PROXY STATEMENT

For Annual Meeting of Shareholders, June 21, 2006

The enclosed proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors (the Board or Board of Directors) of Fred S, Inc. (the Company or Fred S) to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on June 21, 2006, at 5:00 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time, at the Holiday Inn Express, 2192 S. Highway 441, Dublin, Georgia, or any adjournment thereof (the Annual Meeting). At the Annual Meeting, the presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority of the total number of shares of outstanding Class A common stock (Common Stock) will be necessary to constitute a quorum.

All shares represented by properly executed proxies will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated thereon unless such proxies previously have been revoked. If any proxies of holders of Common Stock do not contain voting instructions, the shares represented by such proxies will be voted FOR Proposals 1 and 2. The Board of Directors does not know of any business to be brought before the Annual Meeting, other than as indicated in the notice, but it is intended that, as to any other such business properly brought before the meeting, votes may be cast pursuant to the proxies in accordance with the judgment of the persons acting thereunder.

Any shareholder who executes and delivers a proxy may revoke it at any time prior to its use upon (a) receipt by the Secretary of the Company of written notice of such revocation; (b) receipt by the Secretary of the Company of a duly executed proxy bearing a later date; or (c) appearance by the shareholder at the meeting (with proper identification) and his request for the return of his proxy or his request for a ballot.

A copy of this Proxy Statement and the enclosed Proxy Card are first being sent to shareholders on or about May 26, 2006.

Voting Securities

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on April 28, 2006, will be entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. As of such date, the Company had outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting 39,910,449 shares of Common Stock. All references to shares and share prices reflect the stock split effected on July 1, 2003. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote for all matters before the Annual Meeting.

Votes cast by proxy or in person at the Annual Meeting will be tabulated by the election inspectors appointed for the meeting. A quorum must be present in order for the Annual Meeting to be held. In order for the quorum requirement to be satisfied, a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock entitled to vote at the meeting must be present in person or represented by proxy. The election inspectors will treat abstentions as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. If a broker indicates on the proxy that it does not have discretionary authority as to specified shares to vote on a particular matter, those shares will not be considered as present and entitled to vote with respect to that matter. The nominees for Director receiving a plurality of the votes cast at the Annual Meeting in person or by proxy will be elected. The election of the Company's Board of Directors and the designation of BDO Seidman, LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm will be approved if the votes cast favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action. Abstentions and broker non-votes have no effect on the vote for the election of Directors and the designation of BDO Seidman, LLP.

Your communication will be treated confidentially, subject to applicable laws, regulations or legal proceedings, if so marked on the envelope or in the communication.

Corporate Governance

The Board of Directors believes the Company has observed sound corporate governance practices in the past. However, following enactment of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the adoption of new rules and regulation by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Company, like many public companies, has addressed the changing governance environment by reviewing its policies and procedures and, where appropriate, adopting new practices. The matters are governed by the formal written charter of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee.

Table of Contents

The Company has a code of ethics that applies to all of its directors, officers (including its Chief Executive Officer, President, Chief Financial Officer, Chief Information Officer, Controller and any person performing similar functions) and employees.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors, which is comprised of John R. Eisenman, Chairman of the Committee, Roger T. Knox, Thomas H. Tashjian, B. Mary McNabb, and Gerald E. Thompson, met five times during the last fiscal year. Members Eisenman, Knox, and Tashjian attended all of the Committee meetings. Members McNabb and Thompson were added to the Committee in April 2005 and attended all meetings after that date. Each of the members of the Audit Committee is an independent director as defined in the NASDAQ listing standards. Audit Committee members are paid for their services $4,000 per year for Mr. Eisenman, Chairman and $2,400 per year for members Knox, Tashjian, McNabb and Thomson plus reasonable expenses for meeting attendance.

The Audit Committee is responsible for the engagement of the independent registered public accounting firm; considering the range of audit and non-audit fees; assisting the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by reviewing the financial reports and other financial information provided by the Company to any governmental body or the public; reviewing the Company's systems of internal controls regarding finance, accounting, legal compliance and ethics that management and the Board have established; and reviewing the Company's auditing, accounting, and financial reporting processes generally.

Audit Committee members have the requisite financial experience to serve on the Audit Committee. The management of the Company has the primary responsibility for the financial statements and reporting process. The independent registered public accounting firm is responsible for conducting and reporting on the audit of the Company's financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. The Company's independent registered public accounting firm is ultimately accountable to the Audit Committee. The Board of Directors has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee, which was attached as Appendix B to the Company's 2004 Proxy Statement. The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Tashjian meets the Commission's definition of audit committee financial expert.

