Earnings per share before goodwill amortization of $0.22 was down significantly from the $0.92 registered in the third quarter of 2001. Similarly, earnings per share before goodwill amortization, for the nine months ended September 30, declined to $1.51 in 2002 compared to $3.25 in 2001.

Activity levels in Canada and the US have been negatively impacted by continued skepticism as to the sustainability of relatively high commodity prices, particularly natural gas. The strong cash flow being generated by our customers is being directed to strengthening balance sheets in the face of these uncertain times. In addition, wet weather conditions in many Canadian drilling regions in August and September hampered the movement of oilfield service equipment to wellsite locations.

We continue to invest in our international businesses to increase our geographic presence to enable us to rapidly deploy the new tools being introduced by our Technology Services Group. Certain international operations, such as South America, are being negatively impacted by regional political and economic conditions.

The 2001 comparative numbers have been restated to give effect to the retroactive application of the new Canadian accounting standard for foreign exchange gains and losses on translation of US dollar denominated long-term debt. This new standard, which is consistent with US practice, resulted in a decrease in earnings per share of $0.03 for each of the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2001.

The continued shift of the Corporation's revenue stream from domestic to international is illustrated in the following graphs.

Operating earnings is not a recognized measure under Canadian generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). Management believes that in addition to net earnings, operating earnings is a useful supplemental measure as it provides an indication of the results generated by the Corporation's principal business activities prior to consideration of how those activities are financed or how the results are taxed in various jurisdictions. Investors should be cautioned, however, that operating earnings should not be construed as an alternative to net earnings determined in accordance with GAAP as an indicator of Precision's performance. Precision's method of calculating operating earnings may differ from other companies and, accordingly, operating earnings may not be comparable to measures used by other companies.

The Contract Drilling Group revenue declined year over year by 36% and 25%, respectively, for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2002.

Consistent with overall industry activity, the utilization rate for our Canadian drilling rig fleet declined to 34% in the third quarter of 2002 compared to 47% in the same period in 2001. Reduced demand for drilling rigs has resulted in downward pressure on pricing. Average revenue per drilling day has declined by 14% in the third quarter of 2002 compared to the same period in 2001. Third quarter drilling activity in Canada was focused on shallow gas and heavy oil wells.

International drilling operations saw activity decline in the third quarter of 2002 versus 2001 primarily as a result of a reduction in the number of rigs working in Venezuela, where political and economic instability has reduced oilfield activity. This was partially offset by additional rigs working in Mexico.

The service rig operation was impacted by many of the same factors as the Canadian drilling operation. Activity levels, as measured by operating hours, declined by 27% year over year in the third quarter, however, average hourly rig rates increased by 3% over the same period.

The Technology Services Group experienced a marginal decline in revenue from $170.3 million in the third guarter of 2001 to $161.6 million in 2002. Revenue declines of 25% and 32% in Canada and the US, respectively, were offset by increases in all of the group's other operating regions, namely Latin America, Europe/Africa, the Middle East and Asia/Pacific.

Operating earnings declined by $20.4 million in the third quarter of 2002 compared to the same period of 2001. Declines in Canadian and US revenue and operating earnings are consistent with the slowdown in North American oilfield activity whilst increased international revenue resulted from continued efforts to globalize this group's operations. Compared to the second guarter of 2002 revenue increased $14.6 million and operating earnings improved by $8.1 million. These improvements demonstrate the operating leverage associated with this group's multiple product lines. Research and engineering expenditures increased by $1.8 million in the third quarter, year over year, as work to develop and roll out new suites of wireline and drilling tools is being accelerated. Growth of our international infrastructures has also resulted in increased costs year over year.

The Rental and Production Group saw revenue remain relatively consistent with the prior year at $64.6 million in the third quarter of 2002 compared to $61.0 million in 2001, however, the business mix within the segment has changed significantly. The industrial plant maintenance operation accounted for 63% of segment revenue in the three months ended September 30, 2002 compared to 54% in the same period of 2001. This increase is primarily the result of commissioning work performed at a new heavy oil upgrading plant and continued high levels of maintenance work at oilsands projects in Northern Alberta.

The gas compression packaging business has maintained revenue and margins in the face of stiff competition. The decline in the oilfield rental business was consistent with the overall slow down of oilfield activity in Canada.

During the quarter, the industrial plant maintenance business acquired a vacuum truck operation in Northern Alberta. The utilization of these assets will be enhanced by using them for plant maintenance work in addition to their continued operation in the oil and gas drilling and well servicing market.

CORPORATE AND OTHER EXPENSES

Corporate and other expenses of $5.7 million for the third quarter was down $0.9 million from the same period last year. For the nine month period ended September 30, 2002 corporate and other expenses have dropped from $21.5 million in 2001 to $20.9 million for 2002. General and administrative costs included in corporate and other expenses are comprised primarily of head office functions.

OTHER ITEMS

Interest expense for the three months ended September 30, 2002 was $8.7 million, a drop of $1.6 million or 15% from the same period last year. The decline was a result of the drop in the average net debt outstanding from $621.7 million for the third quarter in 2001 to $530.6 million in 2002. Interest rates were largely unchanged at 6.6%. Net debt is defined as long-term debt, including current portion, plus bank indebtedness less cash.

[GRAPHIC OMITTED - COMPANY LOGO]

The effective tax rate on earnings before income taxes, non-controlling interest and goodwill amortization for the third quarter was 21% down from 38% for the same quarter last year. The effective tax rate was impacted by losses taxed at higher rates in North America than earnings generated in lower tax jurisdictions.

