DIRECTOR NOMINATIONS BY STOCKHOLDERS

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Board of Directors will consider stockholder recommendations for directors sent to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, c/o General Counsel and Secretary, Wabash National Corporation, 1000 Sagamore Parkway, South, Lafayette, Indiana 47905. Stockholder recommendations for director should include (i) the name and address of the stockholder recommending the person to be nominated, (ii) a representation that the stockholder is a holder of record of stock of the Corporation including the number of shares held and the period of holding, (iii) a description of all arrangements or understandings between the stockholder and the recommended nominee, (iv) such other information regarding the recommended nominee as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to Regulation 14A promulgated by the SEC pursuant to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended and (v) the consent of the recommended nominee to serve as the director of the Corporation if so elected. To submit a recommendation for a director for an upcoming annual stockholder meeting, it is necessary that you notify the Corporation not less than 120 days or more than 180 days before the first anniversary of the date that the proxy statement for the preceding year's annual meeting was first sent to stockholder. In addition, the notice must meet all other requirements contained in our bylaws, if any. Upon receipt by the General Counsel and Secretary of a stockholder notice of a Director nomination, the Corporate Secretary will notify the stockholder that the notice has been received and will be presented to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee for their review. Stockholders' nominees that comply with these procedures will receive the same consideration as other candidates identified to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Corporation's directors, executive officers and 10% stockholders to file reports of ownership of equity securities of the Corporation. To the Corporation's knowledge, based solely on review of the copies of such reports furnished to the Corporation related to the year ended December 31, 2003, all such reports were made on a timely basis, except for one Form 4 for Chris Black reporting one transaction, which was not filed due to an oversight. For the year ended December 31, 2002, due to clerical errors at the Corporation, each of William Greubel, Richard Giromini and Chris Black failed to timely file one Form 4 reporting one transaction each.

EMPLOYMENT AND SEVERANCE AGREEMENTS

In April 2002, the Corporation entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Greubel to serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation effective April 12, 2002 through March 31, 2005. The term of Mr. Greubel's employment automatically renews for successive one-year periods unless and until either party provides written notice, not less than 60 days prior to the end of the then current term, of their intent not to renew the agreement. The agreement requires the Corporation to use its commercially reasonable efforts while Mr. Greubel is serving as the Chief Executive Officer to cause him to be nominated for election to the Board of Directors. Pursuant to this agreement, Mr. Greubel's initial salary was set at $600,000 per year, subject to annual adjustment in connection with annual performance reviews and discussions between Mr. Greubel and the Corporation. Mr. Greubel is also eligible for an annual bonus targeted at 50% of his base salary and which may range from 0% to 100% of that year's base salary. This agreement provided that his bonus for 2002 would be at least $200,000. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, the Board of Directors granted Mr. Greubel an option to purchase 250,000 shares of our common stock at an exercise price of $10.01 per share. One-third of these options vested on the first anniversary of Mr. Greubel's employment and on each of the next two anniversaries thereafter, an additional one-third of these options will vest.

In the event that the Corporation terminates Mr. Greubel's employment without cause, or it is terminated by Mr. Greubel as a result of a material diminishment of his position, duties or responsibilities, the assignment by the Corporation to Mr. Greubel of substantial additional duties or responsibilities which are inconsistent with the duties or responsibilities then being carried out by him and which are not duties of an executive nature, a material breach of this agreement by the Corporation, which is not corrected within twenty (20) business days of the receipt of a written notice specifying the breach, material fraud on the part of the Corporation, or the discontinuance of the active operation of business of the Corporation or its insolvency or bankruptcy, the Corporation will pay to him the sum of three times his then current base salary if the termination is prior to or on March 31, 2003 and two times his salary if after March 31, 2003. In addition, all unvested options then held by Mr. Greubel shall become vested. If the Corporation terminates Mr. Greubel's employment without cause, upon the attainment of corporate objectives, he is entitled to receive a pro-rata portion of his bonus for the year in which he is terminated. Mr. Greubel has agreed not to compete with the Corporation during the term of his agreement and for a period of two years after termination for any reason.

