PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 11-K, 20-F, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously announced, SunTrust Banks, Inc. (the "Company") is in the process of preparing restatements to its financial statements for the first two quarters of 2004, and the Company has delayed its release of third quarter 2004 financial results. The Company has not completed the process of preparing the restated interim financial statements or its interim financial statements for the third quarter of 2004. As a result, the Company was unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to finalize its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2004 (the "Form 10-Q") by the November 9, 2004 filing deadline. The Company will file the Form 10-Q no later than the fifth calendar day following the filing deadline.

The information provided herein may contain forward looking statements. Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about the Company's beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements. These statements are based on beliefs and assumptions by the Company's management, and on information currently available to such management. The forward-looking statements are intended to be subject to the safe harbor protection provided by Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Forward-looking statements include statements preceded by, followed by or that include the words "intends," "believes," and "expects," or similar expressions or future conditional verbs such as "may" or "will." Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly any of them in light of new information or future events. Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties. Management cautions that a number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Examples of such factors include, but are not limited to, the Company's ability to timely finalize its interim financial statements for the quarter ended September 30, 2004, as anticipated.