Effective January 1, 2002 the Corporation adopted the new standard for accounting for goodwill and other intangible assets. Under the standard, goodwill is no longer amortized but tested for impairment at least annually. Accordingly, no goodwill amortization has been recorded in 2002. The Corporation has completed its initial assessment of the potential impairment of goodwill effective January 1, 2002 and has concluded that there is no indication of impairment. The annual test will be completed in the fourth quarter.

During the month of October, the Corporation issued 26,675 shares on exercise of stock options.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

The Corporation's balance sheet has continued to strengthen during 2002. The ratio of long-term debt to long-term debt plus equity declined from 0.26 at December 31, 2001 to 0.22 at September 30, 2002 and working capital has decreased from $215.9 million to $194.1 million over the same period. In addition, pretax income interest coverage amounted to 5.6 times and annualized funds from operations as a percentage of total debt was 36%. Total debt is defined as long-term debt including current portion plus bank indebtedness. These statistics are in line with the Corporation's objective of maintaining a BBB+ credit rating.

The Corporation had unused lines of credit of $225.7 million at the end of the third quarter and has made net repayments of long-term debt of $57.8 million during the first nine months of 2002. Cash flow from operations year to date in 2002 has exceeded investment activities by $10.6 million while proceeds from the exercise of share purchase options and increases in short-term bank indebtedness added $41.3 million to cash resources.

The Corporation's total debt at September 30, 2002 amounted to $574.6 million of which 62% was at fixed interest rates and 38% was at floating rates. Precision remains well within the financial covenants associated with its credit facilities.

OUTLOOK

All indications point to traditionally strong first quarter 2003 activity levels in Canada, however fourth quarter 2002 activity levels remain stagnant due to uncooperative weather and uncertainty with respect to near term commodity pricing. Precision continues to believe that the fundamentals of natural gas supply and demand in North America should generate a solid long-term business environment for our operations. We continue to maintain a positive outlook for international markets and our expansion efforts therein.

INTERIM REPORT TO SHAREHOLDERS 2002

[GRAPHIC OMITTED - COMPANY LOGO]

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (unaudited)
(Tabular amounts stated in thousands of dollars, except per share amounts)

NOTE 1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

These interim financial statements were prepared using accounting policies and methods of their application consistent with those used in the preparation of the Corporation's audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001, except for accounting policy changes outlined in Notes 3, 4 and 5. These interim financial statements conform in all respects to the requirements of generally accepted accounting principles in Canada for annual financial statements with the exception of certain note disclosures regarding balance sheet items and transactions occurring prior to the current reporting period. As a result, these interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Corporation's audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001 contained in the Corporation's 2001 annual report.

NOTE 2. SEASONALITY OF OPERATIONS

The majority of the Corporation's operations are carried on in Canada. The ability to move heavy equipment in the Canadian oil and natural gas fields is dependent on weather conditions. As warm weather returns in the spring, the winter's frost comes out of the ground rendering many secondary roads incapable of supporting the weight of heavy equipment until they have thoroughly dried out. The duration of this "spring breakup" has a direct impact on the Corporation's activity levels. In addition, many exploration and production areas in northern Canada are accessible only in winter months when the ground is frozen hard enough to support equipment. The timing of freeze up and spring breakup affects the ability to move equipment in and out of these areas. As a result, late March through May is traditionally our slowest time.

NOTE 3. ACCOUNTING FOR BUSINESS COMBINATIONS, GOODWILL AND OTHER INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Effective January 1, 2002, the Corporation adopted the new Canadian accounting standards relating to business combinations and goodwill and other intangible assets.

Under the new business combination standard, the Corporation is required to use the purchase method to account for all business combinations and identify, separate from goodwill, other intangible assets that arise from contractual or legal rights or that can be separately sold.

In September, the Corporation acquired the business assets of Night Hawk Vacuum Services Ltd. for $3.1 million. The net assets acquired were substantially property, plant and equipment. No value was assigned to intangibles or goodwill.

Under the new standard for accounting for goodwill, goodwill is no longer amortized, but is tested for impairment at least annually. As required, the Corporation has completed its initial assessment of the potential impairment of goodwill, effective January 1, 2002, and concluded that there is no indication of impairment. An assessment of potential goodwill impairment will be completed annually in the fourth quarter.

NOTE 4. FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSLATION

Effective January 1, 2002, the Corporation adopted, on a retroactive basis, a new Canadian accounting standard whereby unrealized gains or losses are no longer deferred and amortized but rather expensed as incurred.

As a result of this change, unrealized gains and losses related to translation of foreign currency denominated long-term debt are no longer deferred and amortized over the term of the debt but are expensed as incurred. Prior period results have been restated to reflect this change. The retroactive application of this standard has reduced the opening balance of retained earnings by $1.6 million at January 1, 2002 ($115,000 at January 1, 2001).

NOTE 5. STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION PLANS

Effective January 1, 2002, the Corporation has prospectively adopted the new accounting policies with respect to accounting for stock options. The Corporation's stock-based compensation plans for employees do not involve the direct award of stock, or call for the settlement in cash or other assets. As a result the Corporation has the option to apply either the intrinsic value based or the fair value based method of accounting for stock-based compensation awards granted to employees.

The Corporation has elected to apply the intrinsic value based method and accordingly, no compensation costs have been recognized in the financial statements. In accordance with the Corporation's stock option plans, these options have an exercise price equal to the market price at date of grant. The per share weighted average fair value of stock options granted during the nine month period ended

September 30, 2002 was $21.20 based on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions: average risk-free interest rate of 4.7%, average expected life of 3.9 years and expected volatility of 49%.

Had the Corporation determined compensation costs based on the fair value at the date of grant for stock options granted since January 1, 2002; net earnings and earnings per share (EPS) would have decreased to the pro forma amounts indicated below. These pro forma amounts reflect compensation cost amortized over the option's vesting period.