In June 2002, the Corporation entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Holden to serve as Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation effective June 14, 2002 through June 14, 2003. The term of Mr. Holden's employment automatically renews for successive one-year periods unless and until either party provides written notice, not less than 60 days prior to the end of the then current term, of their intent not to renew the agreement. Pursuant to this agreement, Mr. Holden's initial salary was set at $350,000 per year, subject to annual adjustment in connection with annual performance reviews and discussions between Mr. Holden and the Corporation. Mr. Holden is also eligible for an annual bonus targeted at 50% of his base salary and which may range from 0% to 100% of that year's base salary. This agreement provided that his bonus for 2002 would be at least $150,000. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, the Board of Directors granted Mr. Holden an option to purchase 125,000 shares of the Corporation's common stock at an exercise price of $7.79 per share. Two-thirds of these options will vest on the second anniversary of Mr. Holden's execution of his employment agreement and on the next anniversary thereafter the remaining one-third of these options will vest.

In the event that the Corporation terminates Mr. Holden's employment without cause, or it is terminated by Mr. Holden as a result of a material diminishment of his position, duties or responsibilities, the assignment by the Corporation to Mr. Holden of substantial additional duties or responsibilities which are inconsistent with the duties or responsibilities then being carried out by him and which are not duties of an executive nature, a material breach of this agreement by the Corporation, which is not corrected within twenty (20) business days of the receipt of a written notice specifying the breach, material fraud on the part of the Corporation, or the discontinuance of the active operation of business of the Corporation or its insolvency or bankruptcy, the Corporation will pay to him the sum of two times his then current base salary. In addition, all unvested options then held by Mr. Holden shall become vested. If the Corporation terminates Mr. Holden's employment without cause, upon the attainment of corporate objectives, he is entitled to receive a pro-rata portion of his bonus for the year in which he is terminated.

Mr. Holden has agreed not to compete with the Corporation during the term of his agreement and for a period of two years after termination for any reason.

In June 2002, the Corporation also entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Giromini to serve as Chief Operating Officer of the Corporation effective July 15, 2002 through July 15, 2003. The term of Mr. Giromini's employment automatically renews for successive one-year periods unless and until either party provides written notice, not less than 60 days prior to the end of the then current term, of their intent not to renew the agreement. Pursuant to this agreement, Mr. Giromini's initial salary was set at $325,000 per year, subject to annual adjustment in connection with annual performance reviews and discussions between Mr. Giromini and the Corporation. Mr. Giromini is also eligible for an annual bonus targeted at 50% of his base salary and which may range from 0% to 100% of that year's base salary. This agreement provided that his bonus for 2002 would be at least $150,000. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, the Board of Directors granted Mr. Giromini an option to purchase 125,000 shares of the Corporation's common stock at an exercise price of $8.65 per share. Two-thirds of these options will vest on the second anniversary of Mr. Giromini's employment and on the next anniversary thereafter, the remaining one-third of these options will vest.

In the event that the Corporation terminates Mr. Giromini's employment without cause, or it is terminated by Mr. Giromini as a result of a material diminishment of his position, duties or responsibilities, the assignment by the Corporation to Mr. Giromini of substantial additional duties or responsibilities which are inconsistent with the duties or responsibilities then being carried out by him and which are not duties of an executive nature, a material breach of this agreement by the Corporation, which is not corrected within twenty (20) business days of the receipt of a written notice specifying the breach, material fraud on the part of the Corporation, or the discontinuance of the active operation of business of the Corporation or its insolvency or bankruptcy, the Corporation will pay to him the sum of two times his then current base salary. In addition, all unvested options then held by Mr. Giromini shall become vested. If the Corporation terminates Mr. Giromini's employment without cause, upon the attainment of corporate objectives, he is entitled to receive a pro-rata portion of his bonus for the year in which he is terminated. Mr. Giromini has agreed not to compete with the Corporation during the term of his agreement and for a period of two years after termination for any reason.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors in 2003 consisted of Messrs. Hackett, Koci, Burdakin and Jischke. None of these individuals is currently, or was during 2003, an officer or employee of the Corporation. In addition, none of these individuals serves as a member of the Board of Directors or on the compensation committee of any corporation that has an executive officer serving on the Board of Directors of the Corporation or its Compensation Committee.

