Section 3 Securities and Trading Markets

Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

In a Form 8K filed by us on December 20, 2004, we reported that we received a notice from the NASDAQ Stock Market that Entrx Corporation's common stock was no longer eligible to be listed on the NASDAQ Small Cap Market because the bid price of its common stock fell below $1.00 per share for 30 consecutive days prior to June 14, 2004, and did not exceed that price for 180 days thereafter. The Company appealed that determination, but such appeal has not yet been heard. On January 6, 2005, the NASDAQ stated that it was adding as reasons for such delisting a concern about the ability of a principal shareholder of Entrx Corporation to influence the operations and activities of Entrx Corporation. The shareholder in question had entered into an agreement with the NASD in 2001, resulting from his refusal to cooperate with the NASD in connection with an NASD investigation. Under this agreement the shareholder was barred from any future association with an NASD member. NASDAQ also alleges that we failed to provide it with information relating to that shareholder's bar. The information requested was not available to us. In adding these additional reasons, NASDAQ cited NASDAQ Marketplace Rules 4300 and 4330(a)(3), which gives it discretionary authority to deny continued listing of a security in order to maintain the quality of, and the public's confidence in, the NASDAQ Stock Market.

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized.