Audit Committee Report

In the context of the role of the Audit Committee as outlined above, the Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements for 2005 with management of the Company. BDO Seidman, LLP, the Company's independent registered public auditing firm, is responsible for performing an independent audit of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. The Audit Committee also discussed with BDO Seidman, LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards (SAS) No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees as amended, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, and other matters required by the Audit Committee's charter. The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from BDO Seidman, LLP as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 Independence Discussions with Audit Committees and has discussed with BDO Seidman, LLP their independence, including consideration of whether the payment to BDO Seidman, LLP of audit related, tax, and permissible non-audit fees is compatible with maintaining their independence. Based upon its review and discussions with Company management and BDO Seidman, LLP, the Audit Committee has recommended to the Board of Directors that Fred's, Inc. audited financial statements for fiscal 2005 be included in the annual report on Form 10-K for 2005 filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and that BDO Seidman, LLP be considered for selection as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for 2006.

The members of the Audit Committee are not professionally engaged in the practice of accounting or auditing and, as such, rely without independent verification on the information provided to them and on the representations made by management and BDO Seidman, LLP. Nominating Committee

The Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors (the Nominating Committee), which met one time during the Company's latest fiscal year, recommends nominees for election to the Board by the shareholders at the annual meeting and makes recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding corporate governance matters and practices. The Nominating Committee is comprised of Thomas H. Tashjian, Chairman of the Committee, John R. Eisenman, Roger T. Knox, B. Mary McNabb, and Gerald E. Thompson all of whom meet the independence requirements of NASDAQ listing standards. Members McNabb and Thompson were added to the Committee in April 2005. Nominating Committee members are paid for their services $1,500 per year for Mr. Tashjian, and $750 per year for the other members, plus reasonable expenses for meeting attendance.

The Nominating Committee identifies candidates for nominees based upon both its criteria for evaluation and the candidate's previous service on the Board. Additionally, the Nominating Committee may use the services of a search company in identifying nominees. Although the Nominating Committee has not determined specific minimum qualifications for its nominees, it evaluates candidates that it has identified based upon:

character, personal and professional ethics, integrity and values;

executive level business experience and acumen;

relevant business experience or knowledge (although preference may be shown for experience in or knowledge of the retail industry, it is not a prerequisite);

skills and expertise necessary to make significant contributions to the Company, its Board and its shareholders;

business judgment;

availability and willingness to serve on the Board;

independence requirements of NASDAQ listing standards;

potential conflicts of interest with the Company or its shareholders taken as a whole; and accomplishment within the candidate's own field.

The Nominating Committee has adopted a policy with regard to considering a shareholder's nominee. To submit a nominee for consideration, a shareholder must provide the Nominating Committee:

proof of the shareholder's eligibility to submit proposals in accordance with Rule 14a-8(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended;

a complete description of the candidate's qualifications, experience and background; and the candidate's signed consent to serve on the Board.

In general, the Nominating Committee will evaluate a candidate identified by a shareholder using the same standards as it uses for candidates it identifies. Before recommending a shareholder's candidate, the Nominating Committee may also:

consider whether the shareholder candidate will significantly add to the range of talents, skills and expertise of the Board;

conduct appropriate verifications of the background of the candidate; and interview the candidate or ask the candidate for additional information.

The Nominating Committee has full discretion not to include a shareholder's candidate in its recommendation of nominees to the Board. If the Nominating Committee does not recommend a shareholder's candidate to the Board, it will not make public the reason or reasons for its decision.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

This Compensation Committee report documents the components of Fred's executive officer compensation programs and describes the basis on which fiscal 2005 compensation determinations were made by the Committee with respect to the executive officers of Fred's, including the Named Executives.

Compensation Philosophy and Overall Objectives of Executive Compensation Programs

It is the philosophy of Fred's that executive compensation be linked to improvements in corporate performance and increases in shareholder value. The following objectives have been adopted by the Committee as guidelines for compensation decisions:

Provide a competitive total compensation package that enables Fred's to attract and retain key executives.

Integrate all pay programs with Fred's annual and long-term business objectives and strategy, and focus executive behavior on the fulfillment of those objectives.

Provide variable compensation opportunities that are linked with the performance of Fred's and that align executive remuneration with the interests of shareholders.

Compensation Program Components

The Committee reviews Fred's compensation program annually to ensure that pay levels and incentive opportunities are competitive and reflect the performance of Fred's. The particular elements of the compensation program for executive officers are further explained below.

Base Salary - Base pay levels are largely determined through comparisons with other retailing companies. Actual salaries are based on individual performance contributions within a salary structure that is established through job evaluation and job market considerations. Base pay levels for the executive officers are competitive within the middle of a range that the Committee considers to be reasonable and necessary. Various increases in base salary were recommended by the Chief Executive Officer in fiscal 2005 for the other Named Executives, based on performance and competitive considerations, and the Committee considered those recommendations in making its determination.