(2) Based solely on a Schedule 13G filed December 10, 2003 and a Schedule 13G/A filed February 17, 2004. FMR Corp. has sole voting power with respect to 572,900 shares of common stock, or 2.12% of the Corporation's common stock. Fidelity Management & Research Company ("Fidelity"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of FMR Corp. and an investment adviser registered under Section 203 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, is the beneficial owner of 3,319,397 shares or 12.25% of the common stock outstanding of the Corporation as a result of acting as investment adviser to various investment companies registered under Section 8 of the Investment Company Act of 1940. The ownership of one investment company, Fidelity Small Cap Stock Fund, amounted to 1,478,500 shares or 5.46% of the outstanding common stock of the Corporation.

Edward C. Johnson 3d, Chairman of FMR Corp., FMR Corp., through its control of Fidelity, and the funds each has sole power to dispose of the 3,319,397 shares owned by the Funds. Neither FMR Corp. nor Edward C. Johnson 3d, has the sole power to vote or direct the voting of the shares owned directly by the Fidelity Funds, which power resides with the Funds' Boards of Trustees. Fidelity carries out the voting of the shares under written guidelines established by the Funds' Boards of Trustees.

Fidelity Management Trust Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of FMR Corp. and a bank as defined in Section 3(a)(6) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, is the beneficial owner of 465,100 shares or 1.72% of the common stock outstanding of the Corporation as a result of its serving as investment manager of the institutional account(s). Edward C. Johnson 3d and FMR Corp., through its control of Fidelity Management Trust Company, each has sole dispositive power over the 465,100 shares and sole power to vote or to direct the voting of the 465,100 shares of common stock.

Edgar Filing: WABASH NATIONAL CORP /DE - Form 10-K/A

Members of the Edward C. Johnson 3d family are the predominant owners of Class B shares of common stock of FMR Corp., representing approximately 49% of the voting power of FMR Corp. Mr. Johnson 3d owns 12.0% and Abigail Johnson owns 24.5% of the aggregate outstanding voting stock of FMR Corp. Mr. Johnson 3d is Chairman of FMR Corp. and Abigail P. Johnson is a Director of FMR Corp. The Johnson family group and all other Class B shareholders have entered into a shareholders' voting agreement under which all Class B shares will be voted in accordance with the majority vote of Class B shares. Accordingly, through their ownership of voting common stock and the execution of the shareholders' voting agreement, members of the Johnson family may be deemed, under the Investment Company Act of 1940, to form a controlling group with respect to FMR Corp.

EQUITY COMPENSATION PLAN INFORMATION

The following table provides information regarding the Corporation's equity compensation plans as of December 31, 2003.

Edgar Filing: WABASH NATIONAL CORP /DE - Form 10-K/A

Plan Category	Number of securities to be issued upon exercise of outstanding options, warrants and rights	Weighted average exercise price of outstanding options, warrants and rights
	(A)	(B)
Equity Compensation plans approved by security holders .....	589,850 (1)	$18.38
Equity Compensation plans not approved by security holders .....	1,269,485 (2)	$ 8.75
Total.....	1,859,335	$11.81

(1) Consists of shares of common stock to be issued upon exercise of outstanding options granted under the Wabash National Corporation Amended 1992 Stock Option Plan, and shares of common stock to be issued upon exercise of outstanding options granted under the Wabash National Corporation 1992 Directors Stock Option Plan and shares of common stock to be issued under the Wabash National Corporation Directors and Executives Deferred Compensation Plan. The number of shares that may be granted under the Wabash National Corporation Directors and Executives Deferred Compensation Plan is based on compensation deferral by directors and executives.

