On or about June 6, 2002, Eugene Froelich commenced a derivative action in Superior Court of the State of California, Los Angeles County, on behalf of the Registrant against certain of its former and current officers and directors. The complaint, which names the Registrant as a nominal defendant, alleges, in substance, that the officers and directors breached their fiduciary duty to the Registrant in that they flagrantly mismanaged company affairs. The action seeks compensatory damages of not less than $10 million, together with an unspecified amount of punitive damages. Mr. Froelich was previously the executive vice president, chief financial officer and a director of Registrant. The Registrant has a judgment in excess of $3 million against Mr. Froelich based on a promissory note that he gave to the Registrant while he was a company executive.