Incentive Compensation - Fred's officers are eligible to participate in an annual incentive compensation plan with awards based primarily on the attainment of various specified levels of operating profits. The objective of this plan is to deliver competitive levels of compensation for the attainment of financial objectives that the Committee believes are primary determinants of earnings growth. Targeted awards for executive officers of Fred's under this plan are consistent with targeted awards of other retailing companies of similar size and complexity to Fred's. Specified awards were recommended by the Chief Executive Officer for the other Named Executives of Fred's for fiscal 2005, based upon the Company's performance, and the Committee considered these recommendations in making its determination.

Fred's Stock Option Program - The Committee strongly believes that by providing those persons who have substantial responsibility for the management and growth of Fred's with an opportunity to increase their ownership of Common Stock, the best interests of shareholders and executives will be closely aligned. Therefore, executives are eligible to receive stock options from time to time, giving them the right to purchase shares of Common Stock in the future at a specified price. The number of stock options granted to executive officers is based on competitive practices, with the value of such options estimated by using a Black-Scholes pricing model.

Discussion of Compensation for the Chief Executive Officer

The Committee has considered Chief Executive Officer's base salary, incentive compensation and long-term incentives to be less than or equal to the total compensation paid to other executives similarly situated, and has deemed his beneficial ownership of Common Stock to provide adequate linkage between the interests of Fred's shareholders and Mr. Hayes' personal interests.

Table of Contents

Summary

After its review of all relevant programs, the Committee continues to believe that the total compensation program for executives of Fred's is competitive with the compensation programs provided by other companies with which Fred's competes. The Committee believes that any amounts paid under the incentive compensation plan will be appropriately related to corporate and individual performance, yielding awards that are linked to the annual financial and operational results of Fred's. The Committee also believes that the stock option program provides opportunities to participants that are consistent with the returns that are generated on behalf of Fred's shareholders.

PROPOSAL 2 (APPROVE SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM)

BDO Seidman, LLP audited the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended January 28, 2006. BDO Seidman, LLP is an independent registered public accounting firm. The Board of Directors is asking the shareholders to approve the appointment of BDO Seidman, LLP as such independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending February 3, 2007. Although not required by law, NASDAQ listing standards, or the Company's bylaws, the Board of Directors is submitting the selection of BDO Seidman, LLP to the shareholders for ratification as a matter of good corporate practice. Even if the selection is ratified, the Audit Committee in its discretion may select a different independent registered public accounting firm at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, including economic considerations.

The Board of Directors will offer a resolution at the Annual Meeting to ratify this selection. BDO Seidman LLP, which has acted as independent registered public accounting firm of Fred's since July 30, 2004, is expected to be represented at the Annual Meeting, will have the opportunity to make a statement, if they desire to do so, and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS SHAREHOLDERS VOTE FOR THE APPROVAL OF THE SELECTION OF BDO SEIDMAN, LLP AS OUR INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM FOR FISCAL YEAR 2006.

Changes in Certifying Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

On June 11, 2004, Ernst & Young, LLP (E&Y) submitted to the Company an engagement letter proposing fiscal 2004 auditing fees which were significantly higher than anticipated by the Company. Therefore, the Company's Audit Committee initiated the process of seeking 2004 quotes from other auditors, and instructed management to attempt to resolve the unanticipated year-end 2003 fee under dispute with Ernst & Young before making a decision on which auditing firm to use for fiscal 2004. On July 1, 2004, E&Y notified the Company that it would resign. The Company's Audit Committee accepted the E&Y resignation on the foregoing basis.

Each of the audit reports of E&Y on the consolidated financial statements of the Company for each of the years in which they acted as the Company's auditors in the two-year period ended January 31, 2004 did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles.

During all periods in which E&Y acted as the Company's principal accountant through July 30, 2004, there were no disagreements with E&Y on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedures, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of E&Y, would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in their reports on the consolidated financial statements for such years.

During the past two fiscal years and through the date of this Report, E&Y has not advised the Company of any reportable events (as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K), other than E&Y reported to the Company that, in conducting its audit of the 2003 financial statements, it noted weaknesses in certain internal controls. E&Y has not informed the Company that those weaknesses constitute material weaknesses as defined by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The weaknesses related to (1) the number and qualifications of corporate accounting personnel, (2) procedures related to accounting for consideration received from vendors, and (3) the financial statement closing process. At the direction of its Audit Committee, the Company had taken steps to address the concerns expressed by E&Y during its work for the Company. The Company has enhanced its internal controls by (i) hiring additional skilled accounting staff (ii) focused additional personnel and reviews upon accounting for consideration received from vendors, and (iii) instituted more testing of results in the closing process before public reporting of quarterly and fiscal year end results.

On July 30, 2004, the Company engaged BDO Seidman, LLP (BDO) as its new certifying accountants. The Company had not consulted with BDO during the two prior fiscal years and through July 30, 2004 regarding the application of accounting principles to a proposed or completed specified transaction or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements, where either a written report was provided or oral advice was provided that BDO concluded was an important factor considered by the Company in reaching a decision as to the accounting, auditing or financial reporting issue or as to any disagreement or reportable event as described in Item 304(a)(1)(iv) and Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.