(2) Consists of shares of common stock to be issued upon exercise of outstanding options granted under the Wabash National Corporation 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, shares of common stock to be issued under the Wabash National Corporation Stock Bonus Plan, shares of common stock to be issued under the Wabash National Corporation Employee Stock Purchase Plan and inducement options that were granted outside of any formal corporate plan.

2000 STOCK AND OPTION INCENTIVE PLAN

The Corporation's Board of Directors adopted the 2000 Stock and Option Incentive Plan effective November 2000. This plan provides for the grant of non-qualified stock options and restricted stock in order to attract, retain and compensate directors, highly qualified officers, key employees and other persons. There were 2,000,000 shares of stock originally authorized for issuance under the plan. The exercise price for each option granted is set by the Compensation Committee, but is required to be at least the aggregate fair market value of the shares subject to the option. The Compensation Committee sets the vesting schedule for each option granted and sets the restricted period for each grant of restricted stock. Upon a change in control of the Corporation, all outstanding shares subject to options vest and all restrictions and conditions applicable to shares subject to restricted stock lapse. The term of the plan is 10 years, unless earlier terminated by the Board of Directors.

EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN

The Corporation's Board of Directors adopted the Employee Stock Purchase Plan effective June 1993. This plan provides for the purchase of the Corporation's common stock by certain employees in order to increase the employee's interest in the Corporation's growth and success and to retain the employee's services. The employee purchases the stock by electing to have deducted from his or her payroll a whole percentage amount of at least two percent and no more than 15 percent of the employee's daily compensation. There were 200,000 shares of common stock originally authorized for issuance under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan. The purchase price for each share of common stock is the fair market value of the common stock on the last day of the applicable period. The Board of Directors may terminate this plan at any time.

Edgar Filing: WABASH NATIONAL CORP /DE - Form 10-K/A

STOCK BONUS PLAN

The Corporation's Board of Directors adopted the Stock Bonus Plan effective January 1, 1997. This plan provides that stock may be awarded as supplementary compensation as an incentive and reward to eligible long service employees who, through industry, ability and exceptional service, contribute materially to the success of the Corporation. There were 500,000 shares of stock originally authorized for issuance under the Stock Bonus Plan. The Board of Directors has the authority to determine, in its sole discretion, the amount of individual stock bonus awards. This plan may be amended, suspended or terminated by the Board of Directors at any time.

INDUCEMENT GRANTS

The Corporation has issued non-qualified stock options outside of any plan in connection with inducing certain individuals to start work for the Corporation. In the aggregate, the Corporation has issued options to purchase 385,000 shares of common stock to three individuals. The exercise price for each option granted was set by the Compensation Committee at the fair market value of the shares subject to that option. The Compensation Committee set vesting schedules that vest over three years. Upon a change in control of the Corporation, all outstanding shares subject to options vest. The term of each option is 10 years.

ITEM 13--CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

In July 2001, the Corporation entered into a three-year consulting and non-compete agreement with Donald J. Ehrlich, former President and Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation. At the time the agreement was executed, Mr. Ehrlich was a director of the Corporation. The agreement provides for Mr. Ehrlich to provide certain consulting services to the Corporation and precludes Mr. Ehrlich from engaging in defined activities that are deemed competitive to the interests of the Corporation. The agreement provides for payments to Mr. Ehrlich for consulting services rendered to the Corporation of $50,000 per month during the first year of the agreement term, $41,667 per month during the second year of the agreement term, and $33,333 per month during the third year of the agreement term. Mr. Ehrlich is the brother of Rodney Ehrlich, an executive officer of the Corporation.

In April 2002, the Corporation entered into an employment contract with William P. Greubel in connection with Mr. Greubel's employment as Chief Executive Officer and President of Wabash National Corporation beginning in May 2002, and in June 2002, the Corporation entered into an employment contract with Richard J. Giromini in connection with Mr. Giromini's employment as Chief Operating Officer of Wabash National Corporation beginning in July 2002. Mr. Greubel was formerly a Director and Chief Executive Officer of Accuride Corporation, a manufacturer and supplier of wheels for medium and heavy-duty trucks and trailers, and Mr. Giromini was formerly its Senior Vice President/Technology and Continuous Improvement. During 2003, the Corporation purchased certain products from Accuride Corporation for $13.7 million, and the Corporation expects to make additional purchases during 2004. All purchases made during 2003 were on an arm's-length basis, and the Corporation expects that future purchases will be made on an arm's-length basis.

