal and accrued and unpaid interest on all of the Notes will be due and payable immediately. If an Event of Default relating to certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization with respect to the Regency Entities or any of the Partnership's significant subsidiaries or any group of the Partnership's restricted subsidiaries that, taken together, would constitute a significant subsidiary, occurs and is continuing, all outstanding Notes will become due and payable immediately without further action or notice on the part of the Trustee or any holders of the Notes. Under certain circumstances, the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Notes may rescind any such acceleration with respect to the Notes and its consequences.

The foregoing description of the Indenture does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Original Indenture and the Supplemental Indenture, copies of which are filed herewith as Exhibit 4.1 and Exhibit 4.2, respectively, and incorporated by reference herein.

On October 27, 2010, the Regency Entities accepted for purchase approximately $271,116,000 of the 2013 Notes pursuant to the Tender Offer. The Regency Entities also completed a consent solicitation pursuant to which tendering holders consented to proposed amendments to the indenture relating to the 2013 Notes (the "2013 Notes Indenture") to eliminate substantially all of the restrictive covenants contained in the 2013 Notes Indenture and certain events of default. The Regency Entities and the guarantors entered into a supplemental indenture (the "2013 Notes Supplemental Indenture") with the trustee for the 2013 Notes to implement these changes, which became effective on October 27, 2010, upon the Regency Entities' acceptance of the tendered 2013 Notes. The consent solicitation received approval from approximately 75.84% of the outstanding principal amount of the 2013 Notes.

The Tender Offer will expire at 8:00 a.m., New York City time, on November 10, 2010. The Regency Entities currently anticipate that they will call for redemption any 2013 Notes not purchased in the Tender Offer and will satisfy and discharge the 2013 Notes Indenture in compliance with the terms of the 2013 Notes, the 2013 Notes Indenture and applicable law; provided, however, that the Regency Entities may elect not to redeem such 2013 Notes or satisfy and discharge the 2013 Notes Indenture.