Edgar Filing: WABASH NATIONAL CORP /DE - Form 10-K/A

In September 2002, the Corporation entered into a sixteen-month consulting and non-compete agreement with Charles Ehrlich, former Vice President of Operations of the Corporation. Mr. Charles Ehrlich is the brother of Donald J. Ehrlich, former President, Chief Executive Officer and Director, and the brother of Rodney Ehrlich. The agreement provides for Mr. Ehrlich to provide certain consulting services to the Corporation and precludes Mr. Ehrlich from engaging in defined activities that are deemed competitive to the interests of the Corporation. The agreement provides for payments to Mr. Ehrlich for consulting services rendered to the Corporation of $21,243 per month during the first four months of the agreement term, and $21,730 per month during the remaining twelve months of the agreement term. The Corporation has no remaining payment obligations pursuant to the agreement.

ITEM 14--PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICES

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING FEES AND SERVICES

The fees paid by the Corporation to Ernst & Young LLP for professional services for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 were as follows:

FEE CATEGORY	FISCAL 2003 FEES	FISCAL 2002 FEES
	(dollars in thousands)
Audit Fees	$ 858	$ 648
Audit-Related Fees	805	80
Tax Fees	273	210
All Other Fees	17	121
Total Fees	$ 1,953	$1,059

Audit Fees. Consist of fees billed for professional services rendered for the audit of the Corporation's consolidated financial statements, review of the interim consolidated financial statements included in quarterly reports and services provided by Ernst & Young in connection with the Corporation's convertible notes offering in 2003 and its registration statements.

Audit-Related Fees. Consists of fees billed for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of the Corporation's consolidated financial statements and are not reported under "Audit Fees." In 2003, these services include audits of benefit plans, audits, accounting consultation, consulting on internal controls and other audit-related services.

Tax Fees. Consists of fees billed for professional services for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning. In 2003, these services include assistance related to state tax filing and incentives reviews of corporation tax filings, consulting on net operating loss treatments, and review of tax audits.

All Other Fees. In 2003, these services include assistance related to expatriate tax liability for a single non-executive officer.

With the exception of $46,000 of tax fees, which constituted 2.4% of total Ernst & Young fees billed for 2003, for which pre-approval was waived pursuant to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, all Ernst & Young fees were pre-approved by the audit committee pursuant to the policy described below, or related to contracts existing on May 6, 2003.

Edgar Filing: WABASH NATIONAL CORP /DE - Form 10-K/A

POLICY ON AUDIT COMMITTEE PRE-APPROVAL OF AUDIT SERVICES AND PERMISSIBLE NON-AUDIT SERVICES OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Audit Committee's policy is to pre-approve all audit and permissible non-audit services performed by the independent public accountants. These services may include audit services, audit related services, tax services and other services. For audit services, the independent auditor provides an engagement letter in advance of the meeting of the Audit Committee that occurs in connection with the Corporation's Annual Meeting, outlining the scope of the audit and related audit fees. If agreed to by the Audit Committee, this engagement letter is formally accepted by the Audit Committee at the meeting.

For all services, the Corporation's senior management submits from time to time to the Audit Committee for approval services that it recommends the Audit Committee engage the independent auditor to provide for the fiscal year. In addition, the audit committee pre-approves specific non-audit services that the independent auditor can provide from time-to-time during the year. All fee proposals for those non-audit services must be approved in advance in writing by the requesting department head and by the Corporate Controller. Any fee proposal greater than $25,000 must also be approved in advance in writing by the Chief Financial Officer. Any fee proposal greater than $100,000 must also be approved in advance in writing by the Chairman of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee will be informed routinely as to the non-audit services actually provided by the independent auditor pursuant to this pre-approval process.
